year ago. was in good general demand and COLD

Corn was in good general demand and the market was strong all day. The mar-ket closed strong at almost the highest point. September opened a shade lower to %36% chigher, at 62%65% c, advanced to 75% c and closed at 70%670% c. July sold between 65% c and 69% c and closed at 69% c. Local receipts were 405 cars, with 29 of contrast strade

Local receipts were all cars, with 25 of Contract grade. Oats were strong on active demand by commission houses and shorts. The de-mand was based mainly on the Illinois crop, which showed a deterioration of 15 points in the condition of the crop during the last month. News from private sources regarding the new crop was also of a builtish nature. The market closed strong at almost the top notch. September 16274c where it closed. July ranged between 45462 46c and closed at 45%c. Local receipts were 199 cars.

46c and closed at $2.5c. Decay of Houlda-199 cars. Provisions were easy because of Houlda-tion of holdings of July deliveries, par-ticularly of pork. At the close September pork was 5c off, at $14.90. Lard was down 2%c. at $3.32%. Ribs were also off 2%c, at $8.47%. ## BARON WAS CLOTHES CLEANER

De Ginzberg Has Hard Time Making Good His Claims to Royalty.

Light on the history of the South Omaha man who calls himself Baron Henry de Ginzberg is contained in a letter just received from the Transvaal by Superintendent Ferrer of the county hosp tal, where CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET De Ginzberg was kept for treatment for several weeks.

De Ginzberg claims to be a cousin of Prince Helle de Sagan and shortly after his claims were published in the newspapers Mr. Ferrer received a letter from New York believed to have been written by Prince He'ie denouncing De Ginzberg as an imposter. The letter was anonymous, but it was evidently written by an educated foreigner and was posted the duy before Prince Helie left New York for France. The letter gave the address of an attorney in the Transvaal who knew of the record of Henry de Ginzberg there.

The "baron" carried around with him pockets full of news; aper clippings showing how he denounced Webster Davis on the streets of Kansas City. He was aggrieved at Mr. Davis and claimed Mr. Davis owed him large sums of money.

Accomplice of Bond Likely to Be Given Chance of Pleading Guilty.

That Gerald Schofield, the accomplice of George L. Bond in the murder of John Wrede, the South Omaha saloon keeper. will be allowed to plead guilty and take a life sentence is the opinion of a number of those who are conversant with the case.

County Attorney English said he could Receipts of live stock at the principal not tell Tuesday just what disposition would be made of Schofleid's case, but he might plead guilty. Bond, who admitted firing the fatel shots, was sentenced to a life term Saturday, and it is not believed a jury would inflict any greater punish-15 000 ment on Schofield. As the jury will be 35,400 61,000 26.1.0 discharged this week Schofield can not be tried until fall and he will have to remain in jail until October, unless he pleads guilty
