

OMAHA FULL OF DEMOCRATS

City Will Be Working Alive with Delegates on Fourth.

COOK COUNTY THE BIG NOISE

Eight Special Trains Will Pass Through the Gate City Bearing Their Burdens to Denver Convention.

Registries of Democracy. Pennsylvania Bryan League arrives at 6 a. m. over the Rock Island.

Cook County Democracy arrives at 8 a. m. over the Burlington.

Alabama and Florida delegations arrive at 8:30 a. m. over the Burlington.

West Virginia delegation arrives at 11:30 a. m. over the Rock Island.

Massachusetts delegation arrives at 1:15 p. m. over the Rock Island.

Jacksonian club leaves at 3:30 p. m. over the Burlington.

Pennsylvania delegation arrives over the Northwestern at 10:30 p. m. at the Union station.

Maryland delegation arrives over the Northwestern at 11:45 p. m. at the Union station.

South Dakota delegation arrives over the Northwestern at 12:15 a. m. Sunday at the Union station.

Eight special trains carrying democrats from the east, north and south will pass through Omaha Saturday en route to Denver and the democratic national convention.

The first train will arrive at 6 o'clock in the morning, carrying the Pennsylvania Bryan League and the last for the day will pull into Union station ten minutes after midnight with the South Dakota delegation on board.

The Dahlman Democracy and the Jacksonian club unite in extending courtesies to the delegations, both clubs having invited all democrats to meet the trains Saturday and Sunday and do all they can to make the hours or minutes spent in Omaha enjoyable.

Thomas J. Flynn, president of the Eagles has also appointed a committee to assist in the entertainment of the delegations which will pass through Omaha on the two days and John A. Rine, executive ruler of the Eagles, will appoint a similar committee from that body.

John E. Reagan is chairman of the Dahlman Democracy entertainment committee and Ed P. Smith is chairman of the Jacksonian club entertainment committee. On account of the Jacksonian club leaving Saturday afternoon for Denver it will not have the opportunity to do much in the way of entertaining the "guests within our gates," but those of the Jacks who do not go to Denver will do what they can in extending courtesies.

The Jims have bought 250 of the tri-color booster buttons, which they will pin on the coats of all delegates and have provided 1,000 Ak-Sar-Ben horns for souvenirs.

Refreshments of All Sorts. The visitors will be escorted to the several club rooms, the Jims having arranged for serving refreshments of all kinds in their rooms. Clear will be on tap in the club rooms of the Jack organization and the Elks and Eagles lodges. Some of the delegations will stop in Omaha but a short time, but those who will stay here several hours will be taken to the city hall and shown the enlarged photographs of Mayor "Jim" to the stock yards in South Omaha, the Union Pacific shops, the smelter; in fact they will be shown anything they want to see.

George F. West is chairman of the Eagle entertainment committee, the remainder of the committee being composed of W. A. Strayer, Charles E. Hulse, Fred M. Duff, J. A. Tubill, K. E. Felt, H. W. Dunn, Joseph A. Sonnenberg, Dr. M. J. Ford, Dr. W. A. Hostetter, A. Matthews, Jules Altshouse, H. Ascher, A. V. Drescher and D. W. Cannon. This committee, aside from entertaining their brother Eagles, will send the Elks, Eagles, and Knights of the lodge for the nation. Theodore A. Dell of California, has been selected temporary chairman of the convention. The Elks entertainment committee will be appointed this evening in lodge sessions.

Cook County Here Five Hours. The Cook County Democracy of Chicago, which arrives at 2 o'clock Saturday morning, will leave the Burlington, will remain in Omaha until 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The 15 members of the party, wearing long frock coats and high silk hats and carrying robed umbrellas, will march to the Paxton hotel, where they will breakfast. At 2 o'clock the delegation will arrive at the same depot a half hour later and will breakfast at the Millard. There will be 15 in the Dixie delegation.

At 3:30 in the afternoon the Jacksonian club special will pull out from the Burlington, arriving at Lincoln at 4:45. Chartered cars will take the 300 members of the party to Fairbury, where they will spend an hour at Bryan's home. Returning to Lincoln they will have supper and leave at 6:30, the schedule calling for arrival at Denver at 1:30 Sunday morning.

BASKET PICNIC ON THE FARM. Opportunity Offered to View Work of North Platte Experiment Station.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., July 3.—(Special.)—Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews and the regents of the State university were visiting at the experiment farm near this city a few days ago and made the suggestion that an annual picnic be held at the State Experiment farm. They were very much pleased with the conditions as they found them upon the farm and stated that they had not found any better crops in any other part of the state. The suggestion which was made has been adopted and a picnic will be held at the experiment station three miles south of this city on the 9th day of this month. An invitation has been extended to all the farmers of western Nebraska and all others interested in the farm. The following is the program:

Inspecting the farm and growing crops, from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Basket lunch in the grove, from 1 p. m. to 2 p. m.

At 2 p. m. there will be addresses by Hon. E. P. Brown of Lancaster county, who comes as the representative of Governor Sheldon; Dean Burnett of the State Agricultural college, Superintendent Snyder and others.

Ice cream and lemonade will be served free.

First of License Hearings End. HASTINGS, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram.)—The hearing on the first application for saloon license was completed before the city council today and attorneys for the Civic federation offered to stipulate to have the decision of the district court in the appeal of this case rule in all others without further hearings on remonstrances. Attorneys for applicants took the proposition under advisement and the council adjourned to Monday morning.

EXPRESS COMPANIES PAY FINES Failure to Make Reports According to Law is Expensive. (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 3.—(Special.)—The express companies against which suit was brought to collect penalties for not filing reports with the State Railway commission met this afternoon in the county court this afternoon and paid their fines, a total of $1,235, or $500 and costs each. The defendants were the Adams, American and United States. The action was merely civil to collect penalties for a failure to file reports as demanded by the commission and the action of the express companies is an admission that the commission law in this respect is valid.

STATE BUYS CALIFORNIA BONDS Half Million of School Money Invested by Treasurer. LINCOLN, July 3.—(Special Telegram.)—State Treasurer Brian has bought $500,000 worth of California state bonds at par to net the state a 4 per cent interest. Treasurer Brian went to California the latter part of last week, in answer to a notice that the bonds were to be sold to the highest bidder, and tonight he wired that he had secured the entire issue. The state will not pay only the traveling expenses of the treasurer, but it will save the commission of the middleman.

Bryan Club Officers. PERU, Neb., July 3.—(Special.)—The Bryan club of the Peru State normal met today in executive session and adopted a constitution and by-laws. Resolutions favorable to the candidacy of W. J. Bryan were passed unanimously and the following officers were elected:

President, W. H. Patchin, principal Dakota City schools.

Vice President, H. H. Reimund, principal Alliance high school.

Secretary, M. C. Lefter, principal Elmwood schools.

Treasurer, L. R. Hill, principal Bridgeport schools.

Sergeant-at-arms, W. S. Cook, principal Alexandria schools.

Executive committee, Earl Cline of Sidney, Superintendent C. M. Penny of Oakland, J. A. Hanna of Auburn.

Racing Opens at McCook. McCOOK, Neb., July 3.—(Special Telegram.)—The July recess of the McCook Driving Park association opened this afternoon with a large attendance and horse-racing events.

The 2:30 pace, purse $200, was won by Lightaway. She's Right second, Tom Emmet third, Una Wright fourth. Time: 2:27, 2:28, 2:29.

Free-for-all trot, purse $300: Daybreak won first, silver Star second, Jim Underwood third. Time: 2:23, 2:24, 2:25.

Dewey won the half-mile dash in 0:53, purse, $50.

Automobile, motorcycle and exhibition races conclude the day's program. Tomorrow's bill is faster.

NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY

Women Will Hold Tennis Tournament at Field Club Next Tuesday.

CLUBS WILL CELEBRATE FOURTH Golf, Dinner Parties and the Week's End Hop Will Attract Large Attendance at All of Them.

Enthusiasm among the women tennis players of Omaha has resulted in an interesting tennis tournament which will be held on the Field club courts next week beginning Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Play will begin at 3 afternoons and at 10 o'clock each morning and will be run strictly on tournament rules, and if the players fail to be on time they will be ruled out by default. So mildly will have little time to primp, but a real tennis player does not care about appearance if her game is good. Prizes will be awarded for the champion in singles and the runner up. There probably will be another tournament later in the season for doubles and mixed doubles. Several excellent players will be out of the city, including Mrs. Joseph Cudshy, Mes Jean and Helen Cudshy, who leave tonight and Mrs. E. S. Westbrook, who is at present in Yellowstone park.

Miss Faith Potter is chairman of the committee. There have been thirty entries made and several more are expected.

Celebrating the Fourth. Indications are that society will do most of its celebrating at the country club's Saturday and besides golf and the customary week's end dinner and hop there will be several extra features. The Country club will make a feature of its fireworks in the evening and some of the largest dinner parties of the season will be given there.

Luncheon Party. Mrs. G. W. Hervey entertained at luncheon Friday at her home, 113 North Fortieth street, in compliment to Mrs. Harris of Morganfield, Ky., who is the guest of Mrs. H. E. Maclean, and Mrs. Frank Holden of Kansas City, who is visiting Mrs. Macomber. The table had an effective decoration of pink roses and covers were laid for Mrs. Harris, Mrs. McCannahan, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. Macomber, Mrs. Merrick Lease, Mrs. J. F. Wagner, Mrs. A. B. Somers, Mrs. Charles Doores, Mrs. Nathaniel McGiffen, Mrs. W. F. Milroy, Mrs. R. Y. Campbell and the hostess.

For the Visiting Women. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart, 25, entertained informally at supper Friday evening at their home on Thirty-sixth street in honor of Mrs. O. T. Eastman of Evanston, Ill., who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. C. T. Kountze.

Complimentary to Miss Bevelly of Huntley, Scotland, Miss Bevelly and Miss Frances Beverly, guests of Mrs. Robert Dempster, and Miss Elizabeth Allen and Mrs. C. C. Joslyn of Minneapolis, guest of Mrs. W. J. Bradbury, Mrs. Demain, L. Welch entertained at luncheon Friday at her home on West Harney street. Covers were laid for fourteen.

At the Field Club. Mrs. Wayne G. Hempflub was hostess at a delightful bridge party Friday afternoon at the Field club given complimentary to Mrs. Charles O'Leary of Los Angeles, Cal. Between forty and fifty guests were present and luncheon was served in the middle of the afternoon, after which the game was resumed.

Parker-Spetmann. One of the prettiest of the late June was that of Miss Alvina Spetmann, daughter of the late J. H. and Mrs. Spetmann and Mr. Frederick J. Parker, which was solemnized Tuesday evening at Hillside Congregational church, Rev. J. J. Parker, father of the groom officiating—assisted by Rev. Herbert L. Mills. The church was prettily decorated with palms, and cut flowers, but the wedding and reception that followed were most simple in their details. The bride was groomed in a dainty costume of white net made princess over soft luster silk and trimmed with Valenciennes lace. She carried a shower of white sweet peas. Mrs. Herbert Mills, sister of the bride, attended her as matron of honor. She, too, was groomed in white net with lace trimmings and carried a shower of daisies.

Little Master Donald Reed Head, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer carrying the ring in an American beauty rose. Mr. Parker was unattended. An informal reception for the immediate relatives followed the ceremony at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert L. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, leaving later for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home at Thirty-third and Martha streets.

Children's Party. For her little daughter, Josephine Platner, Mrs. George W. Platner entertained at the Field club Friday afternoon. The time was pleasantly spent with games and those present were little Misses Mary Gifford, Dorothy, Norton, Arlene Abbott, Merrick Abbott, Margaret Reynolds, Margaret Getten, Julia Getten, Gladys Nichols, Evelyn Ledwith, Winifred Brandt, Esther Wigman, Charlotte Burrell, Katherine Hastings, Katherine Gass, Dorothy Hipple, Mildred Swanson, Elsie Schmidt, Isabel Vinsonhaer, Lillian Head and Josephine Platner.

Mrs. Samuel J. Potter entertained a bridge club of which she is a member. Friday afternoon at the Field club at luncheon. The twelve members of the club were present and bridge was played after luncheon.

Martin-Smithson. The marriage of Miss Sallie Will Smithson, daughter of Mrs. Alma D. Smithson and Mr. Robertson C. Martin was solemnized Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, 515 Park avenue, only a few of the immediate relatives being present. Rev. T. J. Mackay was the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Martin have gone for a wedding trip through the west and will be at home in Omaha after August 1.

Birthday Party. In celebration of the birthday of their daughter, Miss Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Wolf entertained Tuesday evening at their home, 324 Ames avenue. Music and games contributed to an altogether enjoyable occasion. The young people present were Misses Martha Moss, Ollie Brain, Jessie Brain, Jessie Magarrell, Fillionwarth, Lila Campbell, Westerfield, Fulton, Wilhelmina Fulton, Alice Redden, Louise Valentine, Maky Quigley, Maude Clary, Edith Baldwin, Murphy, Wood, Messrs T.
