PA HAS SIXTEEN HOME GAMES

Champions Return to Cinch Their Lead for the Season.

START OUT WITH LINCOLN

Graham and Hall Probably Will Be Back in the Game Before the Team Concludes This Campaign.

Graham and Hall probably will be back in the game before the Champions complete their June campaign at home.

The Champs are home from Denver and Pueblo and begin a series with Lincoln at Vinton Street park Today. They finish this series Thursday and play in Lincoln Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They return to Omaha and play one game here with Lincoln June 8. Denver comes for June 9-12. Pueblo 13-16, Sioux City June 17-20, and then Omaha leaves again for a long trip.

The Champions have had their percentage reduced on their trip west, but return with a large enough lead on first place to dispel any fears. They got one terrific walloping at Pueblo and two at Denver, but the pitching staff being a little off watch, this may be easily accounted for. The team probably did let down some in its work, as most teams do after a long winning streak. But the entire team is working well, batting unusually hard, running bases, fielding and playing the inside game at all times. The long stay at home can scarcely be expected to produce anything but a lead pipe cinch on first place, for before it is concluded Graham probably will be at second and Hall in the box. Hall's absence from the box has been much more keenly felt than has Graham's continued absence. This, of course, is due to the excellent work little Kirg has been doing from the time the first gong rang.

Welch will step the plate Tuesday amid the deafening plaudits of admiring home folks. He not only stands at the top of the league's batting list, but has a record close to .400.

Householder has slumped some in his batting, and so have other members of the team, but the team as a whole has a good average.

Lincoln, with which Omaha opens the fray at home, has a hard working team. Jude, the Indian from Columbus, has joined the team since its last visit here and has infused additional ginger into it. Pritchett at third is another new man since Omahans saw Lincoln play.

Here are the lineups:

Omaha.		Lincoln.
Autrey	First	Thomas
King	Second	Fox
Austin	Third	Pritchett
Franck	Short	Garnier
Householder	Left	Jude
Welch	Center	Davidson
Belden	Right	Fenlon

Brewers Win in First.

MILWAUKEE, June 1.—Milwaukee won the game in the first inning, when they bunched four hits with two errors, netting seven runs. The feature of the inning was Beville's home run with bases filled. Schneiberg pitched magnificent ball, holding the visitors to one hit. Schneiberg hit Cross with a pitched ball in the eighth. This greatly enraged the visiting manager and he picked the ball up and threw it with full force straight at Schneiberg's face. Schneiberg made a rush for him, but players interfered before any blows were struck. Cross was put out of the game and off the grounds. Score:

CORONAS WINNERS AT CRESTON

Bogatts Allows the Iowa Boys Only One Safe Hit.

CRESTON, Ia., June 1.—(Special.)—The Storz Coronas of Omaha administered another beating to the locals in a game that was spectacular from start to finish. Kucera's stop, cutting off a run, McLean's all around playing and Smith's catches of three difficult flies in center were easily the fielding features, while Hodge's three-base hit was the batting feature of the game. Bogatts was in splendid form, allowing but one hit and striking out five men. Score:

STARS DESCEND IN GOOD GAME

Lee-Glass-Andreesen Team Defeats South Omaha.

The Lee-Glass-Andreesen defeated the South Omaha Stars 7 to 2 yesterday afternoon, at Vinton St. park before a crowd of seven hundred of faithful fans. Burnell was in fine form allowing only three hits, issuing but one pass, and getting three safe hits. The colored boys were game to the last, although outplayed and with a little more practice can be considered worthy opponents for any of Omaha's fast amateurs. Next Sunday the hardware men play at Atlantic, Ia. Score:

PITCHERS' CONTEST INTERESTING

Ramblers Defeat Hoffmans in Game Where the Boxes Worked.

The Ramblers won an interesting game Sunday from the Hoffmans, score 4 to 1. Jauron and Mason, the opposing slabsmen, performed in good style, each allowing four hits and striking out fourteen batsmen. Jauron, however, kept his hits well scattered and received far better support. In addition to his excellent pitching Jouron clouted out a two-sacker in the sixth inning. This was the first hit of the day for the Ramolers and it was followed by a combination of hits and errors that cinched the game. Corcoran's spectacular one-handed catch at short was a feature. New Track Team Captain.

IOWA CITY, Ia., June 1.—(Special.)—Isaac E. Stutsman, Iowa's star discus thrower, has been elected captain of next year's Hawkeye track team. The '09 leader has demonstrated in one season on the Iowa track team that he is one of the most consistent discus throwers in the middle west, winning the event in the Minnesota dual meet, the Missouri valley meet and the Iowa state meet. In all probability Stutsman will enter the conference meet June 6 at Marshall field. The new Iowa track captain played tackle on last fall's foot ball team. He came to Iowa from Western college as a Junior in the College of Liberal Arts.

PIRATES WIN FROM CUBS

Pittsburg's Fielding is Cleaner and Stick-Work Better.

LEACH DOES STAR BATTING

Third Baseman Makes Two Home Runs, a Triple and a Single—Scores of Other National League Games.

CHICAGO, June 1.—By a trifle cleaner fielding and much better hitting, Pittsburg defeated Chicago 6 to 5 today in a see-saw game. Leach's batting was the feature. He got two home runs, a triple and a single and scored four times out of five times up. Score:
