SUMMER WHIRL IN SOCIETY

Days Are All Full at Country Club and in Town.

Weddings Large and Small, with Numerous Attendant Entertainments, Will Be Feature of the Week.

Just June

There's a moon not too obtrusive, Sort of miety and delusive, Frequently and opportunely hiding, way beneath the clouds;
And a maiden, sweet and pretty, Not too soleans or too witty.

Down a country lane a-walking, free from madding, gadding crowds,
With a youth, in love a-plenty,
Probably some five-and-twenty;
And a heart that's lilting "Sweet, oh, I love you!" like a tune.

Well, the rest is very simple:
Just a sign or two, a dimple,
and a kiss-Ah, these things happen—happen when the month is June!

From Woman's Home Companion for June.

An altogether jolly sequel to the dancing party given Friday evening at Happy Hollow by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Selby for the high school band and officers grew out of the storm that, breaking just as the young people were about to start back to the sity, promised for a time to prove dieastrous to party frocks and sults. When it seame evident that the storm would not abate until after the cars had stopped. Mr. and Mrs. Selby, equal to the emergency, arranged for a house party and by special floral decorations, Refreshments the time the parents of their guests had been notified by telephone the club house was in readiness for the forty or more young people who were compelled to spend the night there. The men were quartered in north house used as a billiard room and locker room while the girls were stowed away in the bedrooms upstairs and on the couches and other soft places that would afford a sleeping place. After breakfast Saturday morning the party broke up. conceded by all the guests to be the jolliest affair of the season,
