

METCALFE BOOM IS DITCHED

Democratic Peace Plans Fail When Jim and Shallenberger File.

BERGE FOLLOWS WITH PAPER

State Chose Agreement with Lee Company at Increased Price and Pay for Power and Heat.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., July 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The scheme of a bunch of democrats to nominate R. L. Metcalfe for governor by having Shellenberger, Berge and Dahman withdraw has been knocked into a cocked hat. A. C. Shallenberger and Mayor Dahman both filed this morning. Mayor Jim filed as a democrat only and had no petition. Shallenberger filed as a democrat personally and as a populist by petition. His populist petitions are signed by citizens of the following counties: Madison, Nuckolls, Phelps, Furness and Hartley. But worse than that, he has at the head of the Madison county petition, the name of W. V. Allen, formerly populist United States senator. George W. Berge has not yet filed. George O. Brophy of Omaha filed as a democrat candidate for railway commissioner.

George Washington Berge filed as a democrat and populist candidate for governor this afternoon. Mr. Berge filed two petitions, one from Lancaster made up of democrats and one from Boone county signed by populists. Mr. Berge opened his campaign last night at Peru and he expects to keep on speech-making until the election in November.

Mayor Jim Disqualified. To keep up the record established by the national democratic convention, political prognosticators say Mayor Jim cannot be nominated. Here is the reason: The candidate for president is a two-time defeated candidate, the nominee for vice president is a two-time defeated one. Mr. Berge has been defeated once at the election and once in the convention. Mr. Shallenberger has been defeated once at the polls and once in convention. Mayor Jim has never suffered defeat. Consequently, while either Berge or Shallenberger is half way eligible for nomination, Mayor Jim has never qualified to get in the game with the presidential candidates.

W. B. Price, who was in on the deal to get Shallenberger, Berge and Dahman out of the gubernatorial race and permit the unanimous selection of R. L. Metcalfe, returned from Omaha this morning a "sadder but wiser man."

"I labored nearly all day to get Dahman to keep out of the fight," he said. "But it was no use. He was determined to run and I could not convince him that it was to the best interests of the party to keep out."

To offset Dahman's possible nomination, Mr. Price permitted the use of his name as a candidate for state auditor. He tried to get in the running for congress, but he could not make it.

More Primary Filings.

Tom Allen this morning filed the name of E. O. Weber of Saunders county as a democratic and populist candidate for governor. Mr. Harrison filed as a democrat and as a populist by petition.

Marshall Harrison today filed his application to go on the primary ballot as a float representative of Cass and Otoe counties. Mr. Harrison was one of the leading republicans in the last house and was the chairman of the railroad committee.

Walter B. McNeel of North Platte filed today as a candidate for congress in the sixth district, and thus another scheme of the democratic boom was frustrated. The bosses expected to have Judge West over any fight for the nomination. They bore down hard on McNeel, but not hard enough to keep him out of the fight.

Prisoners Released.

The contract between the Lee Broom and Duster company and the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings has been agreed to and signed and the convicts in the state penitentiary after more than a month's idleness will again begin work at once. The agreement provides for an additional 5 cents a day for the labor, or 5 cents a day for each convict; $2,600 to be paid the state for rent and power and heat. In turn the state permits the convicts to work longer hours and increased slightly the task required of them. Hereafter the convicts have worked eight and a half hours a day and a majority of them were able to complete their tasks within six hours. After the task was completed the convict had the privilege of working over-time and receiving the same rate of pay for his own use. The contract is for a period of three years, the convicts having the right to cancel it at any time upon giving the broom company six months in which to wind up its affairs. This clause was inserted so that if the legislature desired to work the convicts it could provide employment.

According to the figures filed by Mr. Lee, Nebraska is getting more money for its convicts' labor than any other state. The board tried hard to secure some other bidders for the convicts but was unsuccessful. The Lee company has about $50,000 invested in machinery and stock at the penitentiary. This had all to be put in shape to send away, when the agreement was finally reached. Judge Field of Lincoln appeared before the board with Lee and assisted in bringing about the agreement.

Park Against Howard.

General Superintendent Park of the Union Pacific filed the Board of Equalization this morning that Edgar Howard was confused in saying, he had informed the railway commission that the Union Pacific had $3,000,000 worth of material on hand which would be used in Nebraska. He said further he had not told Mr. Howard in a conversation that this stock was to be used in Nebraska.

"My jurisdiction extends over the entire Union Pacific system," said Mr. Park, "and when I said we had $3,000,000 of material in stock in Council Bluffs, Omaha and along the road, to be added to this property, I meant the Union Pacific system. Council Bluffs is certainly not in Nebraska, and along the road meant the Union Pacific line in several states."

Mr. Park said he had no accurate knowledge of how much of this property is in Nebraska or in the other states, but that when he needed stock he simply made a requisition for it.

"The Union Pacific hotels, the car service and many other things come under my jurisdiction, but I am not familiar with the details. The details are looked after by departments, and I have supervision over these departments. Of course, in a general way, I know what we have on hand in the way of material, but I have no detailed knowledge of the amount. I know nothing of the details of running the eating houses."

"In crediting to Nebraska $3,000,000 worth of material, I should say that seems a good estimate of what the road has in this state in the way of material. We have ties and other material scattered over many states and the material may be used in the states where it is now located or it may be taken to other states."

Mr. Park read the statement he had made to the railway commission and said it was correct, but that Mr. Howard had simply placed a wrong interpretation upon it.

Protest on Two-Cent Fare.

The question of the right of the railway commission to change the statute providing for a 3-cent passenger rate in Nebraska was argued before the commission this morning. The question is preliminary to hearing the protest of the Missouri Pacific against the Aldrich 16 per cent reduction law in freight rates and the 2-cent fare law. W. D. McHugh appeared for the railroad company and after a short discussion agreed to file a brief on the questions within a week. He will discuss in the question the power of the board with litigation pending and the power of the board with no litigation pending.

Transfer Switch in Court.

The Northwestern railroad has filed suit in the federal court against the enforcement of an order by the State Railway Commission providing for a transfer switch between this road and the Burlington at York. No injunction was asked for. Carl Wright, attorney for the Northwestern, holding that the filing of the suit suspended the order.

Petitions on Railroad Laws.

Representatives of the various railroads out in the state getting signatures to petitions asking the next legislature not to pass any more railroad regulation. One member of the last session who refused to sign the petition said about all the legislation necessary had been adopted by the Nebraska legislature, but if any more was needed the next legislature would attend to the matter. It is reported the petitions are being circulated all over the state.

Stay of Execution for Fouse.

William Fouse, sentenced to be hanged August 14 for the murder of Joseph Fouse at Omaha, has secured a stay of execution until further order of the supreme court. Henry G. Meyer, his attorney, this afternoon filed a bill of exceptions in the case and this acts as a stay of execution until the court passes upon the matter.

State Sheriffs Meet.

The meeting of the sheriffs of the state began here this afternoon at the county court house. About thirty-five sheriffs were present at the first meeting and many more are expected tomorrow, when the meeting will begin in earnest. An informal program was carried out this afternoon.

RAIN UNEVENLY DISTRIBUTED

In Central and Western Counties It is Above Normal.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 28.—The week was partly cloudy, with a mean temperature a little above normal and the total rainfall below normal for the state as a whole. The daily mean temperature was between 72 degrees and 78 degrees. The last two were the warmest days. The first days of the week were moderately cool and pleasant.

The rainfall was very unevenly distributed throughout the state. In most of the central counties and in some northeastern and western sections, the rainfall was above normal. In the southeastern counties, and in the west, as far as the reports received indicate, the rainfall was light. Falls exceeding an inch were reported from several localities in the central portion on Wednesday.

The sunshine averaged about 70 per cent of the possible amount.

MRS. MARY HARRIS RAISES FUNDS

Woman Who Will Debate With Mayor Dahman Keeps Up Reputation.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Mary Harris Armour, the woman who has been termed the "Mrs. Tornado" of Georgia, delivered a lecture on temperance this afternoon at Lexington chautauque, after which people contributed money by five and ten dollar bills until the amount reached $300. This money will be used in the state work of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Armour will leave tonight for Omaha to debate with Mayor Dahman.

Politics in Gage County.

BEATRICE, Neb., July 28.—(Special.)—The political pot has begun to boil in Gage county and some lively times are promised between now and the date of the republican primaries, which are to be held September 1. As is the usual case there are always plenty of candidates who are willing to make the race, even if there is a big field of starters. For representative, P. T. Lewellen of Piley, D. J. Killen of Adams, W. McCullough of Blue Springs, I. N. Pickett of Ouel, C. J. McCall and B. H. Regole of Beatrice have filed with the county clerk as candidates. F. O. Ellis has filed as a candidate for representative from Gage and Saline counties.

So far Adam McMullen of Wymore and H. E. Beckett of Beatrice are the only two entering the race for state senator. For county attorney, Hugh J. Dobbs and Lloyd Crocker have filed, and more candidates are yet to be heard from. F. O. McGirr, present deputy county attorney, has announced his intention of becoming a candidate for the office on the democratic ticket. His partner, Menzo W. Terry, present county attorney, is candidate for attorney general on the democratic ticket.

Shortage of Teachers in Otoe.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., July 28.—(Special.)—There is a shortage of school teachers in this county. According to the report of County Superintendent R. C. King, out of 37 teachers required for the county schools there is a shortage of forty-five teachers. There was a shortage last year, but not as serious as this. All of the teachers needed were secured by the time that the school opened, but in less than thirty days there were six vacancies, because the teachers had married and given up their schools. This year all female teachers are required to sign an agreement to give thirty days notice, if they contemplate matrimony, so substitution can be secured for them. Superintendent King is busy looking for teachers to fill the vacancies and from the present outlook there may be many of the schools closed during the coming year, if no better success has been had in this throughout the county, as was done in this city, so as to retain the best teachers.

Plans for Frontier Day.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., July 28.—(Special.)—Captain Hardy, the rifle shot and manager of the cowboy features of several frontier or festival occasions, was in the city yesterday and met with the Commercial club's committee on Frontier and Harvest festival, to be held the first week in October, for the purpose of furthering the preliminary arrangements. It was decided to make application to the federal authorities for the visit here, at the time, of troops from Fort Riley. A band of Indians from Valentine will also be secured and a cowboy band of forty pieces will play daily. A $500 saddle from a western firm will be offered as a prize for the best broncho riding. A fine list of prizes for an agricultural display will also be given.

Omaha Men to Auburn.

AUBURN, Neb., July 28.—(Special.)—The special which arrived here Saturday evening bearing the employes of the Omaha offices of the Missouri Pacific Railway company left yesterday afternoon after spending the day on a basket picnic in the city park. The crowd of about fifty were met at the train by the citizens of the city and escorted to the Keedy convention hall, where a social dance had been arranged in their honor. Prizes were awarded to the best waiters in Auburn and it was captured by Mrs. W. A. Goslee and Mr. Clarence Souders. Yesterday morning the excursion party was given a drive over the city in automobiles and a band concert was given them in the afternoon in the city park.

Mrs. Gates Leaves Auburn.

AUBURN, Neb., July 28.—(Special.)—Mrs. Anna Vio Gates, one of the best known newspaper women in the state and who had been connected with the Granger in this city for the last nine years, today severed her connection with that publication and has retired from the field. She leaves the city and is locating in Nebraska City, where she expects to make her future home. Mrs. Gates has been in the newspaper business continually for the last twenty-five years.

Quiet Sunday at Greeley.

GREELEY, Neb., July 28.—(Special.)—For the first time in years the business houses were all closed in Greeley, the business men having decided to rest on the seventh day, and Greeley will no longer be noted for a wide-open town.

Berge Speaks at Peru.

PERU, Neb., July 28.—(Special.)—George W. Berge tonight gave his opening address as candidate for governor in the students' Bryan club at Peru. On state issues, he favored a guarantee deposit law.

Score One for Boyd—Boyd Smith is a cracker-jack as a basenallist, but on Thursday he made the home run of his life to see how the new baseball works at his house. It was of the usual Nebraska weight and Boyd is doing well.—Red Cloud Advertiser.

Staid Zion Girls.—The young men of this neighborhood are not working hard enough to give them the exercise they need, so they are working hard at threshing Saturday, they were feeling so rested that they spent the night in shaking their feet at Chris Reid's. Glad to see, the girls are few in number around here that need such exercise.—Zion Items in Beatrice Times.

Vaudeville at Holdrege.—Miscellaneous boy tied a tin can or similar ornament to a dog's tail and headed the animal into the Edison theater where a performance was being given the other night. Doggie did his part nicely, going in one door and out the other, and for a few seconds the audience was treated to a bit of vaudeville not on the bill.—Holdrege Citizen.

Warning to Pilgrites.—All ye Pilgrites keep a sharp lookout for a pair of runaway slippers. Mrs. John Burthelme said she had a pair headed that way but she thought they couldn't cross the Humburg bridge on account of their size and the water was too deep for them to wade, so she thinks she may find them on the west side of the Humburg.—Pilger Herald.

Defense of Old Jim.—Since early boyhood I have been prejudiced against a mule. When I was a lad my father had a mule on the farm that could kick like the fire of a galling gun. I never came in contact with any other mule of that kind, but I always lived in dread that I would. Hence a big sigh of relief one day when the word came to me that father had swapped "Old Jim" off. But I have been thinking of late how unjust I have been to that mule through all these years. The fact is, comparatively speaking, that mule couldn't kick a little bit. There are folks today that can outkick her so far she wouldn't be in the game a minute.—Pender Republican.

OMAHA PRINTING IS PRAISED

What a Chicago Publication Says About the Work of an Omaha Printer.

Commenting on the book of regulations recently issued by the Forest Lawn Cemetery, which has attracted the attention of the public, the Chicago Record-Herald, a publication devoted to these two interests, says: "The book of views issued by the Woodland Cemetery association of New York City is the finest booklet of its kind issued, while the book issued by the Forest Lawn association, at Omaha, is second. The latter contains twenty-six views in the cemetery, perfectly engraved and perfectly printed on a glass book paper."

Monument, News, a publication devoted to the art in cemetery and art work, also says the Omaha booklet is second among all the hundreds of publications listed and places the New York booklet first.

The book of regulations and views of the Forest Lawn association, was prepared by H. S. Mann, secretary of the association, and the engraving of the views and printing of the booklet, was in charge of A. I. Root, printer and publisher. The noteworthy feature of the book is the superior press work and color combinations. The colors of the foliage of the trees are perfect and the cemetery association is receiving letters from all parts of the United States, asking for copies, which are being forwarded in response to the request of the booklet is sent with the requests.

Charged with Robbery.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., July 28.—(Special.)—J. T. Eaton, a stranger, and Earl Jones, cook in a local restaurant, have been arrested on the charge of highway robbery, preferred by Barney Luther, a young farm hand from near George, Iowa, who came to Sioux Falls Saturday with his month's wages in order to have a good time. According to Luther's story the robbery was committed on a lonely road near the city. He was driving with the two men in a buggy, which they had hired, when he claims they attacked him, Eaton striking him a heavy blow with some unknown weapon.

Council Keeps Prisoners Awake. SIoux FALLS, S. D., July 28.—(Special.)—A protest has been filed with Sheriff Huston of Stanley county, by the prisoners in the county jail, against the megaphone voices of the members of the city

Alexander Hamilton.

NO man—not even George Washington—has left a more lasting impression upon our higher laws and institutions than his romantic and handsome young Revolutionary General and Statesman, who died so tragically in a duel at the very zenith of his fame. Upon every clause of the Constitution of the United States his individuality is indelibly stamped. Daniel Webster says of him: "He smote the rock of National resources and abundant streams of revenue gushed forth; he touched the dead corpse of public credit and it sprang upon its feet."
