THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SATURDAY, MAY 30, 1908.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

6

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

Entered at Omaha Postoffice as secondclass matter

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (without Bunday), one year. $4.00 Daily Bee and Sunday, one year. $4.00 Sunday Bee, one year. 250 Baturday Bee, one year. 150

DELIVERED BY CARRIER: Daily Bee (including Sunday), per week ite Daily Bee (without Sunday), per week ite Evening Bee (without Sunday), per week to Evening Bee (with Sunday), per week to Address all complaints of irregularities in delivery to City Circulation Department. OFFICES:

Ormaha-The Bee Building. Bouth Omaha-City Hall Building. Conneil Bluffs-15 Scott Street. Chicago-1640 University Building. New York-Rooms 1161-1162, No. 34 West Thirty-third Street. Washington-725 Fourteenth Street N. W. CORRESPONDENCE.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed: Omaha Bee, Editorial Department. REMITTANCES.

Remit by draft, express or postal order payable to The Bee Fublishing Company, Only 2-cent stamps received in payment of mall accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha or eastern exchanges, not accepted.

STATMENT OF CIRCULATION:

STATMENT OF CIRCULATING, S.: George B. Tzschuck, treasurer of The Bee Publishing company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of the Daily, Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of April, 198, was as follows: bute of the living to the dead. Each year on May 30 the old-ever-new story of patriotism, loyalty and undaunted courage of the million men who bore

5.950

6,600

7,140

6,950

6,990

6,460

0.00.0

6,880

6,550

6,000

6,760

6,990

6,970

6,920

1	26,943	10	3
2	36,900	A	3
8	36,750		3
*	37,010	19	3
6	36,900	20	9
6	37,580	21	5
7	37,940	$2	3
8	37,040	28	3
9	37,140	26	3
10	37,060	36	9
11	37,080	26	3
12	37,050	27	3
18	37,340	28	3
14		29	3
15	37,190	80	3

30,672 GEORGE B. TZSCHUCK.

Treasurer. Bubscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this ist day of May, 1985 (Seal.) ROBERT HUNTER, Notary Public.

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

Congress has apparently found change for a currency bill.

Some of the newly elected bishops may not be generally known, but Bishop Smith's name sounds very familliar.

Double shotted editorials in the local now-a-days. "How long, oh, Lord, is a demand for municipal bonds. how long?"

the south.

Near-corn is bumping along toward special attraction for Omaha inves-$1 a bushel in Chicago. Real corn is tors, but the amount of money here the industry, we do not control, and the der" yellow journal for starting young also almost as valuable as "old wheat waiting for sure rather than big re- price of pig from for immediate delivery people on the road to the bad?

will be given another opportunity to one of the tailenders. Cross-continent Each recurring Memorial day finds define the party's attitude on the automobile racing must be as uncerthe observance of the anniversary Philippine status, tain if not as exciting as politics.

Delegates to the democratic national * ANOTHER BISHOP FOR OMAHA. It is now definitely fixed that Omaha convention from Nebraska have been will be the official residence of one of assessed $125 and alternates $100, to the newly elected bishops of the Meth- pay headquarters and incidental exodist Episcopal church. Bishop Nuel- penses at Denver. If the assessment son is to be assigned to this district, is uniform and every one pays in, this Although he is not personally known levy will produce $3,600. What kind athletic contests of all kinds. Re- to many of our people, he may count of plutocratic entertainment does our Nebraska democrats propose to put up on a welcome none the less hearty.

at Denver? The re-establishment of the Methodist bishopric here will emphasize

The Philadelphia Record says it will Omaha's importance in the organizacost $5,000,000 to repair the battletion of this great church-an imships after their return from the trip portance which has already been recogaround the world. Admiral Evans says servance is due to the efforts of the nized by other denominations. When the ships will be in better condition the Methodist bishop shall have taken of the Republic. Realizing that their up his residence in Omaha we will when they return than when they sailed from Hampton Roads. The have among us bishops of the three Record professes to be a democratic strongest churches in this country. newspaper.

This means that the people of these denominations in our surrounding ter-Congressman J. Hampton Moore of ritory will look to Omaha as the religious center from which their church making it a misdemeanor for a launwork radiates and the activities of dryman in the District of Columbia ating their beautiful Memorial day tri- these various organizations in fields to use acids or to mangle the linen of allied to their religious teachings will customers. That's an issue that aplikewise find their head and front at peals and it isn't too fate to get bethe episcopal seat.

Recognition of Omaha's growing importance to the church organization is apace with its growing importance generally, and should do much to help make the city continue to grow braska State board, which, on the car stronger and more prosperous. HOLDING UP STEEL PRICES. The United States Steel corporation, which these profitable concerns pracfamiliarly known as the Steel trust, tically escape taxation altogether.

rations of the day the chief particihas added a new topic for discussion pants were those whose grief found in business and economic circles by its origin in the flower-decked mounds deciding to make no reduction of Time is softening these griefs or reprices from the level of flush times. In days," says the Birmingham Age-Hermoving them, and eventually the spirit support of its attitude it offers a series ald. This is the first intimation that of the day will be one of joy over the of arguments to show that prosperity President Roosevelt has invited Mr. the sacrifices and services of the sol- can be compelled to return by the Bryan to come down and be his guest national greatness made possible by maintenance of steady prices, whereas for a week or more. the financial and industrial depression would be prolonged indefinitely by lowering prices of steel products. The argument resembles that of the rail-> could do that and it is certain that Mr. Taft would not try.

las county, which includes South with Omaha, Florence, Benson and Clontarf, as well as Omaha. Is it possible that there is no iniquity in Douglas # 1905-07, when, without exciting any com- duct is decorous. She might have been The Presbyterian general assembly be taken up for investment in small prices than those which we actually satisfied with a smaller amount, un-

"Mr. Bryan will soon go to the White House to stay longer than three he south. Near-corn is bumping along toward special attraction for Omaha inves-No one has yet volunteered a satisMEMORIAL DAT. .

The Bivouvac of the Dead. (Written on the occasion of the reinter-ment in Kentucky of the troops from that atate who fell in the Mexican war.) The muffled drum's sad roll has beat The soldier's last tatoo! No more on life's parade shall meet That brave and failen few.

That brave and fallen few. On Fame's sternal camping ground Their silent lents are spread; And gtory guards, with solemn round, The bivouac of the dead.

No rumor of the foe's advance Now swells upon the wind; No trouble thought at midnight haunts Of loved ones left behind; No vision of the morrow's strife The warrifor's dream alarms. No braying horn or screaming fife At dawn shall call to arms.

Their shivered swords are red with rust, Their plumed heads are bowed; Their haughty banner trailed in dust, Is now their marshal shroud; And plenteous funeral tears have washed The red stains from each brow; And the proud forms, by battle gashed, Are free from anguish now.

The neighing troop, the flashing blade, The bugie's stirring blast, The charge, dreadful cannonade, The din and about are passed; Nor war's wild note, nor gtory's peal. Shall thrill with flerce delight Those breasts that never more shall feel The rapture of the fight.

Philadelphia has introduced a bill Like the fierce northern hurricane That sweeps his great plateau, Fluahed with triumph yet to gain Comes down the seried foe. Who heard the thunder of the fray Break o'er the field beneath. Knew well the watchword of that day Was victory or death.

The annual assessment of the prop-erty of the private car lines by the Ne-braska State board, which, on the car

Yon marble minstrel's voiceless stone In deathless song shall tell. When many a vanished year has flown. The story how ye fell; Nor wireck, nor change, nor winter's flight. Nor Time's remorseless doom, Can dim one ray of holy light mileage basis, merely nominal, suggests that there must be some "twilight zone" between the states in

That glids your glorious tomb. THEODORE O'HARA.

The Blue and the Gray. By the flow of the iniand river. Whence the fleets of iron have fled. Where the blades of the grave grans quiver, Asleep are the ranks of the dead; Under the sod and the dew. Waiting the judgment day; Under the one, the Blue; Under the other, the Gray.

These, in the robings of glory, Those, in the gloom of defeat, All with the battle-blood gory. In the dusk of Eternity meet; Under the sod and the dew, Walting the judgment day; Under the laurel, the Blue; Under the willow, the Gray.

From the silence of sorrowful bowers The desolate mourners go, Lovingly laden with flowers, Alike for the friend and the fos; Under the sod and the dew, Waiting the judgment day, Under the rose, the Ruse The grand jury which is in session Under the roses, the Blue;

here has jurisdiction over all of Doug- So, with an equal spiendor. Bo, with an equal spiendor. The morning sun rays fall. With a touch impartially tender On the blossoms blooming for a Under the sod and the dew, Waiting the judgment day; Broidered with gold the Blue, Mellowed with gold the Gray. ing for all:

county outside of Omaha? Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is said to have made an arrangement by which she will be paid $1,000 a month from the Thaw family fund as long as her con-Wet with the full the upbraiding. The generous deed was done: In the storms of the years that are fading. No braver battle was won: Under the sod and the dew. Waiting the judgment day: Under the blossoms the Blue; Under the blossoms the Gray. Under the garlands the Gray. No more shall the war cry sever, No more shall the wars be red; Or the winding rivers be red; They banish our anger forever, When they laureled the graves of our dead; Under the sod and the dew. Waiting the judgment day; Love and tears for the Blug;

Sickness of Children

A large part of the sickness of children is directly traceable to improper food. Many have their digestion crippled for life. Sound digestive organs mean a sound body and a sound brain.

D PRICE who has been nearly half a century FOOD manufacturing pure food products for children, invalids and all classes.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. Bryan freely admits that he is the eading candidate of his party. "And what is so rare as a day in June," sings Anna Gould as she picks out her second wedding day.

Mr. Charles Dana Gibson is going back to work in black and white. He admits that Rockefeller has him skinned in dabbling in olis.

Thaw has mind enough left to reflect that Matteawan has some advantages, it being equipped with electric fans but no electric chairs.

Losses of Chicago investors in the collapse of the Amador Mining Development company are said by the stockholders' attorney to exceed $1,000.000.

A young Indiana man has been refused permission to erect bronge tablets inscribed with the Ten Commandments on the courthouse square in his home town. "The "Let Us Alone" movement has evidently reached that place.

Daniel F. Cohalan, legal advisor of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, and chairman of the Law Committee of the Tammany organization, was elected grand sachem to succeed Bourke Cochran at a meeting of the sachems of Tammany Hall Monday night.

General Roger A. Pryor, who served in the Thirty-sixth congress, from Virginia, but who now is a retired member of the supreme court of New York, visited the house of representatives last Tuesday. Carrying his eighty years well, General Pryor remained for some time in the house and was the recipient of much attention. Speaker Cannon conversed with him for some time.

"Do you regard Standard oil as a re-fined product?" "I should call it refined, considering that it has been fined over and over."--Washington Star.

Ruggles-What horsepower is your new Ramage-Two, I guess. That's the horse-power it took to haul it to the repair shop when it broke down on a country road the other day.-Chicago Tribuns.

"Yes," said the lawyer, "I can get you a divorce with or without publicity." "Which would be more expensive?" "No difference. It costs about as much to get people to talk as to induce them to keep still."--Philadelphia Ledger.

"I see that a Rembrandt has been found

THE PARTING VOLLEY.

THE PARTING VOLLEY. With arms reversed the ranks pass on. The muffied drum marks faitered tread A master roll reads simply. "Gone." One more is numbered with the dead-A creatily. The parting volley rolls A requiem among earth's souls. The flags hang drooping from the mast. Faint echoes come and go and die. Tears till the eyes, welled from the past. Of those who see a comrade lie Where memory must be a name. And tablets praise a hero's frame. What then? A soldler gives his life For lows of country, valorous deeds. And hes as one whom carnal strife Marked for its own among its seeds. Al., yes! ere yet a flashing blade Was drawn or sheathed his grave was made. Who calls the names of those to fall? Ask of the God of battles, who? But they are known, and some of all Who go to war to dare and do Know that the plerchug shot will bring To him his altar's offering. Some meet the shock within the fray.

Some meet the shock within the fray, Some fail within the nurse's tent. Maimed, weak and gaunt they waste away Yet to its end each way is bent; The end? Deserved promotion calls To higher life each one that fails. --CLIFFORD KANE STOUT. waste away,

The Optimist-You look it.

THE WEEK END If you are going away for Decoration Day remember that the things you need in the way of wearables-are all here-of the best-

Shirts -and a bag to put them in and on the minute.

notwithstanding apprehensions and suspend its operations. Prof. Edward forebodings Omaha's credit is not only S. Meade of the University of Pennsylunimpaired but, if anything, better vanta discusses the Steel trust's posithan ever before. Even the overhang- tion at great detail in the current chase price for the water works has replying for the Steel trust to its not affected this credit seriously. critics, Prof. Meade says: For seven years we have maintained Omaha municipal bonds are gilt edged stable prices in those branches of the steel hyphenated organ nearly every day and will find buyers so long as there industry which we are able to influence. During this period there have been re-In the second place, the purchase of peated occasions in 1902. In 1905 and Thaw family fund as long as her con-these bonds locally means that they will way presidents insisting that freight the water at Old Point Comfort the rates be increased at a time when there is little traffic to be carried. In both cases the law of supply and demand is ignored or an effort made to ing cloud of a six-million-dollar pur- Quarterly Journal of Economics. In ment, we could have exacted much higher treated the negroes white by voting amounts by our own people and in all charged. To be specific, rails sold in 1899 hampered by annoying restrictions. $300,000 to aid in their education in probability will not go through the we have maintained for seven years a citement.

earning dividends.

ment for the steel company and is calculated to inspire the Corporation to demand a vote of thanks for not taking greater profits when it had the opportunity. The company's quarterly reports, however, show that it has been doing tolerably well in the matter of Prof. Meade proceeds with the argu-

Prices have been established so that every customer, from the hardware this score any reduction in prices at this time would simply serve to un-settle conditions. Whether or not the argument appeals to the public as particularly sound, it furnishes pretty good proof that at least one of the greatest industries of the nation is completely dominated by a single orstances could a price level be mainfluctuate with the market, as does the price of every other uncontrolled

The redeeming feature of the situaprovement in industrial conditions.

Export trade in steel has increased materially in the last three months and the domestic demand is growing.

The refusal of the trust to scale down prices indicates their conviction that

Through the Commoner Mr. Bryan business will soon again be normal.

commodity.

Governor Johnson of Minnesota is reported to have turned a double somersault from a spring board into other day. It is doubtful if Mr. Bryan in the bin.

It is time for one or both of the Water board lawyers to announce an- unexcelled. other trip to Europe with Omaha taxpayers footing the bill.

Mr. Bryan says the bosses will not run the Denver convention. In other ticular bond sale, but it is calculated words, he serves notice that he will to steady and strengthen the demand require no nelp on the job.

The Methodist general conference will adjourn soon and then the weather man may feel warranted in giving his rainmakers a vacation.

"No man ever had a greater desire convention at Denver will have an into be president than James G. Blaine" teresting question to settle relative to says the Washington Post, a newspaper the party's recognition of the Philipthat has never understood Mr. Bryan.

The roster of the survivors of the pines has elected six delegates to the War of the Rebellion is being fast convention at Denver who will be on shortened by the Grim Reaper's hand with their credentials clamoring scythe, but Memorial day will live for recognition. Their votes will not on forever.

"Why do not the Parisians forget 1900, so the democrats in convention Count Boni?" asks the New York will be in position to consider the World. Well, one reason is that he party's attitude toward them dispasstill owes them something over sionately. 48,000,000:

Of the 200 members of the senior people at the polls, both in 1900 and class at Princeton, forty assert that in 1904, have recognized the sovthey never klased a girl. This higher ereignty of the United States in the education apparently fails to come up Philippines, but Mr. Bryan has not yet to the advertisements.

"Lettuce Alone" club.

Congress has appropriated $1,500.- plying to foreign nations. They in-000 to make an exposition exhibit at sisted that congress had no more right capitals.

The assessment levied on the Nebraska delegation to Denver for headquarters expenses should yield $3,600. Will Mr. Bryan also insist upon publicity of receipts and expenditures for this fund?

years ago. This is the right season of excluded the Filipinos. the year to clean your distern.

accumulation of trust funds, and for years equaled the price of steel rails. such investments Omaha bonds are It is doubtful whether the new cur- products without causing a ripple of ex-

MEMORIAL DAT

serving a wider purpose than that which inspired its creation. Originally set aside as a day for placing floral tributes on the graves of the men who gave their lives to preserve the union, a feast day and a gala occasion for vulsion of sentiment has for several years past brought the observance of the day more into keeping with the purpose that gave it recognition as a

The broader scope of the day's ob-surviving members of the Grand Army ranks are being rapidly thinned, the veterans have sought to keep alive the spirit of patriotism and loyalty that school chidren in the work of perpetuarms in the country's defense is told to the youth of the land and will be told by them long after the last participant in the struggle has answered

As the years go on another change must mark the spirit of Memorial day observance. In the earlier commemo-

SIGNIFICANCE OF A BOND SALE.

The sale of a block of Omaha municlpal paving and park bonds at what is considered an extraordinary good figure under existing conditions on a bid by a local bond broker is signifi-

First and foremost, it indicates that cant in several ways.

the final roll call.

dier dead.

generally observed holiday.

rency legislation, making municipal bonds available for emergency note issues, has had any effect on this par-for our municipal bonds in the future. THE FILIPINOS AT DENVER. Even after Mr. Bryan announces his platform and selects his running mate for the 1908 campaign the democratic pines as a part of the United States. The democratic party in the Philip-be needed, as was the vote of the Hawaiian delegate at Kansas City in

The congress of the United States, the supreme court of the land and the acquiesced in the action. Democrats in congress opposed the measure A scientist now insists that measles placing a duty on Philippine products, and scarlet rash are caused by eating contending that the constitution follettuce, and the Kansas City Star lows the flag and that accordingly promptly urges the formation of a new congress could not consider the Philippines as allen territory subject to the operation of the tariff laws ap-

Tokio in addition to the other millions to place a tariff on Philippine products voted for battleships to make an ex- than to levy a tariff on the products hibition at Tokio and other foreign of any state in the union. While the democrats in congress were clinging to that argument, the democrats in convention at St. Louis adopted a report of the committee on credentials which declares that the chances of the demogave Porto Rico six delegates, but shut crats carrying New York this year are out representation from the Philip- particularly bright. The record shows pines. The distinction and the reason that Mr. Bryan got 46 per cent of the

for the discrimination was never made" vote in New York in 1896 and 45 per A New Jersey man recently cleaned clear, but the report was accepted and cent of it in 1900. McCiolian, Greeley an old cistern and found $50,000 the national committee in making the and Parker are the only democratic worth of railway bends that had be- call for the 1908 convention at Denver presidential candidates who failed to longed to his father who died fifteen followed the St. Louis precedent and do better than that in the Empire the "Allies" are now systematically enstate.

Colonel Bryan and other democratic leaders are constantly clamoring for

According to the Commoner, Mr. action by this government assuring im- German car is now in the lead in the Bryan already has 511 of the 672 mediate independence to the Philip- New York to Paris automobile race. This movement is based on the elected, an delegates needed to nominate at Den- pines, yet in convention calls they re- When the German car was in Omaha assumption that will gain no credence ver at the hour of going to press, and fuse to recognize the Philippines as a its driver declared that he did not throughout the country, for, at least, Mr. several more have been added since United States dependency. Their law or last, so long as he arrived, and the strongest candidate the repub-that time. The Bryan nomination is on Easy street. United States dependency. Their law or last, so long as he arrived, and the best of the strongest candidate the repub-the strongest candi several more have been added since United States dependency. Their law care whether he reached Paris first Taft is the strongest candidate the repub-turns is gradually growing with the has several times during the last five

The grounds surrounding the state There have been times within the last two years when we could have added 30 per house at Lincoln are to be equipped cent to the price of every one of our with benches to rest the weary. The also-rans for state office should have first call on the benches. This makes a rather effective argu-

> Mr. Hearst is going to Europe, but promises to return in time to scatter a little broken glass and some rusty nails in the path of the Bryan automobile in the eastern states.

Mr. Bullett of Kentucky is going to try and start a stampede for Cannon in the Chicago convention. Cannon ment that the policy of the trust has and Bullett would make a ticket that been to treat all customers alike. would be heard from in any campaign.

There's the Rub.

dealer at the crossroads town to the Minneapolis Journal. The bankers understand what Mr. Bryan biggest steel using concern in the counmeans by their guaranteeing one antry, might know just what prices were other, but what they want to know is to be and could make contracts and whether the presidential candidates are future arrangements accordingly. On prepared to do as much.

Actor Passes, History Remains.

St. Louis Times. The last survivor of the Libby prison escaping party has joined his regiment on the other side, but the story of unbelievable hardships goes marching through the pages of history.

All Together for the Trial. Louisville Courier-Journal.

ganization. Under no other circum-If everybody who employs labor will make things whirr June 1, "Employment tained against a demand reduced as Day" may prove to be the signal of a rebirth of national prosperity, in factmuch as 50 per cent in some lines. If sesame to humming industries and comthe steel business were in the hands nercial optimism. of competing concerns, prices would

Baltimore American.

Another scientist has come forward with the announcement that the sun is gradually cooling off and that posterity will tion is the apparent assurance the very much impressed with such prognostifreeze to death; but it is very difficult to be steel managers feel of a speedy im- cations when the summer and the iceman are both approaching.

Too Much "Uncle Joe."

Minneapolis Journal (Rep.). What ails the republican party and will ause it more trouble in the coming campaign than anything else, is too much Joe Cannon. For that long list of important measures neglected or defeated, the principal, and in most cases, the sufficient explanation is too much Joe Cannon. It would not be an inappropriate or impertinent question to inquire of every republican candidate for congress in the ming election, whether he proposes, if elected, to vote for Joe Cannon fo

Tricks of the Canned Attics.

speaker.

Kansas City Times, Having failed to control a majority of deavoring to undermine the Taft delegations by appealing to each individual dele-According to the latest reports the gate they have the slightest reason to believe might ignore instructions or pledges.

Tears and love for the Gray. September, 1867. F. M. FINCH. to travei aro

The Watch Below. "What a flat situation that new house has which Mr. Plungit, the bold speculator, is building for himself." "Yea, it is flat, and yet he built it on a bluff."-Baltimore American. The Watch Below. Bring blossoms for the sailor dead Who sleep in occan graves: Bring fragrant lilles, pale and pure. To float upon the waves. And dewey purple lillacs, too, From many a cottage home. And starry daisles, while and gold, To mingle with the foam.

"Nature makes nothing in vain," said the philosopher. "Perhaps," answered Colonel Stillweil, "though I can't quite explain the presence of a great big, beautiful mint bed in a local option county."-Washington Star.

"Here, you sir!" cried her father, angrily, how dare you show your face here again "Well, replied the nervy suitor, "I might have worn a mask, that's true, but that would have been deceitful."-Philadelphia

Fress

The navy's slient crew. So let us to the rolling sea Consign a wreath today. A tribute to our mariners Beneath the sliver spray. For while the angry tempests roar And whip the waves to snow. The nation never will forget The gallant watch below. -MIMA IRVING, in Leslie's Weekly.

Passing of the Boys in Blue. O'er forty years have passed away Since peace had closed the deadly fray. Turned in the arms and out the lights. And comrades of a hundred fights Had all returned home once more. As waves recoding from the shore, That tempests past, leave naught beside The foam line of the angry tide.

To swear allegiance to the cause of equal rights and equal laws, union one forever and Stars and Stripes o'er all the land; And thus all over, near and far, They formed the mighty G. A. R. And this Grand Army Logan led To bless the memory of the dead And keep it green while floats the fing From spar and spire and mountain crag By decorating everywhere The graves of those who placed it there. Forthwith proclaiming holy, they Have since observed Memorial day!

Have and a basered admiring eyes Of thousands 'neath the vernal skies They marched in grand review as part Of what was in each loyal heart; They docked the mounds which angels see As temples where men bend the knee With fragrant flowers and evergreens. To teach what love of country means!

Till now the most pathetic sight Is just the old commander's plight: His self-delusion brings to view The passing of the Boys in Blue! "The post is formed, sir." This he hears With all the pride of former years, "Right face!" and "Forward march!" his word. word, As if a thousand saw his sword; With ten he sees the dead and gone, blessing of a holy hour. Some days the heart may fondly claim, And hallow them with precious name, Sime times for sweet communion keep With thoughts of past companionship.

And looking up through dewy eyes. The flowers smile to warmer skies.

The love that lives through times of tears, And fastes not in the passing years, Forever clings to hope and faith. And looks beyond the gates of death.

"It's funny how these foreigners m travei around. What's he doing t What's he doing there? -Cleveland Plain Dealer.

We shall be open Friday evening and close at 1 o'clock Saturday, and remain closed balance of day.

> Browning, King ELE & Company Fifteenth and Douglas Sts.

OMAHA R. S. WILCOX, Mgr.

Figure This Out Mr. and Mrs. Piano Buyer

A plus B plus C is greater than A plus b.

- A equals manufacturing cost of a Piano.
- B is the other dealer's operating expense and profit.
- b is the operating expense and profit at Hospe's.
- C is the commission the other dealer pays any one who brings a piano customer.
- b at Hospe's store is smaller than B at other dealers', because we have less operating expense in proportion to the immense business done and are satisfied with less profit on each piano than are the other dealers.
- A plus B plus C is the other dealers' price-even after he gives you an inside price.

A plus b is the Hospe price. Enough said.

We sell the best Pianos at the lowest prices and easiest terms in the Unitd States.

Their monuments are coral reafs. Their shrouds the shifting sand; They're scattered many a fathom deep, And miles away from land. No call to quarters, hud and clear, Across the billows blue Can summon from their long renose Can summon from their long repose The navy's silent crew.

A hundred years of heroes lie Beneath the seething brine, Brave men who yielded up their lives For Freedom's sake divine From Jones, the dashing privateer, To Evans and his tars, They died in peace as well as war To serve the Stripes and Stars.

And, home again, the Boys in Blue Reorganized as comrades true,

But all along the dread decree That earthly things cease to be. Has kept on thinning out the ranks and filled the center from the flanks.

With ten he sees the beau arching on. Their shadows bravely marching on. Ahl here is seen in and review The passing of the Boys in Blue! —JAMES BURKE.

The Graves Are Green Again. Again the living green is spread apon the dwellings of the dead;

Now memory with tender grace, Returns to view the sacred place, And feel anew love's lasting power, Prophecies that Are Vain.