DR. BURRELL TALKS TO DOCTORS

Children's Diseases Unnecessary if Authorities Would Insist on Proper Care by All

CHICAGO, June 2.- The first general meeting of the American Medical association for scientific discussion, was held here today. The address of Dr. Herbert L. Burrell of Boston, the president elect, was the chief feature of the program.

Dr. Burrell's subject was "A New Duty of the Medical Profession; the Elucation of the Public in Scientific Medicine."

He said in part: "Until recently medicine has observed a silance as to its position and accomplish-ment that has made it unique among its sister sciences. A veil of mystery has sur-

Bergeant Nihill was born in Ireland and when a boy ran away from home and came to this country. He served through the civil war with distinction and at its close in the Indian wars. He won a certificate honor for conspicuous bravery in action and also a medal of honor. The certificate was won by his rescue of a wounded com-rade in an Indian fight under fire. Nihill's comrade was wounded and his horse shot, when Nihill dismounted and, placing the wounded man on his own horse, held the Indians in check while his comrade rode away in safety. Nihill kept up a running fight for twenty miles to the fort. In this running fight he killed or wounded twelve of the Indians who were on his trail.

HEROIC WORK OF THE FIREMEN

Thousand Dollar Blaze in New York Apartment House, But Danger to Lives is Great.

NEW YORK, June 2-Fire in Mrs. Mary Mooney's boarding house in West Thirtleth street early today completely cut off the escape of Mrs. Mooney's twenty boarders and when the firemen came a young woman had thrown herself from the roof to the payement and was dead, several others were severely burned and the upper windows, front and rear, were crowded with men and women begging to be saved. The dead woman is Miss Marie Be etraine who occupied a hall room on the tor

Mrs. Mary Haggerty, who was burned about the hands, face and body and overcome by smoke, is in a critical condition. The fire started in a coal bin in the cellar. It mounted through the hall and stairways and when the awakened boarders tried to get to the street they were driven back to the upper floors and roof. As the first fire company galloped up Miss Beletraine, in her night clothing, appeared on the roof and plunged over the coping. One of her feet caught in some half-open shutters and for an instant the woman's body dangled in space. Then she fell on her head to the street and was

As there were no fire escapes, firemen were sent up through an adjoining building, thence to the roof of the burning house. Mrs. George Micklo was confused by the smoke and was unable to reach the roof. Fire Truck Captain Sweeney saw her at a window on the top floor and, tying a rope to a chimney, lowered himself to the window, whence the other firemen drew her and the captain to the roof. Lieutenant Reilly tied a wet cloth over his face and entered the building through a scuttle from the roof. Feeling his way through the heavy smoke from room to m, he stumbled upon Mrs. Haggerty in the third-floor front room. She had fallen and then crawled part way under the bed. seeking shelter from the fumes, and then fainted. Lieutenant Reilly carried her to the roof and thence to the street. The fire was quickly extinguished, with $1,000 damage.

CUMMINS CLOSES HIS CAMPAIGN Final Effort Made in Home of Senator

Doliver. FORT DODGE, Ia., June 1 .- (Special Telegram.)-Governor Cummins delivered the last speech of his campaign for the senatorship here tonight to a large audience. This being the home of Senator Dolliver, who is taking an active part in the campaign for the re-election of Allison, considerable interest was manifest in what the governor would say, as it was known the course of Dolliver has caused considerable resentment in the camp of the governor. Mr. Cummins paid his compliments to the senator, though been expected. His speech was largely a government and a comparison of what the that of their opponents.

At the municipal election, held at Beersford in April, license received 148 votes, with 144 votes for no licenses. The canvassing board decided that licenses had won, but upon further investigation it was found that there were 296 votes cast it the election. The prohibitionists, upon he ground that the law could be contrued to compel applicants to secure a najority of all the votes cast in order to win, applied to Judge Jones for a writ of prohibition restraining the city council if Beersford from granting licenses for he year commencing July 1 next. It was his writ which was argued today before ludge Jones, who held that a majority constituted a majority of the votes cas upon the license question without regard o the total vote cast for city officers or
