BRYAN MEN ON GUARD

all sorts of meaning have been grouped under that word. It all depends upon what is meant by the word "radical." I think it is entirely safe to say, although I am now giving my personal opinion only, that any assumption that the anti-injunction plank will be an attack upon the courts is incorrect. It unquestionably will favor jury trials for contempt and the notice to all parties concerned in injunction proceedings. It can safely be stated also that the plank will be a clean cut definite statement and not a struggle, such as the republican party has made, it is entirely within bounds to say that the injunction plank to be adopted by the democratic national convention will be no more advanced than the views which have from time to time been expressed by President Cleveland. It is my opinion that we will be more conservative than the president would have been had he written the plank in the republican platform.

When asked about the vice presidential situation Mr. Alschuler declared that in his opinion the great desirable attribute for any candidate was that he should be from Illinois. If, however, that state did not present any name to the convention he was utterly at a loss to predict at this time who, the Illinois delegation will favor. The state, he said, would stand for Bryan to the finish and there would be no break in its vote at any time.

Will Honor Cleveland's Memory. After meeting and perfecting a temporary organization next Tuesday, the democratic convention will adjourn for the day out of respect to the memory of former President Cleveland. If the present plans of the committee on arrangements are carried into effect.

The committee has not reached the point of making a definite announcement, but there has been recently discussed and the expression generally favors this course. It is believed that the adjournment can be taken in this way without interfering with the progress of the proceedings of the convention and at the same time enable the convention to pay the proper degree of respect for the ex-president.

The committee will be announced so that they can proceed with their business. The program looks to the completion of the work of the convention within three days.

No Johnson for Bryan Men. The principal event in connection with the forthcoming democratic national convention today was the arrival of Frederick B. Lynch of Minnesota, as the representative-in-chief of the presidential boom of Governor John A. Johnson of that state. A reservation of quarters at the Albany hotel was made several weeks ago by Mr. Lynch, and an extensive suite of rooms has been prepared for him and his staff.

The announcement of Mr. Lynch's coming had the effect of causing a renewal of the discussion of the possibilities of the nomination of the governor for vice-president, rather than for the presidency. It was conceded on all hands, privately even by the supporters of Governor Johnson, that his nomination for the first position was problematical; but his friends were staunch in their determination to have his name presented to the convention for the presidency, even in the face of the possibility of his defeat, and most of them were quite as positive in the declaration that he would not accept the second place even if it should be tendered to him.

The discussion of the Minnesota governor's chances for the vice-presidency, while quite general among the uninformed, was not indulged in seriously by those who were in accord with the inner Bryan circles. They did not accept his name with favor and it may be announced even thus far in advance of the meeting of the convention that the Minnesota man will not be Mr. Bryan's running mate in the event of the Nebraska's nomination. Mr. Bryan's most intimate friends and most steadfast supporters are quite determined on this point. While they do not openly criticize Mr. Johnson's candidacy, they are very evidently displeased with the fact that he entered the race and it is even intimated that Mr. Bryan, himself, would not favorably consider the Johnson candidacy for vice-president.

Judge Gray Acceptable. On the other hand it is known that Judge Gray of Delaware would be in every way acceptable to Mr. Bryan as the candidate for the second place, and the position "generally conceded to him if he will accept it. His conservatism is not a bar, but rather a help to his candidacy. Mr. Bryan had at no time taken the position against a conservative associate, but has said to many of his friends that he would not object to a running mate who does not go to the lengths that he does if in other respects the man were acceptable. Mr. Bryan's closer friends concede the wisdom of selecting a candidate who would be in closer accord with eastern thought than is Mr. Bryan himself, and they point out that while Judge Gray meets this demand, in many respects he would not be antagonistic to Mr. Bryan's special supporters.

It is believed that his connection with the anthracite coal strike arbitration of a few years ago would add immensely to the popularity of the ticket among the laboring classes, and it is contended that during his long career in the United States senate and on the federal bench he has never in any way antagonized the labor interest. It is conceded that Judge Gray is not a "candidate for second place, but the contention is persistently made that if the nomination should be tendered him he would not refuse it. It is known that he found his work in the senate thoroughly congenial, and those familiar with his disposition say that he would prefer the vice presidency to his work on the bench.

New York After Delaware.

If the nomination does not go to Judge Gray, New York will probably claim it, and in that contingency the New Yorkers who are on the ground assert that the position will be awarded to that state if the New York delegation can unite upon a candidate. In other words, the situation with reference to the vice presidency in the Denver convention now pending is the vice presidential situation in the Chicago convention previous to the nomination of Mr. Sherman. As in Chicago, the difficulty may be in uniting upon an available candidate. The developments of the day have already practically eliminated Governor Johnson as a contender from the contest. Mr. Bryan's friends are not favorably inclined to him because they are doubtful whether his position on the tariff would place him in accord with Mr. Bryan. In this connection it is made apparent that most public utterances of Mr. Chanler on this subject have received close scrutiny, with the result that they are regarded as not accurately representing the present position of the dominant element in the party.

With Mr. Chanler thus practically disposed of, there has been renewed discussion of the name of Representative Burton Harrison of New York and the name of Hon. John B. Stanchfield of Elmira, N. Y., was also prominently mentioned today in connection with the office. The confidence manifested by the New Yorkers in speaking of Mr. Stanchfield is the best evidence of their belief that if he should be brought forward as a candidate he would not only unite the New York delegation, but would command the immediate support of Mr. Bryan's closest following.

Stanchfield Friend of Bryan. Mr. Stanchfield is one of Mr. Bryan's old friends in the east, and while ranked as a conservative, gave the Nebraska his royal support in his campaigns of 1886 and 1898. His standing in the east and his reputation as a public man are regarded as strong points in his favor, and it is confidentially asserted that he would add greatly to the strength of the presidential ticket, not alone in New York, but in many other eastern states. The name has been mentioned by the New Yorkers in speaking of Mr. Stanchfield is the best evidence of their belief that if he should be brought forward as a candidate he would not only unite the New York delegation, but would command the immediate support of Mr. Bryan's closest following.

Among those of the south mentioned in connection with the vice presidential nomination is Governor Robert B. Glenn of North Carolina, and Mr. Glenn is already represented in Denver by H. M. Holleman, and other friends who are working among the delegates as they arrive. They call attention to the fact that the governor was marked praise by his oratory at the recent governors' assembly in Washington and also point to his record in connection with railroad legislation in North Carolina, claiming that he would not only on account of his record, but because of his capacity as a speech-maker make an effective candidate.

The headquarters of Judge George Gray of Delaware were thrown open today. Josiah Marvel of Wilmington, Del., and R. J. Beannish of Philadelphia, who are in charge of the Delaware man's campaign, had intended to open the headquarters and launch the Gray boom last night, but they were delayed in reaching the city, and when they arrived at their rooms at the Savoy hotel it was decided to postpone the opening until today.

Gray Men Open Headquarters. Even upon the Gray people were the first to open regular headquarters. Yesterday they caused to be printed and distributed their candidate to the place, and their leading hotels and they were, early today, the only pictures of any candidate to be seen in the city except in the headquarters of the national committee, where pictures of all of the presidential aspirants are displayed conspicuously.

Mr. Marvel declared last night and reiterated today that Judge Gray is not a candidate for anything but the presidency. He was asked if the judge would accept the nomination provided the convention adopted a platform containing a radical anti-injunction plank. To this Mr. Marvel replied: "I do not think that such a condition will arise. From all I can gather, the Denver platform will not contain any utterance on the anti-injunction proposition varying largely from the expressions contained in democratic platforms for the last twelve years."

Stress was laid by Mr. Marvel upon the fact that there are 400 unattached delegates in the convention, and he believes that Judge Gray will be able to obtain many of them on the first ballot, more of them on the second ballot, and will then make inroads on the Bryan delegates that will eventually result in the nomination of the Delaware candidate.

It has been decided by the Delaware delegates that L. L. Layton shall represent that state on the committee on resolutions. He is expected to arrive in this city in company with a large number of other delegates from the state on Friday. According to Mr. Marvel the Delaware delegation has some well developed ideas of what the anti-injunction plank should be, but will not make them public until they are offered by Mr. Layton, when the committee meets. That these ideas are in harmony with the views expressed in the last three platforms of the democratic party is admitted.

WILMINGTON, Del., July 1.—In reply to a question from a representative of the Associated Press Judge Gray this morning stated that he had sent a telegram to the New York Evening Journal as follows: "I have your telegram regarding the nomination of the vice president, and I would not consent to being placed in nomination as a candidate for the presidency. I now say with equal emphasis that I would not accept the second place in nomination for the vice presidency."

conference with William J. Bryan at Lincoln and will make argument for a strong injunction plank in the democratic platform. Mr. Monnett asserts that the slightest tendency to wobble on this question will cause Bryan to lose a quarter of a million votes in Ohio and the coal producing states.

BRYAN HAS NO SET PLATFORM Beyond General Principles He Will Not Insist on Ideas.

DENVER, Colo., July 1.—"Do all you can to discourage the idea that there is a cut and dried platform ready for the action of the democratic convention," said Willis J. Abbat, a confidential friend of Mr. Bryan, who arrived in this city today. "I left Mr. Bryan at Lincoln last night, and after three different interviews with him, can assure you that there is nothing further from the truth than that he has a platform prepared for the convention to ratify. He is working on five resolutions, and at the right time will probably present them to the committee on platform for its consideration. He will deal especially with the subjects of injunctions, trusts, railroads, the guarantee of bank deposits and the tariff."

TRIBUNE STAFF TO DENVER Fourteen Members Pass Through Omaha on Way to Convention.

Fourteen members of the staff of the Chicago Tribune went through Omaha yesterday enroute to Denver and the democratic national convention. The newspaper men occupied a special Pullman attached to the rear of the Northwestern passenger which arrived in Omaha at 5:28, leaving a half hour later. They will occupy the car in Denver.

Those composing the party were James Keeley, managing editor; E. S. Beck, city editor; C. B. Raymond, political editor; John Callan O'Loughlin, Washington correspondent; Fred Pollett, circulation manager; C. A. Briggs, cartoonist; Harold Smith, photographer; A. S. Henning, Charles McDonald, Charles Gotthart, P. H. Kinsley and C. A. Livingston, reporters; and Paul Ende and C. F. Liffley, telegraph operators.

Mr. O'Loughlin, the Washington correspondent, has recently been appointed secretary of the American commission at the exposition to be held at Tokio, Japan, in 1912, at a salary of $5,000 a year.

Among the number of delegates will be

Theodore A. Bell, who is to be temporary chairman of the democratic convention. It is pretty well settled that Judge John E. Baker of Aurora is to be chairman of the delegation. The secretary will be John F. Murphy.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Four votes for Bryan at the democratic national convention, represented by P. Harvey, A. Herbert, W. C. McDonald and E. M. Watson of the Hawaiian delegation, reached San Francisco yesterday on the liner Alameda, enroute for Denver. The remaining two democratic delegates from the islands have already passed through this city. The entire delegation is unconditionally instructed for Bryan. Herbert will probably have the unique distinction of being the oldest delegate at the convention, for he is 75 years old and has been a resident of the islands for over forty years. The only native who will represent Hawaii at Denver is F. Harvey.

TOWNE CLAIMS BRYAN SUPPORT He Asserts Candidacy for Second Place is with Permission.

CHICAGO, July 1.—Charles A. Towne of New York arrived in Chicago last night on his way to Lincoln, Neb., where he will hold a conference with William J. Bryan this evening. Mr. Towne announced that he is a candidate for the vice presidential nomination on the democratic ticket. "I am in the race," said Mr. Towne. "Mr. Bryan, whom I consulted a few weeks ago, is favorable to my candidacy. Had he not been I would not be seeking the nomination. I will be at Lincoln tomorrow evening at Mr. Bryan's request and the subject of our conversation will be, of course, the vice presidential nomination."

Bryan Club at Peru Normal. PERU, Neb., July 1.—(Special.)—A group of young men met today and effected a temporary organization looking toward the formation of a local chapter of the Bryan Volunteers. Principal W. H. Patchin of Dakota City was elected temporary chairman, with Principal E. B. Burkey of Tolhus as temporary secretary. A committee on resolutions were appointed. Principal E. A.
