

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

Entered at Omaha postoffice as second-class matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (without Sunday), one year $4.00...

Omaha—The Bee Building, South Omaha—City Hall Building, Council Bluffs—15 Scott Street...

COMMUNICATIONS: Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES: Remit by draft, express or postal order payable to The Bee Publishing Company.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION: State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss. Geo. B. Tzschucke, Treasurer of The Bee Publishing Company...

Table with 3 columns: Date, Circulation, and Total. Rows include dates from 1 to 31.

Totals 1,008,090. Net total 1,079,313. Daily average 35,777.

GEORGE B. TZSCHUCKE, Treasurer.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 1st day of July, 1908. M. P. WALKER, Notary Public.

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them.

Wonder if Candidate Hissen has a brother Charley?

Nan Patterson has been ordered out of Pittsburg. That's the limit.

Two "Bills," two "Toms" and two "Eugenes" are in the presidential runing.

It is not certain even that Mr. Bryan will approve of Mr. Taft's letter of acceptance.

Buffalo claims to have the poorest union station in the world. Kansas City please write.

In other words, Mr. Taft asks that labor treat him as fairly as he has always treated labor.

The joke would surely be on Mr. Hearst if Tom Hissen should be elected president of the United States.

The sultan has agreed to give Turkey a constitution. He had to do so to save his own constitution.

Mr. Hearst is opposed to overcapitalization of about everything except the editorials in his newspapers.

Judge Grosscup announces that he is preparing to retire from the bench. The president will not try to hold him.

The Chautauqua managers doubtless feel that they have already contributed their share to a certain campaign fund.

"Intellect and conscience are written all over the face of John W. Kern," says an Iowa editor. Thought it was whiskers.

According to advices from Fairview, Mr. Bryan will look into the matter and pulverize the editor of The Bee a little later.

The real dark horse of the Olympic games was a negro from South Africa who showed all the other runners a clean pair of heels.

William Waldorf Astor announces his intention to stand for Parliament. No objection over here, if Parliament will stand for Astor.

Whatever the verdict may be on Mayor Jim as a debater, he can put himself down as a success from the box office point of view.

Omaha is to have an improved mail collection service. The way to test it is to post a letter to yourself and see how soon it comes back.

Chautauqua managers are already reserving open dates for Mr. Bryan for next season. The Chautauqua managers appreciate the odds.

Pittsburg authorities are trying to learn the cause of the alarming number of suicides in that city. Can it be due to awakening conscience?

The charter revision committee is getting in its licks early. But in the matter of charter revision the legislature gets in its licks last.

That new Union Pacific Headquarters building may have to be enlarged, when it finally comes, to take in the Missouri Pacific and Wabash, too.

There is no question about there being room for a new bank in Omaha. Some of us are not quite so sure, however, about the need of a twelve-story building in which to house it.

WHY HEARST DECLINED.

The refusal of William Randolph Hearst to accept the nomination of the national independence party for the presidency is puzzling some people.

Mr. Hearst was born with a silver spoon in his mouth and most of the side dishes were wrought of gold, but in spite of all that he has made something of a study, by observation, contact and absorption, of the rights, sentiments and feelings of the plain people.

According to the dictionaries, a valet is "a male waiting servant; a servant who attends on a gentleman's person; a body servant. See also valet and valet."

World's Demand for Wheat. The American farmer appears to have the habit of disappointing the statisticians and the theorists who spend a great deal of time preparing predictions for the future, based on past performances.

Legal Opening for Trusts. New principle for successful business on the enormous scale; by splitting yourself up into numerous small corporations you can decrease expense in the line of fines for law-breaking.

Helps for Getting Around. The Census bureau reports that there are in the United States 20,000,000 horses and 4,000,000 mules, the highest number yet returned.

Another Lucky Man. Chicago Tribune. An employe in a power company's plant at Visalia, Cal., while at work one day last week, received 34,000 volts of electricity in his system and was knocked senseless, but revived.

A Remote Possibility. Pittsburgh Dispatch. It must make Johnny Bull more choleric than ever to contemplate the mighty phalanx of the Americans in the Marathon hike of twenty-six miles, and with the winner a fellow wearing the buccolic and plebeian name of Hays, at that.

Giving Away Transportation. Springfield Republican. The government is "attacking the railroads" again, as may be noticed from the indictments returned by a federal grand jury against the Illinois Central and Rock Island roads for violating the anti-trust law.

Revival of Prosperity. Brilliant Harvest Prospects Supplement Industrial Activities. New York Herald. The harvests are still the basis of prosperity in this country, and with the fulfillment of their present promise the foundation will be laid for a restoration of the industrial and commercial activity interrupted by the panic of last autumn.

Practical False Pretense. Philadelphia Record (dem.). It was a clever scheme of some of the populists to have the Bryan electors put on the Bryan ticket with the understanding that if Bryan should need their votes he should have them, but if Bryan could be elected without them, their votes should be given to Watson.

FORESIGHT FOR MR. BRYAN.

The democratic platform is entirely silent on the negro question, much to the disappointment of Colonel Watterson and other democratic leaders who have made advances looking to the annexation of the negro vote.

Democratic National Chairman Norman E. Mack has one consolation. He cannot make a bigger failure in the management of the campaign than achieved by his predecessors, Tom Taggart and James K. Jones.

Texas and Georgia are tied in the lynching score for the month, but Georgia will doubtless claim the record on a foul, as the Texans admit that in one of their matinees they lynched the wrong man.

It is said the rug business in Persia has been seriously injured by the political disturbances. Still, Paterson, N. J., is making the genuine Persian rugs in quantities sufficient to supply all demands.

When the dancing masters' convention took place in New York last year all the delegates received a neatly printed booklet giving a brief history of the waltz, with pictures of Lanner, Gung, Weber, Strauss and other celebrated composers of waltz music.

The men in a family living on the upper West Side divide their business between two tailors, and each tailor has for two years been doing his best to drive the other out. The consequence is that the merchant of that household has the best at the smallest cost.

Legal Opening for Trusts. New principle for successful business on the enormous scale; by splitting yourself up into numerous small corporations you can decrease expense in the line of fines for law-breaking.

Helps for Getting Around. The Census bureau reports that there are in the United States 20,000,000 horses and 4,000,000 mules, the highest number yet returned.

Another Lucky Man. Chicago Tribune. An employe in a power company's plant at Visalia, Cal., while at work one day last week, received 34,000 volts of electricity in his system and was knocked senseless, but revived.

A Remote Possibility. Pittsburgh Dispatch. It must make Johnny Bull more choleric than ever to contemplate the mighty phalanx of the Americans in the Marathon hike of twenty-six miles, and with the winner a fellow wearing the buccolic and plebeian name of Hays, at that.

Giving Away Transportation. Springfield Republican. The government is "attacking the railroads" again, as may be noticed from the indictments returned by a federal grand jury against the Illinois Central and Rock Island roads for violating the anti-trust law.

Revival of Prosperity. Brilliant Harvest Prospects Supplement Industrial Activities. New York Herald. The harvests are still the basis of prosperity in this country, and with the fulfillment of their present promise the foundation will be laid for a restoration of the industrial and commercial activity interrupted by the panic of last autumn.

ROUND ABOUT NEW YORK.

Ripples on the Current of Life in the Metropolis. Fatalities in the streets of greater New York for the twelve months ending July 15, 1908, exceed the losses of the famous battle of Bull Run in 1862 or at El Caney in 1864.

Uncle Sam is again trying to get his postoffice clock at Omaha running right. We presume it would be presumptuous to suggest that the mistaken location of the federal building over flowing natural springs with walls constantly settling may have something to do with dislocating the time-piece.

Deal Jackson, a negro, has marketed the first bale of Georgia cotton and the Atlanta papers pay him a fine compliment, declaring that "his word is as good as his bond and that he is respected alike by black and white."

This John Temple Graves who is running for vice president on the Hearst party ticket is the same gentleman who appealed to Mr. Bryan to rise in the democratic national convention and nominate Theodore Roosevelt for president.

Democratic National Chairman Norman E. Mack has one consolation. He cannot make a bigger failure in the management of the campaign than achieved by his predecessors, Tom Taggart and James K. Jones.

Texas and Georgia are tied in the lynching score for the month, but Georgia will doubtless claim the record on a foul, as the Texans admit that in one of their matinees they lynched the wrong man.

When the dancing masters' convention took place in New York last year all the delegates received a neatly printed booklet giving a brief history of the waltz, with pictures of Lanner, Gung, Weber, Strauss and other celebrated composers of waltz music.

The men in a family living on the upper West Side divide their business between two tailors, and each tailor has for two years been doing his best to drive the other out. The consequence is that the merchant of that household has the best at the smallest cost.

Legal Opening for Trusts. New principle for successful business on the enormous scale; by splitting yourself up into numerous small corporations you can decrease expense in the line of fines for law-breaking.

Helps for Getting Around. The Census bureau reports that there are in the United States 20,000,000 horses and 4,000,000 mules, the highest number yet returned.

Another Lucky Man. Chicago Tribune. An employe in a power company's plant at Visalia, Cal., while at work one day last week, received 34,000 volts of electricity in his system and was knocked senseless, but revived.

A Remote Possibility. Pittsburgh Dispatch. It must make Johnny Bull more choleric than ever to contemplate the mighty phalanx of the Americans in the Marathon hike of twenty-six miles, and with the winner a fellow wearing the buccolic and plebeian name of Hays, at that.

PERSONAL NOTES.

A man named Hissen says he left the democratic party because it neglected to nominate Hearst.

The city council of Spandan, in Brandenburg, Prussia, has inaugurated a movement to raise $1,000,000 as a national gift for Count Zeppelin.

Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, who has been under treatment in New York for bronchial ailment for more than a month, is about to go home.

When General Jackson was president an attempt was made to gather into one political party everybody who was not a member of the order of Free and Accepted Masons.

When General Grant was president it was undertaken to put every farmer in the union into one political party. It was then thought that nothing was patriotic but labor, and nothing was labor that did not delve in the soil.

When General Grant was president it was undertaken to put every farmer in the union into one political party. It was then thought that nothing was patriotic but labor, and nothing was labor that did not delve in the soil.

When General Grant was president it was undertaken to put every farmer in the union into one political party. It was then thought that nothing was patriotic but labor, and nothing was labor that did not delve in the soil.

When General Grant was president it was undertaken to put every farmer in the union into one political party. It was then thought that nothing was patriotic but labor, and nothing was labor that did not delve in the soil.

When General Grant was president it was undertaken to put every farmer in the union into one political party. It was then thought that nothing was patriotic but labor, and nothing was labor that did not delve in the soil.

When General Grant was president it was undertaken to put every farmer in the union into one political party. It was then thought that nothing was patriotic but labor, and nothing was labor that did not delve in the soil.

When General Grant was president it was undertaken to put every farmer in the union into one political party. It was then thought that nothing was patriotic but labor, and nothing was labor that did not delve in the soil.

When General Grant was president it was undertaken to put every farmer in the union into one political party. It was then thought that nothing was patriotic but labor, and nothing was labor that did not delve in the soil.

POLITICAL SNAPSHOTS.

New York Mail: It is no less than refreshing to see campaign committees adopt the virtues of monasticism—poverty, chastity and obedience.

Washington Post: A contemporary avers that neither Mr. Bryan nor Mr. Taft can sit on the grass cross-legged. This is probably true; but the distressing fact is not thought to be an insurmountable barrier in the way of either gentleman's candidacy for president.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Mr. Bryan has received more than a dollar a word for talking into a phonograph. But what will posterity think of the present generation when it gets hold of these records. No doubt the same as people experience now when they try to read a free verse oration of twelve years ago.

New York Sun: After calling passionately on all democratic newspapers to collect campaign funds, Mr. Bryan has seen the propriety of changing in himself. From now till after election the net profits of his Communion will be given to the democratic national committee—properly acknowledged, we hope, and not divided into $100 lots.

Philadelphia Ledger: The chairman called his personally conducted investigation of the "farmers' movement" "Understand, gentlemen," he said, briefly, "you are here to carry out the will of the people." He added that any member refusing to do so will be carried out himself.

Philadelphia Ledger: "Remember," said the earnest inventor, "I don't so very many years since the telephone caused laughter. At first it caused laughter; now it causes 'gratitude.'"—Washington Star.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

POINTED PLEASANTRIES.

"Understand, gentlemen," he said, briefly, "you are here to carry out the will of the people." He added that any member refusing to do so will be carried out himself.

"Remember," said the earnest inventor, "I don't so very many years since the telephone caused laughter. At first it caused laughter; now it causes 'gratitude.'"—Washington Star.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: In extended observation on the ways and means of making money, you have applied from Nevada wild and woolly to the plains of Hindustan.

Advertisement for Graham Crackers. Fresh and Crisp—baked in white tile, Top-floor ovens of the $1,000,000 bakery. LOOSE-WILES Graham Crackers. Made from the best whole wheat graham flour—a delicious, wholesome graham wafer. Come to you in the thrice-sealed, dark brown, moisture-proof package. At your grocer's—10c.