CORNELL WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Ithaca Athletes Finish First in Premier College Event of Year.

PENNSYLVANIA

Good Time Made Despite Muddy Field and Heavy Rain that Continued Practically All Day.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30 .- Under weathor conditions about as bad as could be imagined for a track meet the stout-hearted athletes of Cornell university today or Franklin field won the Intercollegiate championship, the premier college athletic event of the year, by a margin of 4% points. The total points scored by the Ithacans was 54. Pennsylvania was second with 254; Yale third, 22: Harvard fourth, 1752; and Dartsmouth fifth, 17. Michigan and Swarthmore each made 6 points, Princeton and Columbia 4 each and Syracuse, 1. No records were broken, but good time was made considering the conditions. A heavy rain which set in early in the day was coming down in torrents when the meet began. The track was flooded in many places and the field was ankle deep with water.

Cornell's all around work was excellent its men scoring in seven events. The Ithacans took four firsts, three seconds, two thirds and one fourth. Pennsylvania also scored in seven events winning four firsts, two seconds, one third, one fourth and dividing one fourth. Cornell practically on on its showing in the two-mile race. A noteworthy feature of the day was the performances of the Yale pole vaulters. All of the Yale men who qualified yesterday tied for first place at 11 feet and conquently the New Haven team captured the entire eleven points in the event.

When it was announced on Thursday that Colin had suffered serious injury in a sensational workout in which he had covered a mile and a quarter in 3:05, that he might never race again, public sorrow and sympathy for his owner was widespread. Although the horse is so much in a class by himself that the odds quoted against him in every race are practically prohibitive, thus removing him from the field of speculation, the public generally has come to attention. Coming back of Colin today was almost as unexpected as and sensational as the that the injuries that would mean his re- score: tirement, were only temporary. James R. Keene, his owner, went to the Belmont track and had a consultation with his trainer, James Rowe, as to the advisability of sending the horse to the post

Chick Autrey Cuts Off Last Hope of Denver by Pulling Down One Started Out by Bohannon for a Homer.

DENVER, May 30 .- Ragan held the Depver hitters in the second game today, thus stopping the winning streak of the locals. At that, all the Deover fans are declaring that if Pat Bohannan's swipe had been just a trifle higher, so that Autrey could not have reached it, the result would have been different. The reason is that Denver had one in, a man on base and peeded two runs to tie. Had the ball got away from Autrey it would surely have been good for four bases. But, to the satisfaction of Pa Rourke, it did not get away. Ragan'sfine pitching and daring base running by Weich won the second game.

The first game went to Denver because Pitcher Ted Corbett, recently acquired from Sloux City, knocked a home run with the bases full in the fourth inning. Denver's hitting in the first game was continuous, in the second it was minns.
