Before going away on your vacation trip

Make an appointment with us to discuss—at your convenience—plans for your next advertising campaign.
While you are fishing, sailing, resting, let us sweat over plans for your consideration upon your return.
Our service in advertising embraces more than the preparation of copy. It starts with a close analysis of your business and the conditions surrounding it; it works upon a definite plan; it ties together the "publicity" end and the sales end of your business, making them ONE; it counts big for results because every dollar spent in it is spent with a definite aim.
We should like to show YOU in what our "Special Service" consists. The best way to show you is to outline a campaign for YOUR business. May we talk it over with you?
