SANDERS PITCHES FINE BALL

Iwo Denver Pitchern Allow Fifteen Hits--Like Taking Saccharine Lumps from an Infant.

Omana 10: Denver, 3. The champions simply romped away the first game of the Denver series resterday afternoon and made the poor Mountaineers believe for the time being that they must have struck some team which completely outclassed them, irwin and his pals were buffeted at all parts of the game. All the members of the tourke family except Sanders fattened their batting averages to the tune of fifteen hits which, combined with six errors, put quite a bunch of runners on the bases. Corbett led for Denver, but it was soon seen that he was not there with anything the Champs were not on to and at the end of the fourth inning, after eight luta and been made in four innings, he was exrused and Pat Bohannon was trotted out. Pat was good natured as usual, but in spite of the fact the runs were not needed after he went in the Champs lambasted him for seven there hits.

Sanders had another of his splendid days and while the Rourkes were anocking the ball around the lot he refused to weaken or He down for an instant but rather held them safe all the way through and allowed but four hits, one of which was Waldron's three sacker, which came at the most opportune time for the visitors when there were two on bases. Kinnearly had beaten out his second bunt in the fifth inning and Corbett hit a clean one when Waldron lined a scorcher to the middle right fence. He scored himself when Franck juggled Lovett's liner. That was all the scoring done by Denver as Sanders bad perfect control and kept them popping the ball in the air. He did not pass a man nor hit a man and allowed but four hits.

Two Now Mountaineers.

Two new players have joined the Mountaineers since their last visit to Omaha, Lovett in left and Oom Paul Krueger at second. Krueger is the old St. Louis and Pittsburg player who is slowing up considerably. Neither did any remarkable atunts in the game Tuesday. Two Now Mountaineers, although Krueger made two errors.

LeBrand caught the game as Gonding 'eft yesterday for Kentucky, where his sister is, very iii. Pa had Claire, the catcher of the original team, in uniform, so that he might be pressed into service ers' in case of accident to LeBrand.

After Denver had been blanked in the first inning the Champs made a run before Denver knew what was going on cushions. Score, first game: Fisher hit a slow one to Kinneally, who threw wild to first. Fisher had the ball beat, anyay, but he went to second on the play and came home on King's single. Mr. Corbett got his in the third to the tune of five hits and six runs. Sanders dled. Krueger to White, and Fisher beat out another infield hit. Irwin fumbled King's grounder and the Chicken singled, sending Red home. Welch hit a single which brought both King and Autrey across the plate and Austin walked. Belden hit another and scored Welch and

MOUNTAINEERS ARE HARD HIT | Franck hit clean and scored Beiden. Belden and Austin had in the meanwhile executed a double steal, which scored Austin. A double play ended the fun. Cortired in favor of Pat Bohannon.

No pity was shown the big fellow. The first four men up hit him clean and safe. They were the meanest kind of hits and shook the entire Denver bunch. They were little Texas leaguers over third, just out of the reach of everybody. Three runs were made and that ended the run getting as the Omaha team had made enough and wanted to hurry through so the boys could go swimming.
