Capital

LONDON, June 4.-Violent protests were made by the socialist and labor members in the House of Commons this afternoon against King Edward's approaching visit to Russia. The speakers drew lurid pictures of the alleged conditions in the Muscovite empire, declaring that while they had no objection to King Edward privately visiting his relative, Emperor Nicholas, they had the greatest abhorrence of the idea of a state visit to Russia "with its horrors, tortures and persecutions." "Fraternizing with the hangmen of liberty in Russia," they declared to be a

Many distinguished men of letters also were present, though the Dreyfus opponents, together with all the members of the opposition is parliament were noticeable by their absence. Major Dreyfus, who sat with his wife and his brother Matthew, immediately at the side of the tribune, was the cynosiir of many eyes. He sat erect and composed reminding the president of his attitude during the Rennes trial.

The Imposing Ceremony. The ceremony proper was brief, but it was held amid majestic surroundings. The band of the republican guard, led by M. Faure, director of the conservatory of chorus and the orchestra of the conservatory rendered the prelude to Bruneau's "Messidor" after which, M. Doumergue, minister of public instruction, delivered an address which was listened to attentively, but without demonstration, either during its progress or at its conclusion. The chorus and orchestra then followed with Beethoven's heroic symphony and the ceremony inside the Pantheon came to an end with the stiering chant "Du Depart," played by the band.

It was just as the presidential party reached the door leading to the portico that the shooting occurred. Two sharp reports startled the vast assmblage. For the instant everyone believed that Pregident Fallieres had been shot.

CLAIMS OF PROUTY AND HULL Candidate for Congress

Dea Moines Says He is Nominated.

DES MOINES, Is., June 4.- In the con gressional contest in the Seventh Iowa district the result is still in doubt. Both sides, however, claim; that the unofficial figures from every county in the district give their respective candidates the victory in Tuesday's primaries. On the one hand it is claimed that the latest unofficial figures give Judge Prouty the nomination by a majority of four votes. On the other it is declared that Captain J. A. T. Hunil has deefated his opponent, Prouty, by a majority of thirty-one votes. An official count will now be necessary to determine the contest.

'One or the other will ask for a recount of the ballots," declared Judge S. Prouty early this afternoon. By this the candidate for congress from the seventh district means that he will contest the election of Congressman J. A. T. Hull, if the latter receives the most votes, according to the returns of the judges. Judge Prouty added that he had a majority in the last report made to him today, Official returns from all of the ninetynine counties of Iowa give Senator W. B. HARD CIDER MUST GO, TOO Chief of Police of a Jersey Town Starts a Crusade Against "Appleinck."

Jerseymen in Summit, N. J., who have fought shy of whiskey straight and beer, withstood the tempting cocktail, refused to look upon the wine when it is red and have indulged consistently in bard cider as a substitute for the more popular forms of liquid refreshment probably will have to change their drink or go with parched lips. There is pending in committee in Summit common council an ordinance which prohibits the sale of hard cider within the town limits.

The originator of this measure is Chief of Police Brown. He has become the advance apostle of a form of prohibitien which outpoints in the most advanced southern states, where generals, colonels and majors brought up on alcohol have performed acts of renunciation of liquor which have astounded the drinking world.
