GIVING A CHINA SHOWER Novel Plan of Surprising the Brideto-Be with Delicate and Appreciated Gifts.

For a china shower the table centerpleca should be made of summer flowers. Above the table suspend a pretty white parasol or a Japanese umbrella with several small Japanese umbrellas (doll size) attached to it, each with a name card tied to the handle. Each guest should be requested to write an appropriate sentiment and send with her gift the day before. Fill a large Japanese umbrella with confetti and ouffed rice, tying the ribs tightly to the andle, and then hang it in the doorway. Have the bride-to-be stand under this and tell her to untie the broad white ribbon. This will release the ribs and she will recive a liberal shower of gay confetti and Have the bride hunt for some of them. The search may afford great amusement y having the presents hidden in all sorts of funny places. Have some of the parcels delivered to her by messenger. Place one or two in her hat, others in her wrap and so forth. Plenty of other amusements will be found in reading the sentiments and admiring the gifts. A unique way of giving bread and butter plates and cups and saucers is to use them on the luncheor table.-What to Eat.

DEATH CAUSES QUEER MIXUP Law Does Not Seem to Provide a Way to Fill Vacant Office.

PIERRE, S. D., June 27.-(Special Telegram.)-The death of Congressman W. H. Parker, leaves the congressional situation in a rather peculiar shape. The vacancy cannot be filled by appointment, but must be by special election. The selection of a candidate is the puzzling one. The state nominates through primary election and fixes specific dates for such nominations The convention is empowered to fill vacancles in the ticket nominated but not such as a vacancy by death of an officer elected, The probabilities at the present are that Governor Crawford will not call a special election before the date of the general election in November and nominations will be by petition for the place to fill vacancy. Just who will be the man is a matter for the future political history of the state to decide. By using the various C., orthonis of The Bee Want Ad Poges you get quick returns
