> Omaha Company Defendant in Case Brought by Sheridan Company on Contract.

The Sheridan Coal company has brought suit in the United States circuit court against the Omaha Packing company on contract for coal delivery amounting to $3,547.76. The petition alleges that the Sheridan Coal company had a contract with the packing company to deliver coal to it in quantities of not less than ninety tons per day and that such delivery was made during the months of April and May 1808, and for some reason the defendants decline to pay. Suit is therefore brought to recover on the contract, with interest
