DEMOCRATS FIND CREDENTIALS

Delegates to Denver Convention Given Scare Because Papers Are Missing-Tom Allen Comes to Their Relief.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 21 - (Special.)-The postmasters of Nebraska will be here Tuesday for a three days' meeting, and great preparations are being made for their entertainment. While there is nothing politically significant about the meeting, it is a dead certainty that no democratic postmasters of republicans. Postmaster Edward R. Sizer, who has a national reputation as an entertainer, has found the job too big to tackle single-handed so he has called on the city to help him out. Therefore the reception committee will be composed of practically all the people in Lincoln, including Governor and Mrs. Sheldon, Wednesday evening the State Journal and News will entertain the visitors at "A Night Off" at the Oliver, and on Tuesday evening an informal reception will be tendered the postmasters at the executive mansion. Among the big guns who have promised to be present outside of the Nebraska congres-A. Holmes, private secretary to the postmaster general; C. P. Grandfield, assistant postpaster general; J. T. McCleary, second assistant postmaster general; W. J. Vickery, inspector in charge; Tom Cooke of the canal zone, and others. The headquarters of the association will e at the Lincoln hotel, Secretary Wesley J. Cook in charge; headquarters of 'hird class postmasters will be at the Windsor hotel, A. A. Hyers in charge; headquarters for fourth class postmasters at Lindell hotel, Secretary B. J. Newton in charge, The following topics will be discussed: "Closer Co-operation between Post masters and the Department." "Education of the Public in Postal Laws.

"Parcels Post."

"Postals Savings Banks."

"Vacations for Employes and Sick Leaves."
"Reclassification of Mails and Simplification of Postal Laws."
"Discipline and Efficiency Records."
"Should Back-stamping He Discontinuous."

"Appointment of Rural Delivery Carriers. Should postmaster have same appointing power as in other employes?"
"Good Roads." "Sunday Service."
"Should a Postmaster Have More Discretion in Expending Small Amounts in Emergency Cases?"
"Offices of the Second Class; Their Offices of the Third Class; Their Needs."

"Offices of the Fourth Class; Their Needs."

Delegates to the Denver convention so lected by the democratic party of Nebraska had the fear thrown into them good this week, when they discovered none of them had any credentials and no one could remember who was secretary of the convention. For several days there was a lot of skirmishing around ?nd all the big guns were called up to find out who the secretary was. Finally Tom Allen sent out word that he himself had attend-

GENEVA, Neb., June 21 .- (Special.) -- On Friday the 14-yearfold son of William Heidy was standing six feet from some playmates who were pounding an anvil with a hammer, when a small piece of steel flew, striking him, penetrating the intestines and entering in the spinal column Dr. Beck was at once summoned, and, with the assistance of Dr. B. B. Mozee and Dr. Wood, operated on the boy. The intestines were taken out, and the steel extracted. He is in a most critical condition, but will probably recover. Plans Accepted for New Church. PERU, Neb., June 21.-(Special.)-Plans were accepted this week for the new Methadist Episcopal church, and the architect, Mr. Wood of Lincoln, is now at work on the detailed specifications. As soon as these are ready the contract will be let and work begun. The church will be 50x77 feet, without Sunday school room. All Runs of the Rourke Tribe Are Made in Third and Fourth Innings on Effective Stickwork and Hendy Base Running.

DES MOINES. June 21 -Six times have Omaha and Des Moines met this year and six times have the Champions been the victors. Two left-handers. Nelson and Sanders, opposed each other today. Nelson not lit as hard as Sanders, but the latter was extremely stingy in the pinches. Des Moines got its two scores by long distance swatting, a three-bagger being followed by a double in each instance. Flournoy and Dolan combining for the first run and Pader and Yeager for the second. In the fourth inning King beat out a bunt, a passed ball put him to second. Twenty-Five Hundred Omaha Fans Watch Lincoln and Denver. Lincoln. 6; Denver, 4. Gus Bonno celebrated his return into the game, after an enforced abserce of some weeks because of injury, by winning from the Grizzles Bunday afternoon at Vinten park. The game was scheduled for Lin-coln and was transerred to Omaha, the coin and was transerred to Omaha, the Rourke family being at Des Moines. About 2,500 people turned out to see the two outside teams play, and their applause was about equally divided, although most of them rooted for Denver after Lincoln had secured a lead. Lincoln cinched the game in the second inning, when an error, a base on balls and four hits gave five runs.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., June 21.—The lowly Indians from Pueblo no more trail the procession in the Western league pennant race. By defeating Sioux City twice today—probably two of the worst beatings they have received this season—they jumped in ahead of Des Moines. At no stage of the two contests were the locals dangerous. In the fifth inning of the first game, Nichols showed signs of weakening, when he passed two men and allowed a hit, scoring the only run of the two games, but he was promptly sent to the bench by Manager Patterson, who called on Fits—that he was kept on the slab in the second game. In the pinches he was the goods. Twice, after bases be side without a hit. IOWA CITY, Ia., June 35.—(Special.)— A cement bleacher, twenty-five rows high and thirty feet long will be erected on lowa field this summer, at a cost of $2,500.

It will be the first step of the Board of Regents to the university to build six asctions of this kind on each side of the Iowa field, thus providing ample seating capacity for 6,000 people on perfectly safe stands. At the recent meeting of the board $1,200 was appropriated for the construction of the first section this summer and it is possible that the Board of control of Athletics, with meny funds in the treasury, will advance the remainder to make the building of the stand on the west side of the field a possibility. AMUSEMENTS.
