LAWYER TALKS FOR MINNESOTAN

Mayor of St. Paul Says Johnson Will Gain Steadily After First Ballot Until He is Nominated.

Denver, July 1.—Claiming a victory on the first ballot, but overlooking no possible chance to make their triumph sure, the followers of Mr. Bryan have been watching for any move on the part of his rivals that would compel him to go single-barrelled against the field, as Taft would prefer to show his strength in the early stages of the Chicago convention against the combined forces of the "allies." The arrival today, however, of the personal representatives of Judge Gray and Governor Johnson, the only candidates who are expected to enter the lists against Mr. Bryan, has failed to disclose any common ground of agreement between them. The Gray managers asserted that they had no intention of entering into a coalition with the followers of Governor Johnson and had not made them any overtures for a combination. The same disclaimer to pool issues was made by the Johnson people after their arrival tonight. They said they had no other view but the nomination of Governor Johnson and intended to make their fight for that purpose only.

No Anti-Bryan Alliance.

The attitude which the Gray and Johnson people have assumed has led to a candid construction of a vice presidential character. The followers of Mr. Bryan profess to believe that the refusal of the Gray and Johnson men to make a combined fight against the strength of Mr. Bryan means that they are not occupying positions in which they can avail themselves of Bryan votes for second place in the event of his nomination for the presidency. On this point, however, both Mr. Lynch, for Governor Johnson, and Mr. Marvel, for Judge Gray, insist that the Bryan people are utterly in the wrong. Their friends are not to be the first place and are giving no consideration to the vice presidency. The chief arrivals today in point of political importance were those of Frederick B. Lynch, Frank M. Day, D. W. Lawler, mayor of St. Paul, and Richard T. O'Connor, mayor of the same city, all of them enthusiastic supporters of the Minnesota governor. Messrs. Lawler and O'Connor arrived several hours ahead of Mr. Day and Mr. Lynch and they were in Denver but a short time. They were later in the afternoon to Colorado Springs, where they will remain for two or three days. They expect to be joined there by other members of the Minnesota delegation and it is possible that the various members of the committee may be selected here in the afternoon. It is practically certain, however, that the member of the committee on resolutions will be chosen, though neither Mayor Lawler nor Mr. O'Connor were able to say who this would be.

Predicts Johnson's Nomination.

Mayor Lawler, who acted as spokesman, while Mr. O'Connor filled a thinking part and came in strong with nods of approval after the mayor had declared himself, said that all talk of Governor Johnson taking second place on the ticket is utter nonsense. "It will not take it," said Mayor Lawler, "it is out of the question to talk of such a thing. Even if the governor was himself disposed to accept the vice presidential nomination, I assure you he is not, the people of Minnesota would not permit him to do so." The denunciations of Johnson's nomination will be made immediately. We look for Governor Johnson to make an excellent showing on the first ballot and to steadily gain strength from that time until he is nominated, and we do not expect that many ballots will be cast. The Johnson headquarters will be formally opened tomorrow at the Albany hotel and the campaign managers for the Minnesota governor promise an energetic fight from that time on until a nomination has been made by the convention. Headquarters for Judge Gray in the Savoy hotel were in full swing today, under the direction of Josiah Marvel of Wilmington, Del., and R. J. Beamish of Philadelphia.
