Hollenbeck and Jackson Both Go Up in the Air. FORMER GOES BAD IN EIGHTH

Jackson, Substituted for Him, Allows Three Hits and Three Runs in Ninth, Cinching Game for Lincolnites.

Qmaha, 5; Lincoln, 7. Hollenbeck blew up in the eighth inning and Jackson blew up in the ninth and went higher than Hollenbeck, and Lincoln annexed the game by the score of 7 to after Omaha apparenty had things all to the good. But they only looked good and were really very sandpapery.

Hellbroner of the Cinci team was still Chabek, p on hand and said that made the players a little pervous. Stanley Robinson, the millionaire owner of the St. Louis Nationals was also in the stand and that made them all the more nervous, because of course, all the players thought these scouts were looking at them especially.

Hollenbeck started to handle the Greenbackers oute handily and continued for seven innings, allowing but four hits during that time, but in the fatal eighth he thought it was time for his calloon to go up and it went according to schedule. He the frouble started. Gagnier had got sore at himself for making an error and refused to "play any more." That was what wore the game for Lincoln. Sullivan was sent to bat in his stead and made a clean single. Hollenbeck then could not put the ball over and passed the next two, when he was excused from further service for the day.

There came Mr. Jacks. score stood 5 to 2 in favor of Omaha when Des Moines

Then came Mr. Jackson and it was with difficulty he could find the plate. He finally put one where Davidson could reach it. Dave knocked it to Austin, who booted it around until Sully had scored. Thomas hit a long fly to Welch and Jude scored. That made two for the inning, and Omaha was still one run to the good. was still one run to the good.

The minth inning fixed the game good and plenty. Fox led off with a single, and Sullivan struck out. Jude was passed and Fenion came to bat. Jackson showed remarkably poor judgment on Fenlon, for after he had two strikes on him and no balls, he put the next one over the pan, waist high instead of wasting the ball and Chicken with a triple. That was the end of Zackert. He retired in favor of Bushelman, a new recruit from Springfield. Bushelman was wild as wild fire at first and about his first stunt was to pitch a wild ball, on which Autrey scored. A double steal by Austin and Franck, and Gagpier's error in the remainder of that inning did not help, as Bellen flew out t

Jude. Omaha made one more in the fifth and one in the sixth, but after Lincoln had braced, the Greenbackers took no chances on the recurit, Bushelman, but called the veteran, Jones, into the game and he held things safe until the finish.

The benefit for Graham ill be played by the Omaha and Lincoln teams this afternoon at Vinton street park.

DENVER WINS FROM BOOSTERS Chahek in Good Form and Holds the Game Safe.

DENVER, Colo., July 14.—Light hitting by Des Moines, showing that Chabek was in form, and long hits by Denver just when they were needed decided the game today. Bomar was taken out before any consecutive litting had been done against him, this emptain seeming to think he was fattering. Though the game seemed slow and dragging, the fielding was sharp and generally clean, the errors made coming when they were not costly. No features marked the contest. Tomorrow Des. Contracts Let for Construction of Addition to the Farnam Street School and Repairs to

The buildings and property committee recommends that a new wing to correspond with the east wing of the high school building be erected on the south side of the old building and that the work on the same be commenced at the earlist time processes. practicable.

Other Buildings,

By the adoption of the above resolution the Board of Education last evening took score was 14. Hession, also an American, the first definite steps toward relieving the congested conditions in the high school building and the fuffilling of the pledge to the people when school bonds were voted that a portion of the funds would be used for the enlarging of the high school facilities, Considerable argument preceded the taking of the vote and Members Me-Cague and Kuhns voted against the propodition for the reason that they believed a eparate high school building should be rected on the north side instead of enarging the present structure. Mr. McCague led the fight for a separate illding contending that there was danger that the central school would become unwas won easily by England, which walked wieldy and that better work could be done

"The Central high school building today is the fifth largest school in the United heat of the three-mile team race, was com- States, and if we add the proposed wings will be the largest in the nation," said Mr. McCague, "We must sooner or later erect a high school building on the north side and possibly another on the south side, we can never accommodate all in the one building. The board is now engaged in the construction of three large ward school ouildings, two annexes and has tonight aken steps for the construction of a third innex. We are not ready with the finances, the bonds have not been sold and the bonds were voted for high school purposes,' not for a wing to the Central school." Member Christie, who brought in the report of the buildings and property committee, stated emphatically that there is not enough room in the present building, that more room is necessary, that the money has been voted for the construction of the addition and that no delay need be occastoned. Not Room Enough Now.

Superintendent Davidson was called an and stated that the room in the present building is not sufficient to comfortably and satisfactorily take care of the children now, and that conditions will become worse rather than better in the future. The present building accommodates 1,900 children, the new wing would make room for 400 more. The superintendent stated, however, that a north side school building must be built some time.
