

BRYAN GREATLY PLEASED

Visibly Affected by News of the Demonstration at Denver.

SAYS DEMOCRATS GOOD TO HIM

Takes Time Enough Off from Politics to Cerve the Big Texas Watermelon and Divide it with His Guests.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., July 8.—(Special Telegram.)—W. J. Bryan never in his life probably showed more emotion upon the receipt of political news than he did when the story of the demonstration for him at Denver was flashed over the wires to Fairview. This news came after a particularly quiet and uninteresting day.

"The democrats have been good to me," he said with deep emotion in his voice, "and I cannot find words with which to express my appreciation of what this demonstration means."

Mr. Bryan's voice was husky when he gave out the expression and he evidenced in every way his deep feeling in the matter. This demonstration, showing the absolute control of the convention by Bryan, probably answers the question whether he will go to Denver. It is figured here that he will go only upon the urgent demand of the convention that he come to it rather than the convention come to him at Fairview.

When the demonstration began Mr. Bryan and a dozen newspaper men, Robert P. Rose, who is Mr. Bryan's secretary, and the telegrapher on the bulletin board, occupied the end room as the glass enclosed porch is properly called. Five minutes, ten minutes passed with the wire clicking off details of the scene. The candidate, in alpaca dress coat and vest, smiled quietly at the news, but left comments to his visitors.

"You wouldn't think so if you were here," exclaimed Arthur English, a West Virginian, who is an old friend of the Nebraskan, and had just returned from Denver to his office in another part of the house.

READY TO FIGHT ON FLOOR

Immediately Steps Were Taken to Carry the Contest to the Floor of the Convention, and Guffey Issued the Following Formal Protest.

Pennsylvania's delegates came to this convention, elected under the statutes of Pennsylvania, their election being certified not alone by the commissioners of the district, but by the secretary of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Notwithstanding all this regularity, the temporary chairman of the national committee refused to permit Pennsylvania's delegation to take part in the deliberations of the convention or its committees, thereby disfranchising the sovereignty of a great state.

ROADS COMING OUT OF WATER

Railways Are Gradually Regaining Their Tracks in the Flooded District.

The Rock Island had its road to Denver open Tuesday night. The only place where the through line was blocked was on each side of Lincoln and to avoid these spots trains were run over the Union Pacific from Denver to Omaha and via Kansas City.

One crew in a Northwestern caboose at Lincoln was rescued with a boat after having been confined in the car for twelve hours.

The Northwestern turntable for engine at Lincoln was lifted from the pit by two water Sunday night and deposited five blocks away.

The water was running into the window of cabooses in the railroad yards at Lincoln.

At one of the towns south of Lincoln on the Blue a box car was seen standing on end in the water.

The Burlington is detouring all trains via Greapolis from Ashland to Omaha, as Sal creek is still so high it is not considered safe to cross at Ashland.
