in his speech before the Chicago Bankers' club, said he favors a "bank of absolute security for the 15,000,000 depositors of the United States." So do I. But the only "absolute security" is in real estate, the foundation of all security. Secure a deed to, or a mortgage on, a good piece of cheap real estate, and you have the only absolute security to be obtained. If you will write to North or South Dakota drop me a line and I will tell you about some bargains on easy terms. Address

HORSE PLAY BY THE OMAHAS

Hits by Opponents and Weird Work by the Champs at Denver.

KING HAS NOVEL TURN AT BAT

Makes Two Hits Which Land on Base Runners—New Pitcher Shows in the Lineup of the Champions.

DENVER, Colo., May 29.—Autrey began the scoring this afternoon with a home run, but that was evened up in the next half of the same inning, when Ira Belden knocked a home run past W. Belden. The second inning was the beginning of the end, for Denver batters fell on Saunders. The third was a continuation, as Omaha's bad playing then became a factor. From that time on Denver took what it wanted, partly on good hitting, partly by poor playing by Omaha and partly because the Omaha men got to throwing the ball about with no apparent effect, except to aid the Denver men in running bases. The actual errors scored against Omaha show only a part of the extraordinarily poor work. Omaha had two men on bases in the second inning, with two out, when King smashed a liner down the third-base line, hitting W. Belden an awful whack on the left ankle, retiring the side. Again, in the eighth inning, Omaha had two men on bases, when King smashed one toward the short stop, hitting Ragan, who was running toward third. It is not often one player will get two hits in one game, the ball striking base runners. Score:

LINCOLN BATS OUT A VICTORY

Nichols is Rapped Often and at Opportune Times.

PUEBLO, Colo., May 29.—Johnson outpitched Nichols and a game which was locals thanked Lincoln took the first of the series by the score of 5 to 1. Nichols opened by walking Jude and Fox. This was followed by singles by Fenlon and Davidson, netting two runs. Mattick's single, a stolen base, Sinran's poor throw to second and a fielder's choice gave the locals their only run in the fifth. Singles by Fox, Fenlon and Thomas gave the visitors another in the same inning and in the ninth, singles by Fox Gaguler and Fenlon with two stolen bases netted two more tallies. Score:

SOUTH OMAHANS GET THEIRS

City Officials Defeated by Cliff Dwellers in Bellevue Relief Game.

The court house Cliffdwellers took their revenge for the defeat of two weeks ago by the 16-year-olds of the Christian Workers' club by wiping up Pa's lot with the city officials of South Omaha yesterday afternoon by the score of 9 to 8.

Of course at the last minute the real county officials failed to show up and their places were taken by their understudies. The South Omahans were more fortunate, with Chief of Police Briggs and City Attorney Sam Winters in the lineup. Everybody from the Magic City says the result would have been different if McHale hadn't sprained his left knee in the third while pitching sizzling twisters over the plate, making it necessary for him to retire.

The South Omahans started the scoring in the third and Chief Briggs was the hero. The chief did the base running for McHale and he showed he hadn't been chasing crap-shooters all these years for nothing. His score stood as the limit until the fourth, when Peipel, who had carelessly been allowed to get to first, came in on a sacrifice by Sunblad and Joe Tracy ran in on a passed ball. In the seventh Radill got to first on a hit and Chief Briggs followed when he let his head get into the way of the ball. Both came in on Ringer's two-bagger, tying the score. In the last half Mahoney and Gus Stronck both scored and in the eighth Chief Briggs sat down on the ground and wept to see the way the county boys got around the bases. Sunblad, Minikus, Clark and Mahoney all made the circuit, running the score up to nine. The South Omaha half of the ninth was only a formality.

The record of the game would not be complete without a mention of the excellent work done by the "Merry Widow Rooting Squad," lead by Miss Anna Christie. The crowd was small, but the game will net a few dollars for the Bellevue relief fund, and besides the boys needed the exercise. The linup:

Court House.		South Omaha.
Christ Tracy	Catch	Leffler, Ringer
Primeau	Pitch	McHale, Leffler
Sunblad	First	Ringer, Briggs
Joe Tracy	Second	Hydock
Minikus	Short	Peipel
Clark	Third	Radill

G. Solomon	Right	Briggs, Winters

Score by innings:

South Omaha	0	0	1	0	0	0	2	0	0—	3
Court House	0	0	0	2	0	1	2	4	*—	9

KING OF UTILITY MEN, SURE

Terra Haute Player Sends Seven Runs Across the Plate.

Artie Hofman and Del Howard will have to look to their laurels as utility men, since the score of Wednesday's game between Terre Haute and Evansville is at hand. Wheeler, a utility man for Terre Haute, has apparently set a pace that no man can expect to follow. In the fourth inning he was sent in to bat for a regular. The bases were full and he rapped out a three-bagger, scoring three runs. He took his place in the game and in the next inning the bases were again full when he stepped to the plate. With yells of "Do it again," "Now for another three-bagger," rent the air. Wheeler was equal to the occasion and again he drove the ball far out into the far shoot and the Man on third scored, while Wheeler made his three-bagger.

So far as is known this is a record that stands unique in the annals of base ball.

BELLEVUE LOSES TO WESLEYAN

No Scoring Done by Either Side After the First Inning.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 29.—(Special Telegram.)—In a fast and interesting game Bellevue lost to Wesleyan university here today. The only scores were made in the first inning, when Wesleyan made two hits. The remainder of the game was hard fought and snappy. Hoormann pitched great ball, allowing only six hits and himself making seven assists. Roy was effective, especially when Bellevue got two men on bases in the seventh and nobody out, when he struck out one and threw the other two out at first. Larson and Marvin pulled off the fastest double seen on the local grounds. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Bellevue	0	0	6
Wesleyan	2	6	0

Batteries: Bellevue, Hoormann and Crossman; Wesleyan, Roy and Stringfellow. Umpire: Enyhart.

Beatrice Easy for Wilber.

WILBER, Neb., May 28.—(Special.)—Wilber easily shut out the Beatrice baseball team on the home grounds yesterday afternoon in a six-inning contest. Daring base-running, aided by errors by the visitors gave Wilber most of their runs. J. Shimonek for Wilber was in good form, allowing only one scratch hit and striking out six men. In the first half of the seventh the visitors opened up with two clean singles, but the game was stopped by a hailstorm.

Score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Beatrice	0	2	1
Wilber	2	5	3

Stolen bases: Wilber, 3. Home run: G. Shestak. Batteries: Easter, Kuehl and Zimmerman; Shimonek and Stockan. Passed balls: Zimmerman, 1. Earned runs: Wilber, 1.
