NEGRO LODGE MEN LYNCHED

Four Hanged by Mob for Commending Murder of White Man. TOWN IS NOT EVEN AWAKENED. Residents First Learn of Deed When They See Bodies Swinging from Tree—Jailer Taken by Surprise.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., Aug. 1.—Four negroes, Virgil, Thomas and Robert Jones and Joseph Riley, were taken from jail here early today and hanged to a tree on the edge of town.

The negroes who were lynched were members of the lodge, and at a meeting recently, it is said they approved of the murder of James Cunningham, a white farmer, by his negro tenant Rufus Browder.

The mob came into town so quietly that not one of the residents of the city was awakened from sleep. Proceeding at once to the county jail, the jailer, Jake Butts, was summoned to the door, his residence being directly connected with the prison.

Victims Members of Lodge. The negroes were members of a lodge in the southern part of Logan county, and just when the entire county was stirred up over the brutal murder of Mr. Cunningham by Browder they held a meeting and expressed their approval of Browder's deed.
