The Nebraska farmer is getting ready to make a noise like assured prosperity.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of liniment in Fourth of July preparations.

These scorching days seem to be an incentive to the automobile scorcher. Slow down.

Tom Lawson wants it understood that he will not wear a maul, no matter how hot the weather gets.

The Gray presidential boom is about exciting enough to demand the attention of the sporting editor of the War Cry.

It will be interesting to observe how Kentucky gets along without the customary periodical trials of Caleb Powers.

While a sane Fourth of July will suit the rest of the country, Denver is hoping for a sane July from the 7th to the 11th.

The Russian Douma has declined to approve a loan of $100,000,000 negotiated by the czar for the construction of a new navy.

Inventor Maxim refuses to put his noiseless gun on the market. It would have been even better if he had refused to invent it.

Robert Taft has won a prize in mathematics at Yale and Miss Taft has won a scholarship at Bryn Mawr. The Tafts are winners.

Fortunately for King Corn, there are vastly more uplands in Nebraska than lowlands, and the uplands always serve him as an umbrella.

As a matter of fact, it was hardly to be expected that any platform promulgated by the republicans at Chicago would suit Colonel Bryan.

King Ak-Sar-Ben's initiations not only go right along irrespective of the big shows pulled off by politicians, but suffer no detraction by comparison.

The editor of The Bee pleads guilty to the heinous offense of possessing a silk hat and also a dress suit, and sometimes wearing them on proper occasions.

The manager of the Taft preliminary campaign and "the only democratic congressman from Nebraska" are of the same name, but entirely different composition.

Tom Lawson offers to raise a campaign fund of $1,000,000 for the democratic ticket if Bryan will take second place at Denver. The news should be sent to T. Fortune Ryan who may want to raise the limit.

Chairman James T. Lloyd of the democratic congressional committee, has asked that contributions to the campaign fund be sent direct to him at Washington. Mayor "Jim" and Brother-in-law Allen will please take notice.

Two young men at Harvard are threatened with expulsion because they borrowed a book from one of the library collections in violation of the rules. As the book was not an athletic guide the misconduct of the young men can not be understood or palliated.

NEBRASKA AT CHICAGO

Nebraska republicans will, we believe, feel that they were satisfactorily represented by their delegation at the Chicago convention.

As a result of these conditions, particularly in the west, there has been a complete lull in the organization of national currency associations for issuing the new emergency currency.

On the various platform propositions separately voted the Nebraska delegation is recorded as upholding some of the more advanced positions taken from time to time in our state platforms notwithstanding the fact that these declarations have not secured the endorsement of the party throughout the nation.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE.

Praise of Taft's Qualifications by Independent and Democratic Papers.

The reception of Mr. Taft's nomination by the independent and the democratic newspapers furnishes striking evidence of the unusual strength of the republican candidate.

The republicans are in a position to measure up to its requirements. They dwell upon his remarkable record as an efficient administrator in various branches of the public service.

Where Invention Lags. Minneapolis Journal. Hiram Percy Maxim has just invented a noiseless gun, for which achievement he is receiving $100,000.

Marked Difference in Speed. Kansas City Journal. In those rare instances when the price of beef goes down the decline never stays past the retail dealer.

Brains Above Ballion. Philadelphia Record. It was really a compliment to Germany to send an ambassador to Berlin more loaded with brains than cash.

Safe and Sound Methods. San Francisco Chronicle. A whirlwind campaign may be a good thing in its way, but sensible discussion and a proper weighing of arguments will be more becoming to the American past.

The Roosevelt Demonstration. Brooklyn Eagle (Ind. dom). The demonstration was magnificent. As a tribute, it was extraordinary and merited. As a proof of the admiration of Americans for the qualities of their president, it was unprecedented and deserved.

High and Unbiased Testimony. Baltimore American. Ambassador Bryce, who speaks with authority, having made a thorough study of our system of government, says that the republicans are getting the reputation of being too emotional to remain practical.

La Follette and Taft. Springfield Republican. Among the telegrams of congratulation received by Senator Taft from his recent opponents, the one from Senator La Follette was of peculiar interest.

Large Administrative Experience of Taft's Successor. Army and Navy Register. Hon. Luke E. Wright of Tennessee will succeed Mr. Taft on July 1 as secretary of war.

Qualities of Leadership. Washington Herald (Ind.). The expected, but not the republican nominee for president of the United States, is a man of clean personal life, of demonstrated capacity for doing things, and a full-blooded American.

The Test to Come. Springfield (Mass.) Republican (Ind.). The popular strength of the republican candidate, however, will not depend entirely upon superior administrative qualifications.

A Big, Strong Man. Washington Star (Ind. rep.). The republican nominee, considered in all of his aspects and relations, is a big, strong man, of declared convictions and with the courage to support them.

A Trying Position. Chicago Record-Herald. According to his own modest admission Senator Dooliver is the only thing that stands between Iowa and anarchy.

Restriction is Anarchy. Pittsburg Dispatch. As the railroads are organized for transportation the law's requirement that they shall confine themselves to that is a kind of anarchy.

Indiana's Unique Lonesomeness. New York Tribune. The universality of Secretary Taft's popularity as a candidate is strikingly demonstrated by the fact that of the Protest on Farnam Raise. Representatives of Business Consider Valuations Too High.

Full Hearing on Friday. Victor Rosewater Appears by Request of Board Chairman and Expresses Satisfaction with Increase if it is Equalized.

Twenty-five men representing real estate on Farnam street between Fifteenth and Twentieth, the assessment on which has been raised $60,000 by the County Board of Equalization, appeared before the board Monday to protest against the action.

Attorneys and real estate men arguing against the radical increase of the board declared it was unjust to raise valuations in one district and not over the entire county.

The board has made some substantial reductions on elevator property. Merriam & Holmquist was reduced from $60,000 to $30,000 on one elevator and from $40,000 to $20,000 on another.

The board of equalization Monday afternoon ordered a postponement of all the improvements on real estate in Union precinct. This was done because it was believed the assessment on improvements in this precinct was too low.

Governor Chamberlain of Oregon, the democrat who expects to be elected to the senate by republican votes, is trying to sugarcoat the pill by terming himself non-partisan.

Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, who is in New York recovering from a serious operation on his throat, continues to improve. It is thought he will be able to leave his bed in a few days.

T. J. O'Brien of Grand Rapids, Mich., American ambassador to the Michigan Agricultural college, has been given the degree of LL. D. by the University of Michigan.

R. F. Wilson of Baggs, Colo., will live on a piece of ground on which is now located the Baggs cemetery. The land belongs to the government.

Signora Duse, the famous Italian actress, is peculiarly nervous. When she is not at rehearsals or acting she spends her time in perfect rest.

Dr. William H. Toiman, director of the American Museum of Safety Devices, has been appointed American delegate to the eighth International Congress for the Prevention of Accidents.

Chicago Record-Herald. According to his own modest admission Senator Dooliver is the only thing that stands between Iowa and anarchy.

FULL HEARING ON FRIDAY

Victor Rosewater Appears by Request of Board Chairman and Expresses Satisfaction with Increase if it is Equalized.

SUNNY GEMS.

Confidential Friend—But look at the possibilities of the vice presidential position. Eminent Statesman—Possibilities! Look at Taft! Did you ever see a man as aggressively healthy as he is?—Chicago Tribune.

She (getting the refreshment booth)—Dear-est, while we are waiting for the train, don't you think it would be a good idea to take something?—Washington Star.

"People say that you are a tool of the trusts," answered Senator Borahum. "You've got to take your choice between being called that or a demagogue."—Washington Star.

"Ah! my love," sighed the ardent lover. "If you only knew how beautiful you are."—"You mustn't speak of it!" protested the modest girl. "I don't want to know."—"Why not?"—"Because," she said, "it would make me too conceited."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Tommy—Faw, what is "Roosevelt luck"? Mr. Tucker—Roosevelt luck, my son, is the fact that he did it. If he'd gone into things come your way.—Chicago Tribune.

"Suppose women should vote. What would be the result over the forestry question because he is afraid that the depletion of our woods will leave us in the near future without available presidential timber or lumber for good platform planks."—Baltimore American.

May—O ye, she's crazy about the men; she's a girl of single idea.—Jack—O course; every single girl has a single idea and that is to remain single no longer than is absolutely necessary.—Philadelphia Press.

A HUNDRED YEARS FROM NOW.

Sarah Noble-lives in July 8, Nicholas. There's a picture in the window. Of a little shop I know. With boys and girls dressed as they were. A hundred years ago. And since I saw it, I have thought, And longed on thinking how They'll really look, I'd like to know—A hundred years from now.

Will girls wear caps or farthingales. Or hoops in grand array? Butterflies, Will they be seen, or just how They'll really look, I'd like to know—A hundred years from now.

What do you think the girls and boys Will eat in those far days? Will they be seen, or just how They'll really look, I'd like to know—A hundred years from now.

Will children's books have pictures then. Or just all reading bee? Perils they'll be seen, or just how They'll really look, I'd like to know—A hundred years from now.

Will the cream soda make them sick. And everything that's nice? Will they be seen, or just how They'll really look, I'd like to know—A hundred years from now.
