Pat Ragan and McKay started out opmense throng to call a game in the middie of the afternoon because of darkness when several hours of daylight remained.

Crowd Started Out at Noon.

What a crowd that was which filtered out to the park by every known conveyance. By noon the fans had started for the grounds and although the game was scheduled to start at 2:39 Pa had to issue orders to stop selling grandstand tickets at 2:10, at which time the bleachers were also filled and the throng began to crowd all over the lot. Chief of Police Donahue and a score of sergeants, patrolmen and piain clothes men were active in keeping the thousands off the diamond and away from the home plate. They crowded out until they made a complete size of Omaha and made four runs off Ragan

DES MOINES, Aug. 2.—Des Moines handed another game to its opponents today. For the first three innings each side went down in one, two three order. The crowd settled itself for a long, strenuous content. But in the last half of the fourth, with two men up and the Sloux without a run in the first inning.
But it was a different tale when Omaha came to bat. Fisher opened with a double and the bombardment kept up until three had scored and in the second inning four more were added. Then McKay gave way to Starr, who worked his famous inshoots successfully until the eighth inning, when he in turn was bombarded for three hits and gave two bases on balls, which netted three runs and won the game. Sloux City had in the meanwhile duplicated the efforts of Omaha and made four runs off Ragan posed to each other and both were soon from the home plate. They crowded out of Omaha and made four runs off Ragan

Omaha Begins in the First.

Fisher's double, a base on balls to Autres Dr. Welch's double and Belden's single gave Omaha three runs in the first Inning In the second inning all the players batte once and LeBrand twice, scoring four runs The Kid made first on Andreas' error and Ragan was hit with the ball. Fisher sacri ficed them along a base and King put safe one between Andreas and Weed. Aut rey followed with a single to left and Dr Welch walked. Austin hit to Andreas, who again booted the ball, and Belden's single drove in the fourth run. Belden made fou hits during the game.

That was the end of McKay, who wa followed by Starr. Although two hit were made in each of the fourth, fift) went in and before the sied was retired four runs had been scored. McKay priend beat Seward on the latter's grounds Holmes trailed with singles. Green flew out to Austin and Weed hit a grounder to Latter and Latter's grounds and the latter's grounds and latter's grounds an n opened with a double and Green flew out to Austin and Weed hit a grounder

Hall held the Sloux down until the sixth inning, when they rallied and tied the score. Every man on the Sloux team faced Hall and three runs were made. Campbell drove one through Austin, filling the bases. Weed flew out to Belden and Campbell scored. Andreas hit safe and Holmes, who had stolen third, put him out. Hall then deliberately passed Weich, filling the bases, and relied upon getting Henry, who had supdown the third base line into the crowd ...a 6:30 pm a 9:35 am and went to second. Belden followed with Hollenbeck made his game sure by hitting for a double, scoring Belden. Fisher while Haskell remained behind the home plate and called balls and strikes. Ducky Holmes did not want another lash with Mr. Rhodes, who was billed o pitch the second game, so he had it alled of:

Ducky loses as hard as ever.

Even the fence was lined with fans all the way around the diamond and the fans had to keep their own scores, as the score board was obscared by the crowd. Austin missed a good chance for a double in the ninth inning after be caught Campbell's liner. He hurried the ball to first, but a wild throw spoiled his chance to make a double play. Beiden made four hits, all of them singles, but they came just at the right time to drive four other members of the Rourke family across the plate with the runs which were needed.

Brother Dave was completely swamped in his department and the pop and soft drink boys would no sooner get started into the crowd than they were sold out and driven back for another load.

Weed was back into the game and covered first base in place of Hester, who was picked up in Colorado to take Severeid's place. Weed covered the sack all right, but did not hit the ball. About 100 Sloux City rooters had come down for the game and occupied the east end of the grandstand, but their cow bells and yells could do nothing to save the game. They were too far outnumbered to be heard much of the time. Hall pulled off a neat fielding stunt in the fourth inning and stopped a score. Andreas had hit the ball toward King and Autrey started to field it. When a started back to cover the sack he feil, but Hall was on the job and beat Andreas to first.

It is said by the wise ones who watch such things that it was the largest crowd but one which ever attended a ball game in the west. The Kid Nichols day several years ago had a few more people around the diamond, although Pa's stands are larger now than then.

of the pick of the county and they played exceedingly well together. Lewin, Merna's pitcher, was placed in many difficult holes, but he always was master of the situation, and Erser of Broken Bow, pitched a steady game and allowed leas hits off his delivery than Lewin, but the few hits that were made off him were costly. The features of the game were the all round work of Smith, Broken Bow's pitcher, and the home run by Gaines, with a man on first base.

PSEUDO POLICEMAN ROBS HOBOS William Malone Held on Charge of

Highway Hobbery. FAIRBURY, Neb., Aug. 2-(Special.)-William Malone was in court yesterday and was bound over to district court to answer a charge of highway robbery. Malone, who has been at times a special policeman, visited the Rock Island yards a few evenings ago and, claiming to be an officer, took a revolver from a colored man who was working his way cast on freight trains. Then using the revolver as a persuader he took $2 from two freight train tourists and sent them to the east end of the yard to catch an outgoing train, but finding one had more money he counted it over and abstracted $30 from the reil. This proved his undoing, as a bona fide policeman came along and stopped the
