DRUGGISTS SEE THE GAME Hall Did Valiant Work, But His Support, Generally Speaking, Was

> Awkward, to Say the Least.

Omaha, 0; Sloux City, 1. The Stoux scalped the entire hourks family Thursday, trying, apparently, to even up for the defeat Sanders handed them the day before. It was "druggista" day" at the park, and Pa wanted so much to win because of the distinguished company he had, but it was not in the cards. Ducky had blood in his eye and not only kept his team keyed up to the finish but played a great game himself, pulling down four long flies, a miss of any one of which might have been disastrous.

GAMES TODAY.

Western League—Sloux City at Omaha, Denver at Des Moines. Pueble at Brooklyn, Cincinnali at Philadelphia, Chicago at New York, St. Louis at Boston.

American League—Washington at Detroit, Philadelphia at Cleveland, New York at St. Louis, Boston at Chicago.

American Association—Columbus at Kansas City, Toledo at Minnespolis, Louisville at St. Paul, Milwaukee at Indianapolis. might have been disastrous.

Hollenbeck was to have pitcaed the game. It was his turn, but afterfwarming up both Hall and Hollenbeck, Captain Franck sent Hall to the hillton it was not altogether his fault that the game was lost, for he held the Sieux to two runs. but the players back of him could not make good with the stick.

Bright Starr was in the box for the Sioux and he held out to the finish, pitching nice ball. He has gained a reputation of being quite a twirler for about seven innings, and then he is usually pulled out to make room for someone who might possibly save the game. Ducky was afraid of that yesterday and after the sixth inning he kept Freeman continually warmed up ready to go in. Brigh refused to weaken, however, and playe the string out. In the eighth inning, with two out, Householder bit one off his shoestrings to Severeld. The ball was a little too lively for the lengthy firs sacker to handle and Householder was safe. Weich followed with another single in about the same place, but that was al for Captain Franck grounded out to sec

Sloux in Dead Earnest.

The Sloux had on their war caint an went after the game from the call o time. Campbell hit a corker to left for two sacks and the lowa druggists glooand yelled. Ducky sacrificed him to thir and the Omaha druggists grouned. Wee druggists were quiet, for Campball scored Omaha started the inning in the versame way. Austin hit a long fly over Campbell's head and the ball bounded against the fence, within a foot of going over. Austin took two. But there the similarity ceased, for King failed to sacrifice. Autrey grounded out and all reliance was placed on Householder to get back that lead of the Sloux, but the big left fielder threw his friends down by striking out. This was the nearest chance Omaha had to scoring.

The Indians made another in the second inning before Hall settled down to real usiness, but after that they didn't need any. It was not all Hall's fault, either, for he had rotten support. With one out Sloux City Welch singled and Belden 5,478 booted the ball around until he reached second base. Severeld hit one to Dr. Welch, who also joined the error col-umn and Sloux City Welch trotted home. Sloux City filled the bases in the seventh inning on two singles and a walk. Gonding threw to first to catch Camp-bell napping, but Autrey muffed the ball. He ran after it and fell down. In the meanwhile Granville was scooting from third to home, but from his sitting posture Autrey threw the ball and nailed him at foxy stunt in the third inning. Holmss had made a hit and was on first when Weed hit a high one toward Autrey. The Chicken dropped the ball on purpose and then threw to second to catch Holmes, figuring he would sooner have Wead on bases than Holmes.

Struck out: By Durham, 3. Hit by pitcher: By Hayden, 2. Two-base hit: Carr. Sacrifice hits: McGillyray (2), Kutins, Clarke. Base on balls: Off Durham, 9; off Curtis, 3. Double plays: Bush to Williams to Carr. Clarke to McCormick to Brown, Robinson to Roth to Brown, Stolen bases: McGillyray, Roth. Time: 1:49, Umpire: Owens.

The same teams will play this afternoon and the members of the feminine contingent are all invited to witness the game, free of charge. The score:

beautiful ball for six innings, not a hit being made off his delivery, but after Nie-hoff's error he went slightly to the bad and three runs resulted. Opportune hitting had previously scored two runs for Des Moines. The Boosters tied the score in the eighth on a two-bagger and a single. Bornar came to bat in that inning with three men on bases and two out, knocking a hard grounder to Cassady in right field, who got an assist at first Denver scored five runs in the tenth on the first error Bornar has made this year, Neihoff's error and four hits. Ambassador Bryce said in part:

I have been watching with great interest the proceedings of the great convention which is meeting in your city. I have been struck by a good many things about it.
I did not write an account of your government and institutions without having paid several visits to this country, but it never was my good fortune to see a national convention. This machinesy of conventions as you have it in this country, is the most complete, full recognition of the rights of the people to which any country has attained, because people not only at elections say who shall be their officials, but in these party conventions they determine upon men who ought to be put forward as the representatives of parties.

Let me express on behalf of every Englishman, who is proud that from his country can the conventions that from his country can the conventions of the conventions. Let me express on behalf of every Englishman, who is proud that from his country came those principles of self government which you are applying here, the hope that the same sense of the pre-eminent importance of maintaining these cardinal principles of good government may in the United States, to be an example to all other countries, forever flourish and abound.
