MEETING OF WHOLESALE GROCERS.
Dried Fruit Contract One of the Matters Discussed.
There was a large and representative attendance at a meeting of the Iowa and Nebraska Wholesale Grocers' association held yesterday at the Grand hotel. The meeting, an executive one, as all the sessions of the association are, was held in the morning at 10 o'clock. It was understood for the purpose of discussing trade conditions generally and certain matters in particular.
One matter which occupied the attention of the meeting for a considerable time was the "dried fruit" contract presented by the California Fruit Growers' association. The contract did not meet with the approval of the jobbers and, after considerable discussion, a resolution rejecting it was adopted. The association also discussed ways and means of dealing with such manufacturers as persist in marketing their goods through the retailer as well as through the jobber. This is one of the many troubles, it is said, which the members of the association have to periodically contend with.
In the absence of Major Mahon of Ottumwa, president of the organization, Vice President George E. Lichty of Waterloo presided over the meeting.
The following firms were represented at the meeting:
Dubuque, Ia.—John T. Hancock company, Schroeder-Kleine Grocery company, Wray, Neb.—The Fowler company, Smith-Lichty & Hillman company, Council Bluffs, Ia.—C. L. "William Taft and James B. Sherman are in my judgment the strongest candidates for the nomination," declared Mr. Hart. That Mr. Sherman will receive strong support in the west as well as in the east is the opinion of Mr. Hart. Mr. Hart also expressed the opinion that Bryan is no stronger in the east than he was before

MISSING MAN WRITES WIFE

Says He Has Been in Asylum Since Leaving Council Bluffs.

HAD BEEN GIVEN UP AS DEAD

After Recovering He Establishes Himself in Business in St. Louis—and Sends for His Wife to Join Him.

Mrs. S. T. Thompson, wife of an optician, who disappeared July 7, 1906, from this city, was in Council Bluffs yesterday on her way to Kansas City to join her husband. Mrs. Thompson, who has been recently stopping with a son in Bartlett, Ia., received a letter a few days ago from her husband, whom she had presumed dead. The letter conveyed the information that Mr. Thompson had been in an insane asylum until seven months ago. Since he recovered his reason he had established himself in St. Louis, where he has prepared a home for his wife. He had also arranged for the care of his children and had been able to secure a home to bring her to.

Thompson, who was an elderly man, occupied a portion of the jewelry store of O. Maubus on West Broadway. On the morning of July 7, 1906, he appeared at the store as usual, and after staying there a short while left. From that time all trace of the man was lost and nothing had been heard from or of him until Mrs. Thompson received the letter a few days ago.
At the time of Thompson's disappearance, there were a number of rumors about, none of which were given credence by his wife, who feared he had met with an accident or foul play. She had given up all hope long ago of ever seeing him again. Thompson did not state in his letter in what asylum he had been confined.

CONTEST NOW ONE OF LAW

Action on One Precinct in Folk and Dallas Recount Will Settle It.

HULL AT PRESENT IN THE LEAD

If Precinct is Thrown Out Prouty Wins and Result Uncertain in Case Recount is Ordered in Dallas County.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, June 26.—(Special.)—Judge S. P. Prouty today withdrew his petition for a recount of the votes in Bloomfield township in this county, but is maintaining his petition to have the entire vote of the township thrown out on the ground that votes were illegally cast in the precinct and that the precinct was kept open after the legal time for closing the polls.
On this precinct and the action of the supervisors depends the fight between Hull and Prouty for the congressional nomination in the Seventh district of Dallas county which is to be held in the courts. If Prouty can get Bloomfield township thrown out, he will have the nomination without any returns in Dallas and taking the Dallas returns as first sent in. If he can also get a recount in Dallas, he claims he will have a gain of seventy-five votes there.
The contest over the Bloomfield township vote is the last of the Folk county contest. In that township Hull received ninety votes and Prouty fifty-two, giving Hull a majority of forty-eight in that precinct. Taking the entire Seventh district, including the first reports from Dallas county, Hull has a plurality of forty-one in the district. If Bloomfield is thrown out, his entire majority is wiped out and the contest is at an end in Teheran, and while the city is more quiet today than it was Tuesday and Wednesday and the people and troops are more orderly, further encounters are expected before nightfall.
The shah has appointed the Russian colonel of consular to the position of governor of Teheran.
The shah has issued orders that one house be bombed each day. He is making use of a list of proscribed houses belonging to persons opposed to him. After a house has been bombed, it is subject to complete pillage. The pillage of the home of Ala El Dober, who is absent from Teheran, is appointed for today. The members of the European colony are indignant over the atrocities occurring before their eyes, although they themselves remain unharmed. Representatives of the various legations have sent word to the commander of the British guard, expressing their condemnation of the continued plundering of private property and the murdering of innocent people.
The shah has given orders that the chancellor of parliament again be bombed. Workmen are at present engaged in demolishing the remains of the parliamentary building proper. Many of the deputies took refuge at the British legation.
LONDON, June 25.—Private messages received here from Teheran say the situation there is improving and well in hand. According to these advices artillery is to be no longer employed in the city, but military visits on the part of the military will be continued.
Foreign Secretary Edward Gray, speaking in the House of Commons this afternoon communicated the gist of the informal communication by the British charge d'affaires at Teheran on the subject of the disturbances in that city. The latest message from the charge d'affaires explained that but little time would be required to decide contests as they were small in number and would be disposed of quickly.
Chairman Taggart was asked as to his ambitions with regard to succeeding himself as chairman of the national committee. He replied with considerable emphasis: "I know I will not be chairman." Further than that he declined to go.

CONCEALS BOY THREE MONTHS
Matron of Orphan's Home Attempts Suicide When Discovered.
DAVENPORT, Ia., June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The attempted suicide of Miss Lora Whalen, matron of the State Orphan's home here, this morning, brought to light the fact that Miss Whalen had kept Frank Pratt, a boy inmate of the institution, imprisoned in her room for three months. Whether this act was insane or not, the authorities at the home say they expect the matron to become a maniac. She swallowed the contents of a bottle of chloroform this morning after the boy, who has been sought for for the past week, was found in her room, but prompt work by the physicians saved her life.
It is explained at the home that she burned the boy's foot in March, while giving him a bath, and that she had since kept him concealed in her room. Worry has evidently unbalanced her mind. She had been a matron at the home for fourteen years, and had a good record there.

AUTOISTS REACH OMAHA TODAY
Arrive in Boone Late Yesterday Afternoon Enroute to Denver.
MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Members of the Illinois democratic delegation on their way to the Denver convention in automobiles arrived here this afternoon and left at 2:30 p. m. after stopping for lunch. The party came from Cedar Rapids today. The roads in excellent condition and the party is having a good time.
BOONE, Ia., June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The democratic delegates in the automobile train plan to reach Omaha tomorrow if possible. The party is expected to arrive at 5:30 this afternoon. Thousands lined up and gave the visitors a noisy welcome. Local automobiles formed a parade and escorted the visitors into the city. They went to Jefferson to spend the night. Not one accident or mishap reported since leaving Chicago.

MOTHER DROWNS FOUR CHILDREN
Follows It Up by Attempt to Take Her Own Life.
IDA GROVE, Ia., June 26.—While temporarily insane Mrs. August P. Johnson drowned her four little children in the cistern at their farm home, a mile south of here, today. The mother was about 1 year old and the eldest about 4. There were two boys and two girls. Her husband was in the field at the time. After she had drowned the four children she tried to drown herself, but neighbors and people from town came running in and rescued her. The little ones were quickly pulled out of the cistern and though efforts were made for an hour to resuscitate them it was in vain.

Iowa News Notes.
SIENANDOAH—John C. Hunt committed suicide by throwing himself in front of a Burlington passenger train this morning. He was the son of a prominent Marshalltown family.
MARSHALLTOWN—The annual convention of the Iowa county agricultural societies will be held in Waterloo on July 8 and 9. Immediately following it the annual convention of the Iowa State Bar association will begin.
ESTHERVILLE—At the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Butler, occurred the wedding of their daughter, Miss Nora Butler, to F. K. Converse. After a short wedding trip to Chicago the young people will go to Rocky Ford, Colo., for their future home.
BOONE—A message was received in this city this morning from San Francisco, Cal., that Ray Bueby, formerly of this city, had died. The message was sent by the coroner here and gave none of the details. Ray formerly was employed in this city as a linotype operator.
ATLANTIC—The event of the season in the society world only, when Miss Roslyn Steinko was united in matrimony to Clyde C. Ball of Grinnell. The ceremony was performed on the 24th in the presence of about seventy-five guests, by the Rev. George W. Bryant of Cedar Rapids.
IOWA CITY—Albert Pangham of Dickinson, S. D., who is wanted in his home city for the desertion of his little 6-year-old daughter, was captured by the police here today. The man's wife is said to be dead and the little one was quickly pulled out of the care of the sympathetic neighbors.
BOONE—Miss Ellen Sundell of Des Moines and Mr. August Swanson, also of that city, were united in marriage in this city Wednesday afternoon by Dr. O. H. I. Mason, pastor of the Presbyterian church. They were accompanied by their families and friends in Des Moines and, taking the latter train, came here.
ATLANTIC—Local firemen are estimating that about $5,000 and $5,000 will be in the city for the tournament and carnival which will be held in this city for the two days of the 30 and 31st. A special train will be run from Creston by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy through to Atlantic, using the tracks of the Rock Island from Grinstead to Atlantic.
MARSHALLTOWN—A. W. Wray, a prominent German resident and a former editor and owner of the Rebeacher, was seriously injured last night when he fell from his station No. 2 ran into his buggy, overturning it and hurling him to the pavement. The department was responding to a fire alarm, and although Wray saw the train coming and tried to get out of the way he sustained three fractured ribs and it is believed he will incur a permanent disability.
MARSHALLTOWN—Eagles from all parts of the state participated in the 11th annual parade in this city. Grand worthy brought to a close the second day's work of the annual convention of the order which is being held in this city. Grand worthy Treasurer Frank Hering of South Bend, Ind., was one of the principal speakers who was on the program for the banquet. J. M. Tanner of South Omaha, publisher of the Daily Nebraska Democrat, and the Mid-West Eagle, also spoke. The convention closed tonight.

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN WANTS INDIANA MAN FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

DENVER, June 25.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national democratic committee, came to town today, bringing along a vice presidential boom which he put forth with much enthusiasm. The Auditorium is now being prepared for the convention. Bryan will be nominated on the first ballot, without a doubt, and his running mate will be John W. Kern of Indiana. Mr. Kern will be placed in nomination by John E. Lamb or B. F. Shively, both of that state, and his nomination ought to follow.
This was the greeting Mr. Taggart gave to newspaper men. A little later, when he had been whizzed to the Auditorium—the convention hall—he exhibited little less enthusiasm.
"The arrangements for the convention are fine," he said. "I can not see how they could be improved upon. The Auditorium is a wonderful piece of architecture and everything seems to be in most excellent shape."
Chairman Taggart has called a meeting of the national committee for Saturday, July 4, when the principal business will be to hear and determine the contests for seats as delegates which have been filed. These are comparatively few in number. So far as filed with Secretary Woodson, they include contests from the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh districts of New York; the Ninth Ohio and the delegation from the District of Columbia. It has been stated that a number of seats from Illinois were to be contested, but as yet no official notice of such intention has been received.
The committee and the women of their party have accepted an invitation to go up into the mountains Sunday on the Moffatt road.
A conference between Chairman Taggart and other members of the national committee was held tonight when it was decided that consideration of contests would

TRUBLE OVER HOMESTEAD

Railroad Company Contests the Title of Entryman to Land Opposite Blair.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, June 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The controversy between William Quinlan of Blair, Neb., and the Northwestern road and Missouri Valley Bridge company over a homestead entry made by Quinlan near Blair, was argued today before the commissioner of the general land office. The case has been before the local land office at Des Moines and there developed against the railroad company, whereupon it appealed to the general land office. The case involves a homestead entry of land about half a mile east of the Iowa end of the bridge of the Northwestern Railroad company across the Missouri at Blair. The title of the homestead (Quinlan) is disputed by the railroad and bridge company, it being their contention that the land entered upon is not subject to homestead entry because prior to the entry Quinlan the land in question had been held and occupied by the railroad under claim of title derived from the state of Iowa. The land in question is chiefly valuable to the railroad for the reason it desires to control it so as to use it to protect the abutments of the railroad bridge which crosses the Missouri at this point. The case will be laid before Secretary Garfield upon his return from Honolulu for final settlement. A dispatch from Baltimore to an evening Washington paper states that Miss Estelle L. Chief of Baltimore was married yesterday afternoon to W. Howard Nelson, a business man of Omaha. It seems it was a runaway match. The couple were married at Elliott City, Md., the Gretna Green for eloping couples from Baltimore. The bride is 19 and the groom is 22 years old.
