JIM FILES FOR GOVERNOR

Dahlman's Action is Disappointment to A. C. Shallenberger.

ALMA MAN WANTED FREE SWAY

Said that Either He or Dahlman Could Beat Berge, but Both Running Will Divide Support for Berge.

The die is cast.
James Dahlman, mayor of Omaha, has filed as a democratic candidate for the nomination for governor of Nebraska.
The filing was made Friday morning. Mr.
Dahlman announced that he would name his first address as a gubernatorial candidate this evening at the organization of a Bryan-Dahlman club among the democrats of the Eighth ward, at Twentieth and Cumings streets, where Joe Butler holds the title of king, though the "real thing" in the way of a campaign will not open until about August 15.

"I haven't taken a trip the first week in August and will not get into the swing of the campaign until after then," said the mayor. "I will open my headquarters at once, though I expect to open my headquarters in the club rooms of the Dahlman Democracy."

A. C. Shallenberger, "the duke of Alma," called on the mayor Friday morning and seemed to be somewhat startled to find that Mr. Dahlman had already filed for governor. "The Alma man has been hoping against hope that the mayor would not be the same people, and with both of us in the race, our forces will be divided against Mr. Dahlman and I have pledged from Mr. Berge," said Shallenberger. "Either one of us could secure the nomination,

Mrs. J. H. Butler was hostess at a delightful morning bridge luncheon Friday given for her niece, Miss Sue Brown of Gallatin, Tenn. The rooms were profusely decorated with garden flowers, and Mrs.
Butler was assisted by Mrs. D. M. Vinsonbauer. The guests included Miss Sue Brown, Miss Kincaid of Kansas City, Miss Amy Gilmore, Miss Shepherd of Kansas City, Miss Elizabeth Congdon, Miss Caro-

For Mrs. Harris.
Mrs. H. M. McClannan entertained at bridge luncheon Thursday at the Field club for her guest, Mrs. Harris of Morganfield, Ky. The guests were seated at two long tables for luncheon, one table having decoration of purple asters and the other of yellow roses. Covers were laid for Mrs.
Harris, Mrs. F. W. Judson, Mrs. W. B.
Durker, Mrs. Millard Funkhouser, Mrs.

and Mrs. Fred Pearce. At the children's table, which was decorated with sweet peas, were seated Margaret Gambie, Elizabeth Harris and Marion Brandt.

Garden Party.
Mrs. George B. Welty and Mrs. Alfred Reimer entertained an informal garden party Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Welty, at Thirty-eighth and Chicago streets, in compliment to Mrs. Irving Eddy of Chicago. The afternoon was spent on the lawn with guests, refreshments being served later. The guests were all former friends of Mrs. Eddy and included Miss Margaret Hamilton, Mrs. F. J. Adams, Mrs.
Charles Goss, Miss Lela Hamilton, Mrs.

COOLEY SCORNS THE CHARGE

Says He Never Was Counsel, as Hundred Dollars Did Not Come.

JACKSON GETS YEAR AND A HALF

Judge Sears Takes Under Advisement the Case Against Cooley in District Court.

After the first hearing of the disbarment proceedings in district court against "Judge" Julius S. Cooley, in which Mr.
Cooley said he had never become counsel for Landing Jackson, the colored man who accused him of irregularity for the reason that his required fee of $500 was never paid, Judge Sears sentenced Jackson to one and one-half years in the penitentiary for slashing "Doc" Stewart with a razor. He was convicted May 26.

With imperial dignity "Judge" Cooley replied the charge that he offered to get a light sentence for Jackson, if Jackson would give him $25. He said on the contrary he had always sought to inspire in the minds of his clients a lofty respect for the honor of the bench, the bar and even justice and that he had been long associated with the great light lights of this country to so far forget himself as to tamper with a client thus.

The first session Friday morning considered largely of a lively dispute between Cooley and Jackson. Jackson asserted on the witness stand that, as he stated before when he was being tried for a cutting scrape, the "Judge" offered to use his "influence" with the court and get him off with a light sentence.

Mr. Cooley presented his first witness in the person of his wife, Mrs. Catharine Cooley and while she testified he made a desperate effort to conduct her examination and to manage his 8 month's old daughter, serving at the same time in the capacity of defendant, attorney for the defense and nurse-maid-in-ordinary.
Mrs. Cooley related how Jackson had sent his wife to the Cooley home and authorized her to send to a sister in Missouri for $100 retainer fee, and that the receipt of this fee was supposed to make Mr. Cooley, Jackson's attorney. The money never came, however, and the "Judge" refused to take the case.

The court took the matter under advisement, and an affidavit will be taken from Mrs. Jackson. If the decision is against Cooley, he will be disbarred in Douglas county by formal proceedings. As his own lawyer, however, Mr. Cooley says that this is quite impossible.

S.S.S. FOR BAD BLOOD

When bad blood is caused from an infection of the circulation by the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, it usually shows in the form of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots on the body, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. These general symptoms, affecting all parts of the body, show how deeply poisoned the blood becomes, and emphasizes the dangerous character of the trouble. If allowed to remain in the system the disease will finally wreck the health and break down the strongest constitution. No medicine can cure Contagious Blood Poison which does not rid the circulation of every particle of the virus. S. S. S. is the one real and certain cure; it goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, and by removing every trace of the poison, and adding rich, healthful qualities to the blood, forever cures this powerful disorder. S. S. S. is the most reliable of all blood purifiers, and its concentrated ingredients of healthful vegetable extracts and juices especially adapt it to curing this insidious trouble. Write for our home treatment book, which is a valuable aid in the treatment of the different stages of the disease, and ask for any medical advice you wish. No charge for either.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

In fact, in most cases one dose is sufficient. It never fails and can be relied upon in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is equally valuable for children and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year. In the world's history no medicine has ever met with greater success. Price 25 cents. Large size 50 cents.
