It has in shour city and hay in Omaha on this Lovett, if irip, and unless the team turns equaroly around and plays a game it has not played for some days, it will lose again today. The Teddy Bears are in a distressing condition. The team has some of the best ball players in the league, but unfortunately some of these stars are unable to do their best. Harry White, a great player and fine fellow, has been orippled since the first of the season. His injured leg takes all the speed out of him, and many a man would never attempt to work under the conditions that beset him every day. He displays commendable nerve in making the effort. Ira Belden has been sick since the team's arrival in Omaha, and this is particularly bad for Denver. as Ira is playing wonderful ball this year. Of course Denver needs strengthening in the box, but this is not the only place. The fact is the team's powerful batting has been carrying it through, but even that element of strength has not
