CANNON SECONDS NOMINATION

Appearance of Speaker Greatly Surprises Delegates.

FINAL DETAILS COMPLETED

Committees Are Appointed to Notify Nominees—Usual Resolutions of Thanks Are Offered and Convention Adjourns.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Taft and Sherman. This is the first of the republican party to the house today as the republican national convention concluded its nomination of James S. Sherman of New York for vice president amid a final roar of tumultuous demonstration. Again the vast assembly was swept with waves of wild enthusiasm, as the multitude realized that at last the work was done and the record made on which the republican party goes before the country, united in one last mighty outburst of enthusiasm as a tribute to the men who will bear the standard in the struggle now at hand.

Another inspiring struggle was presented today as the convention named its candidate for vice president. This enormous throng huddled through an hour of oratory, sweltering in the heat—indeed, the atmosphere was so stifling that the masses of humanity, with only here and there a fan, were fanning themselves with their own hands. The delegates in the galleries below, the bright hues of femininity in the circling galleries and over all the enveloping glow of "old glory" from the outside, it was a magnificent sight. The galleries already thronged into choruses of Sherman songs ringing with a huge portrait of the New York candidate. Among the early arrivals on the floor was Speaker Cannon only yesterday a candidate for president, but today being a delegate, he was in the Sherman movement. The widespread affection for the old war horse of the party was also shown by the crowds of delegates surging about him to grasp his hand and bid him welcome.

Cannon Seconds Nomination

The preliminaries were ended at 10:30 the nominating speeches for vice president began with a limit of ten minutes to each speaker. On the call of states Delaware yielded to New York and ex-Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff mounted the platform for a glowing speech placing in nomination James S. Sherman of New York as the republican candidate for the vice presidency. Now came a surprise as the venerable Cannon, with his Lincoln-like visage and shaggy beard, emerged from the Illinois delegation and stepping to the platform was yielded unanimous consent to second the nomination of Sherman. Sherman's picture was flashed on the big screen and the speaker appeared as he advanced before the throng which rose to do him homage has seldom been seen before a national convention. His face was beamed with sweat, his collar had opened to a rag which hung limp about his neck. He was thrown wide open, exposing his crumpled shirt and the sleeves of his black alpaca coat curled up about his dangling cuffs to his elbows as his waving arms emphasized his ringing words for his colleague and friend, James S. Sherman of New York.

From the outburst of enthusiasm, which greeted every word of Sherman's name it was plain that the mind of the convention had been made up and that the decision was only to be recorded. But for a moment there was a halt in the Sherman movement as Senator Lodge, at leaving the presiding officer's chair, advanced to moderate Governor Taft in a speech for the vice presidency. The senator's voice was strained with the exertions of recent days, but he spoke eloquently and forcibly for the Massachusetts candidate. Michigan, through Charles Osborne, added its voice for Guile, and New Jersey brought forward its favorite son in a speech by Thomas N. McCarter, nominating ex-Governor Murphy for the second place.

Sherman Movement Grows. A steady advance of the Sherman movement now began again as state after state fell into line—North Carolina in a ringing speech from the floor by Harry Sherman Oklahoma, by the Hon. F. M. Pennington, Pennsylvania by Congressman J. C. Olinstead, Tennessee by H. Clay Evans, Virginia by C. B. Simpson.

Now began the vote, taken amid confusion at first, which increased as the totals climbed upward to the nomination of Sherman. The result was never in doubt, as the totals of states were heaped one upon the other. There were scattering votes, but the great body of delegates swelled the total of Sherman until it touched 600. With keen appreciation of the effect of this triumph, Senator Lodge announced the result, reserving Sherman's huge total until the last.

"Vice President Fairbanks got 1 vote; Governor Sheldon of Nebraska, 15 votes; Governor Guile of Massachusetts, 15 votes; Governor Murphy of New Jersey, 17 votes; and James S. Sherman of New York 600 votes."

Again the floodgates of wild enthusiasm were let loose as floor and gallery joined in a pandemonium of demonstration.

Final Details Completed

The nominations completed, final details were now quickly perfected—committees from the various states to wait upon candidates for president and vice president and formally notify them of the action of the convention in nominating them; prospective meetings of the national committee to perfect plans for the coming campaign, and thanks and congratulations to Chicago and the convention committee who have given the convention such perfect equipment. And then, just before noon, amid cheers still echoing, and the inspiring strains of the national anthem, the national convention finally adjourned and the multitude dispersed.

The action of the convention touched a sympathetic chord throughout the city, and tonight the party spirit of republican enthusiasm is high. The nominees for vice president, Sherman, is among those who are witnessing these scenes of enthusiastic tribute. He remained at his hotel during the balloting today and quickly received a message announcing his nomination. Later the delegates arriving from the convention flocked about him in a continuous stream.

TAFT RESIGNS, WRIGHT NAMED

Change in War Department Takes Place June 30.

SECRETARY GOES TO CINCINNATI

There He Expects to Confer with President Roosevelt. Candidate for Vice President Tomorrow—Many Telegrams Come.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Secretary Taft today presented to the president his resignation, to take effect June 30, and it was announced at the White House that Luke E. Wright of Tennessee will be appointed secretary of war to succeed Mr. Taft. In making this appointment the president was influenced somewhat by the desire to recognize in an emphatic way that there is no longer any dividing line between the north and the south and that all good Americans are in thought and deed one and the president was influenced still more by the fact that General Wright is a native of the south and a pre-eminent fit him for this particular position.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Usually an early riser, Secretary Taft was a little late in taking his breakfast today and it was after 9 o'clock this morning before he came down to breakfast. The principal lower rooms of the K street residence were still filled with magnificent bunches of cut flowers and telegrams of congratulation were piled high upon a sideboard.

The fatigues and excitement of last night apparently made little impression upon Mr. Taft and other members of the secretary's family, and even before the usual breakfast hour all of them were downstairs and deeply engrossed in the morning newspapers, every one of which displayed more or less pleasing likenesses of the war secretary and candidate on the first pages.

New Order Begins

A sign of the change that has taken place in the official status of Secretary Taft was the appearance of a blue-coated policeman, who was stationed at the curb directly in front of the Taft residence, where he or one of his mates will remain constantly on duty, day and night, whenever the secretary is in Washington.

When the secretary descended from his bedroom this morning and entered the drawing room he found his caller in the person of Lieutenant General Corbin, not only known officially to the secretary in that capacity and also in his incumbency of the governorship of the Philippines, but also as a warm personal friend, and last, but not least, as an Ohio man and fellow statesman. He extended his congratulations and they were gratefully received.

A telegram received over night from a member of his family in the west determined Secretary Taft to leave Washington this afternoon for Cincinnati. He expects to take the 3 o'clock train and, stopping in Cincinnati tomorrow, will leave that city in time to reach New Haven Monday to participate in the reunion of his class of 1878.

Secretary Taft reached the White House at 10:30 o'clock this morning and at once went to the executive office and conferred with President Roosevelt.

Telegrams of congratulations received by Secretary Taft included one from General Luke E. Wright, at Memphis, saying: "Hearty congratulations and good wishes, and one from Booker T. Washington, at Tuskegee, Ark., giving assurance of negro support in the presidential contest. The latter message was as follows: "Most hearty and sincere congratulations. You more than deserve the position of secretary of war, and I am glad to see you elected to the presidency and that your race will assist in bringing about that result."

From Governor Magoon

From Cuba Governor Magoon flashed this message: "All Cuba joins me in congratulations to you and rejoice at your nomination. Andrew Carnegie called from Clatsmore, Scotland: "Sincere and cordial congratulations. Our country and our party will both be safe in your hands."

Robert Taft, the secretary's son, telegraphed from Chicago: "Congratulations on great victory from whole family."

From Tokyo Baron Kaneko cabled: "Hearty congratulations on your nomination."

From Berlin Minister Hinko: "Please accept my heartfelt congratulations."

And from London Ambassador Reid sent this message: "Warm congratulations. Proud that Ohio has you for its next president."

After remaining with the president half an hour, Secretary Taft returned to his office at the War department, but came back to the White House in time for the cabinet meeting at 11 o'clock.

WRIGHT WILL NOT DISCUSS IT

Tennessee General Prefers to Await More Formal Notice.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 19.—When seen by an Associated Press representative General Luke E. Wright said he did not think it proper to discuss the announcement that he would succeed Secretary Taft in the War department until he had received further advice from Washington. General Wright, who succeeded Secretary Taft as governor of the Philippines and who later was ambassador to Japan, arrived here early last fall, having resigned the diplomatic post. It has been generally predicted by many of his friends that he would enter President Roosevelt's cabinet in the event of Secretary Taft's election to the presidency.

LA FOLLETTE PROMISES HIS AID

He Says Taft is Nearer the People Than the Platform.

MADISON, Wis., June 19.—Senator La Follette last night sent the following telegram to Mr. Taft on hearing of his nomination by the convention at Chicago: "Hon. W. H. Taft, Washington, D. C.: While the platform is disappointing in some fundamental provisions and omissions and I shall claim the right to say so, I am glad to see you elected to the presidency and that your race will assist in bringing about that result."

BRYAN STUDIES THE PLATFORM

Nebraska Leader Will Take Time Before Starting His Views.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 19.—William J. Bryan today declined to discuss the work of the republican national convention. He received bulletins of the events of the morning and these were telephoned to his library at Fairview. He entertained a number of callers during the morning. This afternoon he prepared an analysis of the republican platform. This he probably will make public tomorrow.

MIMIC WAR BECOMES REAL

One Fatality and Two Seriously Injured in Militia Attack Upon New York.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The mimic war of the life of one member of New York's militia, the "hostile" fleet, another man is dead and a third is so seriously injured that he is hanging in the balance. The dead man is John Welsh and the injured are George Harvey and James McDowell, all members of the Ninth regiment, New York National Guard. Harvey is not expected to recover.

The three men were members of a crew operating a six-inch gun in Battery Park at Fort Wadsworth, on the Staten Island side of the narrows. Last night when the "hostile" fleet came up the lower bay, endeavoring to get past the fort at the narrows, the watchers discovered them and fired unaimed.

It was believed this morning that the accident was due to what is known as a "flare back." Harvey was swabbing the gun and Welsh and McDowell were standing near the breech when a new shell of powder, placed in the gun, was exploded by sparks left from the previous charge. The breech of the gun was still open and every man in the crew was swept off his feet. The injured men were removed to the hospitals, but Welsh was so badly injured that he died early today.

He was terribly burned by the flame of the exploding powder. Harvey's skull was fractured when he was thrown against the masonry near the gun and McDowell's right arm was blown off.

TWENTY INJURED IN CRASH

Passenger and Freight Trains Collide Near Pendleton, Mo.—Orders Misunderstood.

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—Twenty persons were injured in a collision between a passenger train and a freight on the Wabash road last night near Pendleton, Mo. A number of the most seriously injured were brought here today for medical attention.

The passenger train was behind time and it was running at greater speed than usual to make up time and crashed into the freight, demolishing both engines, the baggage and mail cars and a number of freight cars. The coaches were derailed, but not badly damaged. There were 20 passengers and 10 crew members, many being more seriously injured.

Passenger Engineer Chris Smith suffered a broken leg and internal injuries and was taken to his home in Montgomery City, Mo. Mail Clerk W. J. Cleary of Kansas City was badly injured and was taken to the hospital at Moberly, Mo.

Among the injured brought here were: Mrs. Martha Layton, Louisville, Ky.; Miss Rosa Ingalls, Columbus, Mo.; W. E. Lively, Moberly, Mo.; L. F. Hamner, Jr., former St. Louis city collector.

The wreck is believed to have resulted from a misunderstanding of orders which would have held the freight train at Truesdale.

WOMAN WOULD FIX GOVERNOR

Attempt to Shoot Executive of Colorado Prevented by Humane Society Agent.

DENVER, June 19.—Through the coolness of Assistant Secretary James E. Dougherty of the State Humane society Governor Henry A. Buchtel escaped probable injury yesterday afternoon at the hands of Mrs. Annie Jochim, an insane woman. Laboring under the delusion that the governor has got possession of $40,000, she imagined was left her by W. S. Stratton, and is scheming to force her to marry him, the woman visited the executive's office with the intention of shooting him with a 22-caliber revolver. She had the weapon concealed under a jacket she carried on her arm. Unable to obtain admission to the executive chamber, the woman went to the humane society and made threats to "fix the governor."

After warning the secretary Montgomery, Mr. Dougherty joined the woman while she was waiting at the Broadway entrance to the state house and persuaded her to accompany him to the court house. There he swore out a complaint of insanity against her and she was taken to the psychiatric hospital in county hospital by Deputy Sheriff Baker.

TROUBLE AGAIN WITH WATER

Kansas City Threatened for Third Time with Property Loss from Flood.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 19.—For the third time in as many weeks the Missouri and Kaw rivers have given cause for alarm at this point by the menace of returning flood conditions that may mean a return of conditions of 1905.

This morning heavy rains in eastern Kansas and along the lower valley of the Missouri caused an approximate rise of one foot between here and Topeka, and at this point a rise of over two and one-half feet during the last twenty-four hours was recorded on the Missouri gauge. The heavy rain last night in this section extended a little above Topeka and along the Missouri some distance below Omaha.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 19.—Nearly two inches of rain fell in this section of Kansas last night and the Kaw river, which has been slowly falling for several days, is a foot higher today than last evening and is rising rapidly. St. Marys has an inch of rain and a heavy hail and at Wamego the same conditions prevailed. Silver Lake reports a cloudburst.

ST. PAUL IS RUSHING WORK

Roswell Miller Says Road Will Send Trains to the Coast Next May.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Roswell Miller, chairman of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, who has just returned from a tour of inspection over the St. Paul extension to the Pacific coast, said that this section of the road is progressing so favorably that tracks will probably be laid on the entire line by the end of this year, and the St. Paul will be in a position to run trains to the Pacific by May, 1909. Already the road is in operation as far as Lombard, Mont. Most of the work is being done by the St. Paul extension, he expected will be self-supporting from the beginning. In this connection he pointed out that the St. Paul, on the completion of its outlet to the Pacific coast, will be in a position to get from eastern lines a good deal of traffic which it has not been able to command in the past.

James Fowler Appointed.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The president today appointed James A. Fowler of Knoxville, Tenn., to be assistant attorney general in place of Edward T. Sanford, appointed United States judge for the middle and eastern districts of Tennessee. Messrs. Fowler and Sanford are law partners.

SHELDON'S NAME HELD BACK

Overwhelming Sentiment for Sherman Causes This Decision.

WISCONSIN GIVES HIM TEN VOTES

Original Plan to Present the Name of Nebraska Chief Executive from Floor for Complimentary Vote.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 19.—(Special Telegram.)—The name of Nebraska's governor was not presented to the republican convention this morning as a candidate for vice president because of the overwhelming sentiment in favor of the overhauling James S. Sherman of New York.

After the work of the night, during which Congressman Sherman gained strength rapidly, the Nebraska members decided to pass the call of states for candidates. They were undecided whether to give Sheldon a complimentary vote in view of the practical settlement of the fight. Later it was deemed unwise to present his name at all because of the certainty that Sherman would have many more votes than a majority on the first ballot.

When Nebraska's name was called, Nebraska cast twenty of its sixteen votes for Sherman and gave four to Guile.

Wisconsin gave ten of its twenty-six votes to Governor Sheldon.

NEGRO BANK CLOSES DOORS

Illiterate Depositor Starts Rumor that Causes Run Upon Institution.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 19.—The Capital City Savings bank, the only negro bank in Arkansas, went into the hands of a receiver today, on request of Charles B. King, the cashier. Marvin Harris was appointed receiver. Because an illiterate negro had overdrawn his account and had his check turned down, he started the rumor that the bank was insolvent, causing a run. Today several hundred negro depositors appeared before the institution claiming their money. There was only $2,000 in cash on hand and the doors were not opened. Liabilities are about $75,000, with assets considerably in excess. An application for a receivership for the People's Mutual Life association, a life insurance company operated upon the industrial plan in connection with the bank, was also made. Mr. Harris was appointed receiver for the company.

SHIP'S SURGEON ENDS LIFE

Thomas W. Small of American Liner St. Louis Puts Bullet in His Brain.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Thomas W. Small, chief surgeon of the American liner St. Louis, committed suicide in his cabin on the steamer early today by shooting. No cause for the act is known. He had been absent from the ship all night. When he returned this morning he appeared to be in a cheerful frame of mind and after chatting pleasantly with the great crowd of officers on duty, retired to his stateroom. A moment later the report of a shot was heard and when the door of the doctor's cabin was opened he was found dying from a bullet wound in his temple. His right hand clutched the revolver, from which the shot was fired. Dr. Small had been in the employ of the American line nine years and had an extensive acquaintance among ocean travelers. When ashore he lived with his wife in this city.

SHERMAN RECEIVES THE NEWS

Remains in Room at Hotel While Convention is Voting.

CHICAGO, July 19.—While the proceedings were going on in the convention hall, Representative James S. Sherman remained in his room at the Auditorium Annex. As soon as the nomination was made William Barton, clerk to the house committee on invalid pensions, conveyed to him the information.

It was the first news Mr. Sherman had received of the result of the balloting. In a short time the New York delegation, headed by brass band, proceeded to the Annex and showered congratulations upon him. He was escorted to the New York headquarters over in the Auditorium and on his way across the street received an ovation from the throng who had gathered to witness a glimpse of the vice presidential nominee. For nearly an hour Mr. Sherman held a public reception in the New York headquarters.

FREEMAN KNOWLES APPEALS

Deadwood Editor Will Take His Case to a Higher Court.

ST. LOUIS, S. D., June 19.—(Special Telegram.)—As a result of a visit to this city today by Robert C. Hayes of Deadwood, attorney for the defendant, an appeal was perfected in the case of Freeman Knowles, editor of the Deadwood Lantern and former congressman from South Dakota, who, on May 25 last, was fined $200 by Judge Carlund while the latter was holding a term of United States court at Deadwood, after being found guilty by a jury of sending objectionable matter through the United States mails. Editor Knowles refused to pay the amount of the fine, even after the sum had been raised by his friends, and was committed to the Pennington county jail at Rapid City pending payment of the fine.

In allowing the petition for a writ of error Judge Carlund ordered that the defendant be admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000. It is expected the bond will be furnished within the next few days and the defendant released from jail. The appeal carries the case to the United States circuit court of appeals of the Eighth circuit, and the hearing will be held in due time at St. Louis.

Among other things
