DENVER, July 16.—For five innings McKay held Denver so safe the players appeared like infants in his hands. Then Corbett, pitcher formerly of Sloux City, secured a hit, and Waldron, to the surprise
of all, batted a home run over Andreas
head, and the game was practically over.
Good hitting by Denver in the seventh, including a two-bagger by Corbett, added
two more, and poor playing by Sloux City
in the sighth permitted two more runs.
Sloux City's lone run came in the first on hits by Holmes and Green and an error
by Kimheally. Corbett's datch of a bunt fly in the fifth, doubling a player at sec-Ended. ond, was a feature of the fielding. Dickerson, a local sporting writer, umpired, and was fortunate in having few close decisions. The game was almost devoid of kicking. Denver has Kelly of Michigan to try to show the way the wind is liable to

CITY LEAGUE IS TO GO THROUGH

The Benson and the Dietz association teams declared their intention of withdrawing from the league immediately. After considerable parleying they were induced to remain in the league until their places are filled by other teams. There was some talk of taking in the Bignal Corps team of Fort Omaha. It was also suggested that the Ideal Hustlers of Council Bignis be given a piace. A double-header will be played at the Dietz park Sunday, when the Dietz association team will play the Merchants, and the Dietz Lumber company will clash with the Stock Yards' team of South Omaha. The Sterlings will play the Townsends at Benson and the Benson team plays Florence at the latter's grounds.

NATURE STUDENTS RAID FISH

to Cut-Off Lake.

Fish at Cut-Off lake were given a scarz Thursday. In the early morning the look-out fish saw a score of boys approaching laden with fish hooks and fishworms, with which to lure the members of the finny tribe from the lake. The nature study class of the Young Menis Christian association made a change from hunting bugs and butterfiles and trees and Thursday started after fish. Before daylight in different sections of the city small boys might have been seen digging for worms to use for bait. Professor Barker, as usual, accompanied the boys and besides catching fish for study he gave the boys all a swimming lesson in the lake. Cut-Off lake is proving quite an attraction for swiramers, the high water being above the weeds at present. Wednesday several of the boys swam across the take and back at its widest part mear the Omaha Rod and Gun club grounds.

Down to the Semi-Finals in the Western Tournament on the Arcenal Links-Good Galleries Watch Matches.

DAVENPORT, Is., July 16 .- (Special Telegram.)-Playing a thirty-seventh hole in bogey, Captain John D. Cady of the Rock Island Arsenal Gelf club followed his feat of extinguishing Chandler Egan's chances for the western championship by today eliminating from the race A. B. Lambert of St. Louis. It was the only close match of the third round of the western tournament, although not by any means the only good golf. Paul Hunter, the best bet for the championship, and only a kid at that, defeated Rev. Paul R. Talbot of Wichita, Kan., 8 up 8 to play. H. W. Allen of St. Louis won with 6 and 5 from L. A. Collander of Peoria and Mason E. Phelps won from his young Midlothian clubmate. Donald Edwards, 7 and 6.

The Cady-Lambert match was followed by a large gallery and was a seesaw all through, the players ending the morning all square and entering upon the afternoon round followed by the largest gallery of the tournament. On the sixth hole Cady put down a twenty-yard putt from all the green and he and Lambert broke the local record by both holling the eighth in two, Cady running down a forty-foot putt and Lambert putting about ten feet from his lie after a very accurate drive. They were even up on the turn and seesawed to the seventeenth, where Lambert was dormy 1 His drive sliced into the bushes and Cady squared the match on the home green and won the thirty-seventh hole.
