I appreciate much the hospitality stranger, within your gates, to come and take part in this interesting ceremony. "We have come up into this beautiful valley for health and rest. We are getting a treat deal of inspiration, those of us who have come into it for the pure air. Some of us haven't taken the waters as yet. I have not felt the necessity, on the score of health, to do that, although I am bound Het Springs have suggested. If then I were to embrace the opportunity and take the waters and find out more sins of the body than I supposed 1 have, with a fatal result, I should be liks the gentleman of whom Dr. Hill of the Methodist church told me the other day. He had been working very hard one night, speaking to an audience. He came the house where he was a guest and asked whether he might not have some lunch. The good lady said that she had no: anything except a mince pie. 'Well,' he said, 'I will try that.' It was good and he tried it. But about the middle of the night he waked up with acute indigestion. Dectors were called in. The case was very dangerous, so dangerous indeed that the cost is advised the lady that she must Lill her guest that he must be prepared to meet h's end. She said to him, 'you are not afraid to die?' 'Oh, no,' he said. 'I am not afraid to die, but I am ashamed to dis under these circumstances.' Instead of the waters I have been taking the pure air of this valley.

More Pay for Judges.

"We are here today for a function, the cirdication of what is certainly a beautiful court house. I am reminded as I look at this court house of a letter which Mr. Justice Jackson of the supreme court, wrote to Secretary Hoar, the chairman of the judiciary committee, with reference to what I am sure my friend Judge Jackson will have an interest in, the salaries of the judges. Eaid he: 'My dear senator, as I go about from city to city and come into these beautiful federal court houses 1 think that the policy of the United States government may be described as erecting magnificent temples to justice and starving the high priests.' I don't know about the judicial salaries in Virginia, but if this he a hint that shall lead in any way to the raising of the compensation of hard working judges, I shall have done something worthy of the day.

"This scene today to anyone who looks at it in a comparison with other countries, suggests the blessing of a free government. Those who have had any experience with other countries will realize that in many of them the government means to the people an entity different from themselves, something in a sense antagonistic to them. It has a different personally and the feeling with respect to it generally among the people is that the overnment has the power and must look after liself. In such countries among the people there is an absence of a sense of reaponeibility as to what is done by the Labor Committee in Chicago Reports Parks Are Using Nonunion Goods.

CHICAGO, July 20.-Reports from committees of the Chicago Federation of Labor last evening relative to amusement parks and excursion steamers show that the man with a strict union conscience has few chances of enjoying himself here. One park that has union walters was found to have nonunion bread and in other parks where the bread was all right the beer was wrong. It was found that there is not a strictly union amusement park in the city. A communication to all the unions in the city was decided upon, showing the degree to which the amusement parks are offending organized labor.
