

OMAHA, NEB., SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 31, 1908.

RESOLVED.

THAT UNCLE LOOKED LIKE AN OVERGROWN BABY AND A MILLION DOLLARS RIDING IN THE JINRIKISHA, SOMETHING HAPPENED AND HE WENT UP IN THE AIR, SO LIKE THE INFLATED STOCKS WE READ ABOUT, I'D RATHER PUT MY FEW PENNIES IN A CANDY SHOP THAN IN A "BUCKET SHOP," ANY DAY. IN ONE YOU CAN GET A LEMON STICK, IN THE OTHER, YOU GET A LEMON. JINRIKISHA MEANS A "MAN POWER CARRIAGE," SOMETIMES IT GOES SO FAST I FEEL LIKE BUYING A FEW TO SEND UP HOME TO TACK ON TO THE "RAPID TRANSIT CARS FOR A SPRING TONIC. I'M AFRAID, THOUGH, THAT THE JAP PONIES' WOULD THINK THAT THE CONDUCTORS WERE MAKING FUN OF THEIR LANGUAGE AT EVERY STATION AND QUIT THE JOB.

BUSTER BROWN