WORKMEN BEGIN DEBATE

Supreme Lodge Discusses Disposition of Guaranty Benefit Fund.

DES MOINES, June 12—The first real debate of the session of the Ancient Order of United Workmen was on today.
The question before the supreme lodge is the disposition of the guaranty benefit fund, which is one of the chief funds of the order. This fund, it was proposed, should be used to aid the state grand lodges, which are weak because of the small membership. It was over this point that the question hung and was at issue.
The debate was brought up in the discussion of the report of supreme Master Workman W. M. Narvis, and the avidity shown on the convention floor by the delegates to handle the matter showed it to be a question much discussed among the members.
