

James Monroe
Fifth President of the United States

It was in the Hall of Oratory, William and Mary College, 1776. Patrick Henry stood on the platform; eloquently, passionately, convincingly he spoke of human rights, constitutional guarantees, Personal Liberty.

A young student, tall and blonde, with eyes of blue and heart of fire, listened intently. Tossing aside cap and gown, he buckled on his sword, saying, "Words are good; deeds are better."

At Harlem, White Plains and Brandywine, he fought bravely; and on a bitter cold Christmas morning his blood splashed the frozen paving stones of old Trenton Town.

Step by step he rose to power; and today his name is inseparably associated with the most significant international Doctrine of modern times.

At three score and fourteen he died—a true Virginia gentleman—the descendant of an old family of Scottish Cavaliers—and at his hospitable home at Oak Hill, good ale was brewed and ever on his board.

FLAT FEE SYSTEM AT COURT

Reform Advocated as Means of Rescuing Records from Chaos.

EFFECT OF SUPREME DECISION

District Clerk Smith and Attorneys Favor a Complete Change and the Adoption of the Illinois Plan.

In order to rescue the records of the district court from the chaos caused by the recent decision of the supreme court in the test case, District Clerk Smith and a number of attorneys favor a complete change in the fee system as it applies to the court. They advocate the adoption of the flat fee system in use in Illinois and some other states. Under this plan a litigant pays a flat fee at the beginning of the case and the case covers all the costs, whether the case is long-drawn-out or is quickly disposed of. Under the present plan, the district clerk makes a charge for each specific service performed.

The supreme court in the test case in effect decided that the clerk is in duty bound to collect a fee in advance for recording orders, decrees and judgments of the court, and that the district clerk cannot compel the clerk to record a judgment or decree on the journal or make a complete record in a case finally disposed of without payment of the fees for the service or without good security for the costs.

Heretofore it has been the custom to make a complete record of the proceedings of the court from day to day, recording in the journal all orders made on the docket by the judges. This will all be changed now and under the new decision only such orders will be entered as are paid for by the litigants. If the court enters a judgment in a case no record will be made of it in the district clerk's office until the interested litigant pays the fee for recording it. Without this entry there will be no official record of what has been done in those cases where the recording fees are not paid.

Record of Cash Only.
Under this plan the court journal, instead of being a complete record of the acts of the court, will be a complete record of cases only in which the costs have been paid. It will be necessary for litigants to see to it that their costs are kept fully paid up. Under the rule the advance fee will probably become more popular than it was when it was introduced.

The new rule will mean a large saving for the county, as thousands of dollars have been earned and uncollected in years past. Now there will be no unpaid costs at the end of every month, and the work of the clerk will have to be paid for in advance.

"Under the decision of the court we can do nothing else but refuse to record orders of the court until the fees are paid," said District Clerk Smith, discussing the decision. "This will result in considerable confusion arising out of unrecorded orders of the court, but it cannot be helped. In order to lessen the confusion we ask that attorneys co-operate with us in seeing the fees are kept paid up far enough in advance to cover the recording of court orders."

NEW WAY TO TRAP OUTLAWS

Bankers and Hotel Men to Co-Operate Toward Apprehension of Culprits.

Arrangement has been made with the Nebraska Bankers' association whereby the hotel clerks' organization will receive promptly the names and descriptions of forgers, swindlers and other recent individuals operating in this vicinity. This announcement was made Monday night at the meeting of the Nebraska Hotel Clerks' association, which was held at the Henshaw hotel. The meeting was the largest attended of any held for some months. No indebtedness with a cash balance was the report made by Treasurer Joe Keenan.

Chief Clerk Harvey Foote of the Hotel Loyal was admitted into membership and invited the members to meet at the head hotel at some future date. Secretary F. E. Pates was selected to represent the organization at the annual convention at Deadwood in August.

Bankers of Nebraska will not organize a mutual burglary insurance company, as the Nebraska Bankers' association has refused the subscriptions received.

A letter giving notice of the failure of the plan to enlist enough enthusiasm to make it a go has been sent to the bankers of the state by W. H. Hughes, secretary. In part it reads as follows:

"For many of our bankers held back to see if enough banks would subscribe. A thing of this kind needs enthusiastic support from everyone. Our subscription blank plainly stated that it was not binding until at least 600 did subscribe the necessary amount, but they seemed to take this point while so many were waiting for each other to act the subscription list lagged, so the plan has to be dropped. If you had had a good chance to set our burglary insurance and bonds for almost nothing. Too bad."

TOP NOTCH FOR BEEF STOCK

Eight Dollars and Ten Cents Per Hundred Paid for Cattle, Highest in 12 Years.

When Joe Lommers of Stanton sold four carloads of cattle averaging 1,572 pounds each to Swift & Co. Tuesday morning for $1.10 per hundred, the highest price paid for cattle at any Missouri river market since 1895 was received at the Omaha market.

The cattle were the white-faced Herefords and have been finished on a corn and alfalfa ration. Mr. Lommers bought them last November for $4.00 per hundred and they weighed on the average of 1,150 each when put in the feed lot, thus showing an average gain of 400 pounds each. The cattle were shipped to Cox-Jones Commission company and while better than anything in the market Tuesday Swift & Co. got many carloads Tuesday at a good price, paying the highest for the Stanton cattle.

While the cattle were selling for $1.10 per hundred weight on the hoof the packers posted a new schedule of wholesale prices on beef cuts and stated that the prices were apt to change any hour and go either higher or lower. The following are the prices asked at wholesale for the beef cuts Tuesday: No. 1 ribs, 10c; No. 2 ribs, 14c; No. 3 ribs, 12c; No. 1 loins, 18c; No. 2 loins, 17c; No. 3 loins, 15c; No. 1 chuck, 5c; No. 2 chuck, 4c; No. 3 chuck, 3c; No. 1 round, 12c; No. 2 round, 11c; No. 3 round, 10c.

HOUSE FLOATS DOWN RIVER

That is What Obstructs Telephone Service Between Omaha and Lincoln.

A house floated down the Platte river near Ashland Tuesday morning and broke every circuit in that vicinity of the Nebraska Telephone company and for a time interrupted service between Omaha and Lincoln and other towns. But the company made a strenuous effort and had the wires repaired within a little more than an hour.

"Our wires got through the flood of Monday night," said General Manager Bell of the Nebraska Telephone company, "and we began to congratulate ourselves when the news of the accident at Ashland reached us. Such a thing as a house floating down the river is not one of the troubles a telephone company ordinarily has to look out for."

CENSUS FOR THE GOVERNMENT

Statistics Will Be Gathered in Omaha by Colonel C. F. Gooding of Washington.

Colonel C. F. Gooding of the census bureau, Washington, arrived Tuesday to begin the taking of statistics of the municipality of Omaha, one of the 30 cities of the third class in the United States. The colonel expects it will take him nearly one month to prepare the statistics. This is the first time he has been in Omaha, though he has been connected with the census bureau a number of years.

"We gather statistics on every branch of the municipality," says Colonel Gooding. "These statistics will include the finances of the city, the amount of the income from taxes and the cost of the various departments which include the city government, the maintenance of the schools, the parks and the library. We will get the number of public parks and the area covered and the number of books in the public library. The number of men on the police force and the manner in which they are handled and the number of arrests made, together with the number of fires during the year and the damage done also will be covered. The mileage of paved streets and of permanent sidewalks and the cost of maintenance, the cost of street sweeping and sprinkling, the disposal of garbage, the work of the health department and the charitable associations and everything of this character will be included in the report."

Last year's report has just been made public at Washington. The report for this year will not be accessible until next June.

Chairman Kemard announced that the board considered it would be "unwisely" to take action so soon after the death of Mr. Davis and that action would be deferred until the next meeting, to be held Saturday.

Among the applicants are Willis C. Crosby, Grant Leelle, James Buel, O. S. Hulse, A. L. Jackson, W. M. McKay and George H. Brewer of South Omaha.

GOVERNOR'S NIGHT AT THE DEN

Negotiations Are On for Sheldon to Fix Date for Appearance with Military Staff.

The Ak-Sar-Ben board of governors is trying to arrange for "governor's night" at the den, having submitted to Governor Sheldon the dates of July 12, 20 and 27, for him to select the one which is most convenient to him. Governor Sheldon has been urged to bring with him his entire military staff, particularly to give two of his Omaha colonels, who have never displayed themselves in their regimentals, an opportunity to show off. The governor and his war aides are to be tendered a dinner previous to their initiation as guests of the Omaha members of the staff.

WHERE "OUR DAVE" FELL DOWN
He Was Planning Moves on Judicial Checkboard to Get Court of Claims Job.

"Did you notice the item in the dispatches about the retirement of Judge Lochren of Minnesota and the appointment of Milton G. Purdy to take his place on the federal bench? That is another place where 'Our Dave' has failed to connect," remarked a man who brought his information from Washington. "Ex-Congressman Mercer's wife is a niece of Judge Lochren and Mercer came to members of the Nebraska delegation in congress not long ago with the representation that this resignation was in sight, but subject to his control. He had a scheme by which the resignation was to be pulled off, dependent upon the appointment to the place thus vacated of one of the present judges of the court of claims, and further conditioned on the appointment of Mercer to the proposed vacancy on the court of claims. What Mercer wanted was the endorsement and active support of the Nebraska delegation for the appointment of Purdy in his place. I don't know what encouragement he got, but the announcement of the Purdy nomination evidently means that Dave fell down."
