IRELAND IN ON CORN SHOW

Farmers from Auld Sod Will Send Exhibits to Omaha,

SIR HORACE PLUNKETT DOES IT

Owner of Much Real Estate in This City Institutes Movement to Patronise the Big Exposition.

Among the foreign exhibits which are coming to the National Corn exposition in December will be one from Ireland, where Sir Horace Curzon Plunkett is leading the great work for improving the conditions of the Emerald Isle by assisting the rural population to grow more and better

Sir Horace Plunkett is an extensive owner of Omaha city property and has always been interested in everything which has worked to the upbuilding of the city and the great country beyond the Missouri, as he is likewise an owner and represents others in holdings in Wyoming.

The work done by Bir Horace for Ireland is praised on two continents, and he will be invited to the National Corn exposition and asked to send or bring any interesting exhibits which may be the result of his work, though the management has the promise of seed, men in various parts of the country that Irish exhibits will be made by their customers in the Emerald

Writing of the work of Bir Horace Plunkett, Walter H. Page, editor of 'World's Work," said recently:

"The great economic change that is taking place in Ireland, under the leadership of Sir Horaca Plunkett, is suggestive. There the rural population is poor. It had a long period of discontent made desperate at times by famine and always made worse by political conditions and agitation. Yet this dense population on a poor soil is undergoing such economic organization as to promise a revolution in method and in efficiency. Co-operation is taking the place of grievance as an Irish exercise and occupation. The difference between a manwhose business pays and a man whose business does not pay is immeasurable. In Denmark, too, there is such an admirable system of rural organization, of co-operation, and of instruction that all the world may learn lessons from that coun-

EZRA GIVES ANOTHER TIP

King Sends Communication Direct from United States, Heaven, on Governmental Affairs.

At precisely seven minutes past 10 o'clock Thursday morning, a second message was received in The Bee office from Ezra, the

Who is Ezra? Who was mighty Zeus? Where is Ezra's abode? Where was Mount Olympus? These questions are unanswerable, esoteric, velled from puny human understand-Ezra, the King, has chosen The Bee as the interpreter o fhis words, the Delphic oracle of Egra. Once hitherto he spake unto the people. That was several months ago. He then wrote a letter. The postmark showed it was mailed in Council Bluffs. But it was dated "United States, Heaven." The latest communication received at 10:07 a. m. Thursday, is written upon a common postal card. It is dated "United States, Heaven, 58.7.10". But the postmark shows it was mailed at Keckuk, Ia., United States of America

These details, however, are unimportant The communication bears the regal signature and the base clef, which is placed by Ezra upon all his cryptographs.

Before proceeding to the message itself, a study of the mystic figures is of interest . 58.7.10. It will be seen by the careful arithmetician that if four times the second figure is subtracted from the first figure the remainder is precisely three times the third figure. Also if four times the second figure is added to three times the third figure the sum is the first figure. Now, if the second and third figures are added and multiplied by four the sum is aixty-eight-precisely ten more than the first figure. All this is remarkable, though what the meaning of the figures is no one but Ezra, the King, knows and he won't tell. But the message reads:

It seems that a government of lawyers is too smart for the Lord. We will get the Devil to help us.

At first glance the reader must feel the hopelessness of getting at the thought of Ezra. Such was the feeling of the first men who deciphered the heiroglyphics of Egypt. But when one contemplates Ezragram for a moment it becomes clear as Contemplating mundane affairs from his seat in Heaven (or Keokuk), Ezra is eviseat in Heaven (or Keokuk), Ezra is evidently dissatisfied and his choler is di- OVERLAND HITS THE TOP rected against the lawyers.

But why? The postmark on Ezra's card gives a sure clue. It is dated July 13. The Union Pacific Makes New Record for Since that meeting the speculators have figure immediately strikes the careful observer. It is unlucky. Yes, and it is precisely the date on which several of the largest delegations from the Denver con- PAYS TEN PER CENT DIVIDEND watched in vain. The Union Pacific has vention passed near Keokuk. At once one gets the inspiration of Exra's cryptic utterance. A "government of lawyers," no doubt refers to the present congress which contains a large majority of lawyers. The information Exra had just received from Denver regarding his party, explains the meaning of his last sentence. "We will get the Devil to help us."

True, this is not respectful language. But, interpreted, no one will take offense at it. though written not on golden tablets but only on paper, very common paper, are the common stock of is per cent. Although by another that the business to the park preserved faithfully.

Mr. Green was born in Andrew county, Missouri, on a farm four miles north of St. Joseph, in 1887, and came to Omaha $2,615,000 on Illinois Central, Atchison and nearly thirty years ago. During his residence here he had been employed on the police force, at one time holding the position of captain, and was later depotmaster of the old Union passenger station. He entered the real estate and loan business nearly twenty-five years ago, which he has conducted continually since.

He is survived by his widow, Marguerite a sister, Mrs. W. R. Davis of Omaha and two brothers, Alexander D. Green of Chicare and George D. Green of Texas. Mr. Green was a member of the Modern Woodman of America and the Knights of Columbus. Funeral arrangements are deferred until the brothers are heard from.
