WORK OF THE WOMEN'S CLUBS

General Federation Issues Complete Program for Its Ninth Biennial.

DELEGATES PROMISED A TREAT

Nebraska Woman's Suffrage Clubs Will Maintain Headquarters at Various Summer Assemblies of the State This Year.

The complete program for the ninth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs is out this week and the women privileged to attend this great meeting are promised a treat indeed. With the exception of a few minor details, practically the entire program has been arranged from time to time as it was announced for, by the press committee. Among the speakers who appear on the program are men and women who stand conspicuous as authorities on the many subjects that will receive consideration. In addition to these programs numerous excursions to historic places and entertainments of various kinds have been planned for the visiting club women, of whom there will be about 14,000.

Suffrage at Chautauquas.
The woman suffrage clubs of Nebraska will be well represented at the various summer assemblies and chautauquas in the state this year. Headquarters will be maintained at most of them, the different clubs having assumed responsibility for their support. The Lincoln clubs will support headquarters at the Lincoln assembly, the Kearney club at Hastings, the Johnson club at Auburn and the Geneva club at Fairmont. Other clubs will take charge of the other work.

Anthony Memorial Fund.
Woman suffragists over the country are making the first two weeks of June a self-denial period in the interest of the Susan B. Anthony memorial fund. At the Chicago convention of the National Woman Suffrage association it was voted to establish a fund of $10,000 as a memorial to Miss Anthony, which shall be used to advance the cause of the enfranchisement of women, to which she devoted her life. This money is to be raised as the women can do it and many have pledged definite amounts. Mrs. Mary H. Williams of Kansas is treasurer for the Nebraska fund and will receive all contributions.

Club Women and Health.
Mrs. Rufus P. William, chairman of the health department of the General Federation issues the following letter to club women:

Together the federated clubs have taken a long stride by calling the attention of the people in every state of the union to the prevalence of tuberculosis, and to the fact that by combined effort the disease may be stamped out.

In many states there have been established anti-tuberculosis and visiting nurses classes. Books have been sent to sanatoria, wall cards of information in regard to the prevention of tuberculosis have been placed in school houses, public halls, factories, and other places of public gathering, and educational pamphlets have been distributed.

We have brought a bill before both houses of congress, which has been endorsed by some of the ablest citizens of the country, and petitions bearing thousands of names have been presented to congress in support of this bill. Should the bill fail to pass, we should still consider that much has been accomplished, for we cannot but feel that it has tended to the better face of this great nation's healthward. The facts that we have presented have everywhere aroused a deep interest in the suppression of tuberculosis, and we believe the beginning of the end is at hand.

May I ask that every club in the country reserve one day on the next season's calendar as a health day?
