As no cases were ready for trial Monday forenoon an adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Fears His Brother on Fated Ship—Frank Planck, bookkeeper in the office of the city comptroller, is worried over the report of three collisions between steamships in the North sea and the English channel on Sunday, as his brother is on a ship which is now due in the North sea. Mr. Planck's brother, William Planck of Red Oak, Ia., and his wife, sailed a week ago last Saturday from New York for Hamburg on the Pretoria.

"God Knows," Husband Doesn't—"God knows," replied R. H. Searle wearily, when Police Judge Crawford asked why his wife had left him. Searle was in court on a charge of disturbing the peace. He had seen his wife returning from Creighton hall with another man Sunday night. He had bade the man begone and had tried to take his wife home. The officer arrested him, but the woman ran away. He was discharged.

Half Century and First Arrest—Teddy Eckland in police court advanced to the man accused by clerks at the Iler the fact that he had lived in the city forty-five years and had never been arrested before. The argument appealed to the police judge though Mr. Eckland was arrested on a somewhat serious charge. He Grand, the Millard and the Schlitz hotels of passing checks and putting up "phony" watches as security. He was fined $50.

When Officer Egan appeared on the scene in response to McBride's complaint, Miss Jackson drew a $5 bill from her waist and offered to "split" it with the officer if he would keep quiet about the matter. But the faithful policeman arrested her and she was fined $5 in police court.

Weather Machine Slips a Cog—Colonel Welsh of the weather bureau modestly confesses that with the exertions of holding the weather back Memorial day so that all the proceedings could come off on schedule time, the weather machine did slip a cog so far as temperature is concerned Sunday night and Monday morning. A temperature of 52 was reported here as a starter for the balmy month of June, with showers out in the state. The local indications for Monday night and Tuesday are for unsettled conditions, being the first of the month, with slightly warmer Monday night.

Drunk on Umbrella Business—All the members of the firm of Krott-Murray-Hayes-O'Neil Consolidated Umbrella Menders' company were arrested Sunday. The first and last named members of the firm were discharged, while Murray will take the rest cure for ten days and Hayes for fifteen days in the county jail.

It is to be absolutely fireproof, being built of reinforced concrete by the Leonard Construction company of Chicago.

Diptheria at Detention School—What is believed to be a case of diphtheria has developed at the Detention school and in all probability the school will be quarantined by the health authorities. Lella Tibbitts, who was placed in the school Tuesday, took sick Wednesday and Saturday had a very sore throat. The health department has been notified and will make an examination of the case. If it is pronounced diphtheria the place will be quarantined. The school was closed several weeks last winter under a diphtheria quarantine.

W. H. Koenig Not a Candidate—There has been some talk about electing W. H. Koenig to fill the vacancy on the Board of Education caused by the death of Dr. W. H. Christie, but Mr. Koenig says he doubts if he would be in a position to accept should the board elect him a member. He intends to be away a good share of the summer and therefore could not give the attention to the work that should be given by members. He says he is in no way a candidate. Mr. Koenig retired from the board the first of the year on account of pressing business matters which prevented him from giving sufficient attention to school matters. Superintendent Davidson says he made an excellent member and he would like to see him again on the board.

OMAHA SEMINARY GETS IN

Recommended by General Assembly for Appropriation, Says Dr. E. H. Jenks.

Rev. E. H. Jenks, D. D., of the First Presbyterian church, has returned from the meeting of the Presbyterian general assembly held in Kansas City. While there, Dr. Jenks made a strong appeal for the Omaha Theological seminary and asked that it be considered in the matter of general endowments for Presbyterian educational institutions."

"I only spoke for a few moments," said Dr. Jenks, "and pressed the claims of the Omaha seminary strongly as I could. The chief object of my address was to invite the attention of the general assembly to the Omaha institution and the need for sustaining a strong seminary here. I further undertook to show that the Roman Catholic church regarded Omaha as the center of the great home mission field and that interest is giving its educational institutions here every encouragement. I tried to impress upon the assembly that same idea with regard to our educational interests. That was all I could do.

"Of course the assembly could not make any appropriation for the seminary. All that can be done is to secure the recommendation of the assembly that the Omaha seminary may be placed in line with those institutions meriting endowments. The securing of these must of course be left to local personal effort upon the part of the home friends of the seminary. I also spoke of the conditions prevailing at Bellevue college and made a similar plea in behalf of that institution."

Rev. M. B. Lowrie, D. D., president of the seminary, also attended the general assembly, but left before the report came in, following Dr. Jenk's address.

"I found that sentiment seemed favorable to our seminary obtaining the recommendation of the general assembly," said Dr. Lowrie.

FIRST JUNE BRIDE A MATRON

Iowa Woman Gets to the Altar in Omaha Before Any Local Girls.

The first June bride of the season in Omaha was not an Omaha girl at all. Mrs. Mary E. Roberts of Lorah, Ia., claims the distinction of leading the list for the month of brides. She was married about 10 o'clock by County Judge Leslie, to Henry Tando of Atlantic Ia. She shyly admitted she had passed her forty-first birthday and was entering the connubial state for the second time, having been divorced about five years ago. The groom was divorced about two years ago.

The December weather may have been responsible for it, but the usual rush for marriage licenses June 1, did not materialize, only two being issued before noon.

SURE CURE FOR HOG CHOLERA

Remedy Evolved at Conference of Veterinarians at Ames.

O. K. IF PROPERLY APPLIED

Dr. A. T. Peters, Head of Department of Animal Pathology of Nebraska University, Explains It.

"A cure for hog cholera has at last been found, provided the animal be treated soon enough," said Dr. A. T. Peters of Lincoln, head of the department of animal pathology of the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Peters reached Omaha Monday from Ames, Ia., where he attended the conference of veterinarians of nine western states, in which the disease is making serious inroads and causing a tremendous loss to farmers. Hog cholera is prevalent in several Nebraska counties now, and if the state bureau at Lincoln was ready to send out the new serum great benefit would result. As it is, Dr. Peters thinks the regents of the university, who are deeply interested, will make an appropriation this month that will enable the distribution of several thousand doses this year.

On the Wrong Theory.

"The hog cholera scourge has heretofore resisted the efforts of veterinarians," said Dr. Peters. "We have been proceeding on the theory that the cholera germ was discovered and treatment has been given in the form of injections of a germ culture, which was not a cure. In very few cases has it proved efficacious. The discovery of Dr. N. Dorsett of the biochemic department of the bureau of animal industry, Washington, appears to have solved the problem. Tried in thirty or forty herds throughout Iowa, where experiments have recently been made, it has cured well established cases of the disease. In consists of the injection of the blood of an affected animal into the circulation of one not under the influence of the disease. This must be combined with the injection of the serum of an animal already immune. The production of a vaccine by means of infected blood instead of artificial cultures of the germ is the basis of the cure.

Wilson Calls Conference.

The conference at Ames was called by Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson and Dr. A. D. Melvin, chief of the bureau of animal industry. Over a week was spent in experiments and discussion of the best way to introduce the new discovery commercially so that instant results may be secured. It is the hope eventually to perfect the vaccine so that a small injection may be sufficient to effect a cure. At present it takes about two drachms for this purpose."

The benefits of the new discovery cannot be too largely estimated. During the last fiscal year, of the 151,615 hogs slaughtered in the great packing centers under government inspection, over 19,329 were cholera suspects. This does not take into account the numerous hogs affected in individual herds that die with heavy loss to the hog raisers. The new cure was found while experimenting with hogs that had withstood a cholera attack.

INITIAL CARLOAD OF WOOL

First Big Consignment is Sent to Omaha by Vice President Delfelder.

J. A. Delfelder, president of the Wyoming Wool Growers' association, shipped the first carload of wool to the Omaha market last week and the first bills of lading were received in Omaha Monday.

Mr. Delfelder has 500,000 pounds of wool, all of which will come to Omaha. Besides he has many friends who will ship to Omaha and hold the wool for better prices than are now offered.

Notice was received in Omaha Monday that five carloads had been billed through to Boston. Those promoting the wool market have telegraphed to the growers and hope to keep this amount in the Omaha storehouse.

Not many of the wool growers understand the system of borrowing money from the Omaha banks on the wool shipped to Omaha, and five to twenty representatives of eastern markets are in Casper and Shoshoni with the money to give the growers something as soon as the wool is loaded.

This arrangement has been made by the Omaha Wool and Storage company and inquiry at any of the banks in Wyoming and western Nebraska will make it possible to complete the arrangements for securing ready money when the wool is loaded.

Over half the roof is now on the storehouse of the Omaha company and the market is ready for the wool.

"No grower is justified in selling his clip for less than 20 cents per pound," said Mr. Delfelder when discussing the situation with the Omaha business men at Shoshoni. "The low prices offered this year are because the speculators want to make up what they lost last year. Holding the clip will result in the manufacturers buying direct, and I am sure the growers will receive more than 20 cents for the wool."

FLORENCE IS FOR PROGRESS

Citizens Hold Mass Meeting and Take Steps to Secure Various Improvements.

The citizens of Florence held a mass meeting Saturday night out of which emerged the Florence Improvement club to take up the work of paving the streets, securing through car service and general betterment of the entire village.

Platz were appointed as a committee on extension of street cars. The other committees will be appointed this week. The club will meet Saturday nights at the city hall for the present. Particular attention was given to the subject of paving Main street and it is believed that work will be begun on this before July 1.

A big celebration of the Fourth of July will be under the auspices of the fire department, whose members will act as special officers on that day, making the eagle scream from early morning until late at night. Sports, speaking, fireworks and a regular old-fashioned Fourth is the program.

MYSTERY ABOUT INCENDIARY

Veil of Secrecy as to Who is After Hahne House Thicker Than Ever.

Mystery grows thicker regarding the person who is persistently setting fire to the home of George W. Hahne, 815 South Twenty-eighth street. A 3 o'clock last Tuesday morning the fire department was called to the place and found a fire in the house, a fire in a woodshed and a fire in a warehouse where valuable machinery was stored. Gasoline had been poured over the buildings.

Monday at 2 a. m. the department was again called to the place and found the house in flames. The damage was about $500. The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin.

Mr. Hahne and his family are out of the city.

LIQUOR MEN AT THE KRUG

Nebraska Retail Dealers Have Some Important Business to Transact.

Nebraska retail liquor dealers will open their annual session at the Krug theater in Omaha Tuesday afternoon and business of the highest importance to the members will be transacted, though all sessions of the convention will be "star chamber."

The meetings and entertainments are to be perfectly "dry" and the program will consist of a special bill at the Krug Tuesday evening and street car rides to the Omaha breweries and distillery Wednesday afternoon.

President James Nevels of the association arrived in Omaha Monday afternoon. Henry Keating of Omaha is the secretary and has general charge of the arrangements for the meeting.

The executive board held its meeting Monday and received the reports of officers and transacted routine business. The members of the board were all present. P. P. Riede of Lindsay, a member of the board, died a short time ago and the board now consists of A. H. Koop of Lincoln, J. W. Hobson of Auburn and C. E. Fields of Omaha.

The first session opens at 2 o'clock Tuesday and will be short, the liquor dealers desiring to visit many places of interest in Omaha. Wednesday morning the officers for the coming year will be elected and there will be a general discussion of the reports and work of the executive committee. The meeting will adjourn at 12:30 and at 1:30 the special street cars will take the members of the association to the Storz, Krug, Metz, Jetter and Willow Springs breweries and to the Willow Springs distillery. Final adjournment will be taken Wednesday evening.

BOOSTERS BRING COYOTES

Buy Several Little Animals at Lusk for the Menagerie at Riverview Park.

Riverview park will have its menagerie increased by several young coyotes brought to Omaha by the trade excursionists and secured at Lusk, Wyo., where the business men bought them for $2.50 each.

As tame as kittens and appearing to enjoy the trip to Omaha immensely the little animals were great pets of the boosters. They were brought to the observation car in the evening, where they did stunts though, the bright arc lights in the car dazzled them somewhat and held comfortably on the laps of some of the party they went to sleep before they could be given their dinner.

But Sunday morning was a big time for the coyotes. Their morning meal consisted of clam broth, lamb chops and grape fruit. They turned down the fruit but devoured the lamb chops more than the ordinary Plymouth Rock squabs which they usually steal near the houses and camps on the range. The young ones were served with oatmeal and real cream. Being the first cream they had ever tasted they added several ounces of butter fat to their tender ribs and it was apparent that they appreciated being captured by the boys at Lusk.

Placed in two boxes which formerly contained souvenirs the coyotes guarded the property of the excursionists. When the waiters and porters were told to help themselves to the samples of the Willow Springs distillery they dived into the boxes where the coyotes were sleeping beneath their beds of straw and several porters have chewed fingers as a result of their longing for samples.

Liska Dremyslovna, the women's singing society sang and was followed by the unveiling of a monument to Frank Pyrha of Tent Columbus of the Woodmen of the World. The graves of deceased members of the Woodmen of the World was decorated by children from the Bohemian schools.

COMMITTEE FOR BUILDING

First Decisive Step Taken Toward Erection of Court House.

COUNTY BOARD MOVES AHEAD

Kennard, Trainor and Ure Will Have in Charge Plans for the Construction of the New Edifice.

By the appointment of a building committee, consisting of Kennard, Trainor and Ure, the county board Monday took a decisive step toward beginning the erection of the new $1,000,000 court house. The resolution providing for this committee was introduced by Riggs and carried by the votes of Riggs, Trainor and Kennard. Ure, who is a member of the committee, was not present and Bruning, who was left off the committee, opposed it.

The resolution named the building committee and also provided for the reorganization of the board, made necessary by the resignation of Solomon and the appointment of Riggs. When Bruning's vote was called for he spoke against the resolution, declaring that all matters pertaining to the court house should be handled by the committee of the whole directly.

In reply Riggs explained the building committee would only recommend to the whole board and all questions would come up before the five members for settlement.

After the resolution had been declared carried by a vote of 3 to 1, Bruning facetiously offered a resolution referring to Chairman Kennard as his royal highness and suggesting that if three members were all that were necessary on the committee the chairman should designate two members of the board to resign. The resolution was ignored.

Bruning Squelched Again.

Another squelch was administered to Bruning when he called up his resolution providing for a prize contest for the selection of a court house architect. No one seconded it and it was dropped. He then called up his resolution providing for a reduction of the forces of the county comptroller by cutting off three clerks and it went over by request.

An old resolution offered by Ure some time ago making the county comptroller purchasing agent for the county under supervision of the board was called up and Trainor offered a substitute providing purchases be made through the county clerk. This was adopted unanimously, County Attorney English having given the board an opinion that the statutes provide the clerk and not the comptroller shall perform the duties referred to in the resolution.

The board gave permission to the street railway company to build a double track along Dodge street from Forty-eighth to Fiftieth, provided it would pave with brick and cement between the tracks.

Chairman Kennard of the board has not announced his committee appointments yet, but it is reported that Riggs is slated for the roads and bridges committee, either Trainor or Ure for the county hospital and court house and jail committee and Ure for the finance committee.

HUNTER MAY SUCCEED CHERRY

Former Dundee Pastor Mentioned for Third Presbyterian Church.

Rev. T. K. Hunter has been mentioned as a possible successor to Rev. J. B. Cherry Ph. D., who resigned the pastorate of the Third Presbyterian church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Hunter was formerly pastor of the Dundee Presbyterian church and resigned to become field secretary of Bellevue college, a position which he later resigned.

It is a co-incidence that Mr. Hunter is chairman of the committee appointed by Presbytery April 20, at Tekamah, to make an investigation of the Christian Benevolence association's activities in the Third church, to which Dr. Cherry solely attributes his resignation. This committee's report is to be the pivot on which will turn the meeting of Presbytery Tuesday at First church in Omaha.

Mr. Hunter's position is regarded as a delicate one, since the committee has been urged to make a most thorough investigation, availing itself of all data accessible. The powers which would welcome sustaining Dr. Cherry and confirming the action of Presbytery in disapproving the introduction of the "C. B. A." into the Third church, are not those it is said, which would control the employment of a successor to Dr. Cherry.

SUCCESSOR TO DR. COLFASS

Dr. Rose H. Rice of Council Bluffs Now Sovereign Physician of Woodmen Circle.

Dr. Rose H. Rice of Council Bluffs, has been appointed sovereign physician of the Woodman Circle to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Jennie Colfass. Dr. Colfass gave up her office Monday morning, and Monday afternoon Dr. Rice moved into the physician's office in the Woowmen of the World building.

"Dr. Rice has been a practicing physician of Council Bluffs for some years," said Mrs. Emma B. Manchester, sovereign commander of the Woodman Circle. "One of the best recommendations we can give the public as to her qualifications is that she had a good practice at Council Bluffs and the office sought her rather than that she sought the office."

The husband of Dr. Rice, like the husband of Dr. Jennie Colfass, is a physician. Mrs. Rice, however, does not reside with Mr. Rice. They were married some years ago at Randolph, Ia., and then moved to Council Bluffs, where the practiced together. They were divorced and each maintained separate practice.

Deal Gently with the Bowels—Don't be Harsh

Some people say, "Cascarets are too gentle. I need a strong physic."

The trouble is this: They have taken harsh physic until their bowels are calloused.

Nature has caused the bowel linings to harden—to resist the attacks of harsh pills.

And the bowels fail in their natural functions while that hardness exists.

In such cases, take Cascarets oftener—one tablet night and morning.

Cascarets won't irritate. They are as gentle and natural as a laxative food.

Soon the bowel lining grows soft again, and begins to resume its functions.

Then one Cascaret a day is enough; and a little later you need none.

For Cascarets cure the bowels. They bring back the natural action. They heal what physics destroy.

No harsher laxative can be used without injury, and none is ever necessary.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with C C C on every tablet. The box is marked like this:

Cascarets

The vest-pocket box is 10 cents. The month-treatment box 50 cents. 12,000,000 boxes sold annually. 811

If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

IF YOU NEED TIRES don't buy any kind at any price until you send for a pair of Hedgethorn Puncture-Proof tires on approval and trial at the special introductory price quoted above; or write for our big Tire and Sundry Catalogue which describes and quotes all makes and kinds of tires at about half the usual prices.

DO NOT WAIT but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.
