Likely to Be First Assistant General Freight Agent Illinois Central.

HAS BEEN IN PLACE PRO TEM

Called to Chicago on the Death of Mr. Bascom and is in Line for Promotion by the Directors.

John S. Weitzell, assistant general freight agent in Omaha of the Illinois Central, may be appointed first assistant, with headquarters in Chicago.

About a month ago W. R. Bascom, first assistant general freight agent at Chicago died. Mr. Weitzell was at once called to Chicago to take his place and has been there since.

Mr. Weitzell is regarded as a most efficient railroad man and at the same time has won the confidence of the shippers by his fairness and courteous treatment at all times.

cessor of Mr. Weitzell will be at Omaha, in the event of his promotion, although it may be decided when the officials meet in Chicago in a few days.

Warning to Coal Dealers.

Railroads have issued a warning to the coal dealers of the northwest, particularly, to lay in a supply of coal while the roads are not rushed with business and when they have plenty of time to haul it.

Railroads Don't Like Hauling.

Railroad officials do not like the decision of the Interstate Commerce commission against the express companies on the question of carload rates being applied to small consignments combined and shipped to one destination as a carload lot.

Motor Cars on Penn Line.

When the leading Pennsylvania officials, who made a tour of the west recently, and stopped at Omaha to see the McKee motor cars, returned home, they at once recommended that a motor car service be installed on the Pennsylvania lines.

Take Warning.

Don't let stomach, liver nor kidney trouble down you, when you can quickly down them with Electric Bitters.

S.S.S. CONTAINS NO MERCURY

Medicines containing Mercury are often given to persons suffering with Contagious Blood Poison and so powerful is the action of this drug that it frequently removes the symptoms in a short while, and shuts the disease up in the system to do greater damage to the delicate internal members.

DIARRHOEA

There is no need of anyone suffering long with this disease, for to effect a quick cure it is only necessary to take a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In fact, in most cases one dose is sufficient. It never fails and can be relied upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.
