Resources of Omaha's Territory

Markets, transportation facilities and accessibility are the possessions a city must have to claim "territory." Omaha is rich in these possessions and the trade records show that all Nebraska, one-third of Kansas, one-half of Iowa, all of South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana, Colorado, Utah and Idaho, and one-half of Oregon and one-half of Washington can be fairly claimed as "Omaha territory." On this basis, the census figures and the statistics of the Department of Agriculture furnish some forceful reasons for Omaha's remarkable financial, commercial and industrial growth. The figures of 1906—the latest available are used.

The wheat production of the United States in 1906 was 735,260,000 bushels, of which 382,000,000 bushels, or more than one-half, were raised in Omaha territory.

The corn crop of the United States in 1906 was 2,927,416,000 bushels of which 1,163,275,000 bushels were raised in Omaha territory.

The nation's oats crop in 1906 was 964,000,000 bushels, of which Omaha's territory produced 410-000,000 bushels, or nearly one-half.

The wool clip of the United States in 1906 was 276,991,000 pounds, valued at $45,723,700. Of this total, the clip in Omaha territory was 150,968,370 pounds, valued at $23,894,000.

The value of cattle in the United States on January 1, 1907, was $881,000,000. The cattle in Omaha territory was valued at $328,886,000.

The sheep of the country on January 1, 1907, were valued at $204,210,000. The sheep in Omaha territory on that date were valued at $98,181,800, or nearly one-half the total.

The nation's stock of horses on January 1, 1907, was valued at $1,468,400,000. The horses in Omaha territory were valued at $265,937,200, or about one-sixth of the nation's total.

The value of swine in the United States on January 1, 1904, was $417,791,000. The swine in Omaha territory were valued at $100,248,800, or about one-fourth the total.

The most assuring feature of the situation is that Omaha's territory is capable of many-fold development, while the rest of the country has almost reached the maximum of production. It will be but a few years until the Omaha territory will lead the rest of the nation in production along the lines quoted. One way to advertise Omaha is to let the rest of the world know of the resources of the city and the great inland empire tributary to it.
