OMAHA, Aug. 3, 1908. Disastrous crop raports from the north-west wheat best sent wheat up at hig jumps. Velues became wild with everyone buying and no wheat being effered. Lack of moisture coupled with hot weather influenced corn values and good advances were made in both the cash and optional markets.

weather influenced corn values and good advances were made in both the cash and optional markets.

Wheat opened with a rush of buying induced by repeated damage reports and worked higher with light offerings. No wheat could be found for saie and values were bld quickly and steadily higher for over a 2t advance. September wheat come at advance with the country of the country opened firm and advanced with wheat. Heceipts were light and a strong demand gave the buils the opportunity to place prices on a higher level. It was a buil market from start to finish. September corn opened at 175cc and closed at 75cc. Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade, CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Crop damage reports of an alarming character brought out an avalanche of buying orders on the Board of Trade today and caused sharp advances in all the leading cereals. At the close wheat for September delivery was up 1346 2c; corn was up 14c; oats were %24c ingher; provisions were unchanged to 12c higher.

See corn was up 1845; casts were unchanged to 186

The opening of the wheat market was excited and strong, apparently all commission houses having seeningly unfinited orders to the control of the price of copper rose scalin and the price of copper of the state of the price of copper rose scalin and the price of some instances more than 1 cents above Saturday's closing figures. The new years of the price in some instances more than 2 cents above Saturday's closing figures. The new years of the control of the state of the Oats displayed considerable builishness because of hot veather in the northwest, but the market was much quieter than in wheat and corn. The greatest strength and activity was in the distant deliveries. September opened 160% to 160% higher, at 45%,00%, and at 45% c and closed at 45%. Provisions were weak at the outset, owing to a 50% to decline in live hogs. The close was firm, with September pork up 25% at 35.87%; lard was up 76% at 35.63% and ribs were unchanged, at 25.050% of 15% cars; corn. 25% cars; oats, 283 cars; hogs, 13.000 head.

per Advance.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 .- Leaders of a stock market movement rely more on the Monday their leadership has been attracted from the world outside of Wall street than on any other index. The explanation is found in the proneness of the man of affairs to begin new undertakings with the opening of the week, or with the beginning of some similar defined period. Many important commission houses send out at the end of the week reviews of the market and fore-casts of the prospects that are more de-tailed and elaborate than the daily intailed and elaborate than the daily information sent out. As a consequence Monday morning often finds an accumulation of orders in commission houses for execution that represent a new phase in the market. It is the effort of the professional operator in stocks to take advantage of these new phases to his profit, previous operations of this class being wholly directed to the possible attraction of this outside interest. Commission houses today reported so moderate a growth of outside demand that speculative opinion of the market was loft confused and unsettled.

The first hour's transactions and the recessions in prices which resulted demonstrated that the pressure of sales was greater than the demand could support. Evidently last week's events had not brought the new buying into the market in sufficient volume to give strong digestive power to it. The hesitating and irregular fluctuation of prices was the expression of the confusion of the speculative mind. A bank holiday in London made a close session of that exchange and subtracted something from the usual dealings in New York. The prospect of an important strike amongst French laborers gave a threat of a disturbing element from foreign sources which New York operators felt unable to estimate in the absence of London's leadership. The violence of the upturn in the wheat market magnified the influence of the reports of damage to spring wheat in some sections from rust and to estimates hy a private expert affirming exasgeration in current views of the dimension of the crop. The later reaction in the price of heat afforded some relief from the anxiety caused by these reports. The reliance placed upon the favorable promise of the harvests is abundantly reflected in the reports of increasing confidence in all branches of the business world. It was particularly marked in the weekly talk from railroad traffic officials reported today. E. H. Harriman's own description of the Wheeling & Lake Erie note settlement as "simply a financial transaction made necessary to save a railroad and thereby benefit all of them alike," took some of the glamor off the inferences widely drawn from the incident in last week's speculative surprise. His reference to doing what he could to prevent many more of the railroads from going into the harder of the parage of the prevent many more of the railroads from going into the harder of the many more of the railroads from going into the harder of the could to prevent many more of the railroads from going into the harder of the could to prevent many more of the railroads from going into the harder of took some of the glamor off the inferences widely drawn from the incident in last week's speculative surprise. His reference to doing what he could to prevent many more of the railroads from going into the hands of the receivers was not greatly relished by the speculative element. Reported activities of the Department of Justice conveyed an impression that the Harriman combination of railroad systems was to come under fire in a short time. The price of copper rose again and the report that the Baltimore & Ohio had placed a large rail order aroused hopes that the hitherto dormant department of the steel trade was to revive. Such favorable features as there were in the immediate news caused only sporadic cases of strength in the stock list. The general list was heavy in contrast and reflected only languid interest. Time loans for five months are now sufficient to carry borrowers over the end of the year and some relaxation was noted in the rate for this period. Money on call, which has been sinking to a ruling rate of 1 per cent, today loaned at % per cent, falling below 1 per cent for the first time.

St. Louis Live Stockers and competition with rangers, were slow and weak.

Everyone is warning the country against shipping so many cattle for Monday's market. But the warnings so far have not borne fruit, largely because there are so many points at which it is difficult to get the cars when they are wanted. In other words, shippers are forced to use the cars when they can get them and take than the cars when they can get them and take the cars when they can get them and take the cars when they can get them and take the cars when they can get them and take the cars when they can get them are the cars when they can get them are the cars when they can get them and take the cars when they can get them are the cars when the cars when they can get them are the cars when the cars when th to business and the most desirable of the feeding cattle had changed hands in very good season. The prices paid for the best cattle of that kind were just about steady with last week, but trashy and inferior cattle were slow and weak.

When buyers of fat cattle finally got down to business there was a fair movement, but prices on the general run of range steers were logist lower than last week. Cows and helfers also experienced about the same decline. Good corn-fed beeves did not show much change, there being only a few of that kind here, the best reaching $7.20. Common to medium corn-feds, which come more directly into competition with rangers, were slow and impetition with rangers, were slow and BHEEP—Sheep receipts this morning were the heaviest of any day since the beginning of the range season, forty-four cars being reported in. It was, in fact, the heaviest run of any day since May 13. Unfortunately it was a case of too much of one thing. The arrivals consisted almost entirely of wethers and yearlings with no lambs or leves to speak of, harring a few small bunches here and there. Moreover the wethers and yearlings were for the most part killers, there being comparativly few feeders on them. At the same time all other markets were reporting a dull and lower opening. pening. Under the conditions noted above, it was

Under the conditions noted above, it was not surprising that the market, at this point, opened rather slow, and 10fP16c lower with sales now and them, looking 156720c lower than last week's close.

OMAHA BUSINESS THE BEST

Local Conditions Excel Anything John L. Kennedy Has Seen in Month.

"Nowhere have I found business conditions better than right here in Omaha," said J. L. Kennedy, home from a month's vacation trip to parts in the northwest territories of Canada and in Illinois. "The banking, financial and industrial conditions in Omaha are better than any I have seen anywhere and we ought to congratulate ourselves on the conditions of affairs here

n Nebraska.' Mr. Kennedy spent two weeks in Canada, mostly in Saskatchewan. He says that the country looks fine and the wheat has an excellent stand. Harvest is a long ways off in Canada. Two weeks of his vacation were spent on a farm in LaSalle county. Illinois, where he lived when a boy. He says that Illinois corn looks fine, but as he has not had a look at Nebraska corn he does not know what the comparison

would be. HERE'S A MAN WHO IS WISE

Nebraska City Newspaper Editor Pays His Compliments to Omaha, a Great Place.

LESLIE SAYS KEEP THE OATH county Judge Believes it Will Force One Out of Ten to Tell Truth.

Judge Leslie of the county court disagrees with Judge Sears of the district bench on the question of the value of an oath in restraining witnesses from perjury. "In any case," said Judge Leslie, "only about one witness in ten will tell the whole truth anyway, but I believe that the tenth will be kept to the truth by reason of the solemn oath which he is forced to take when he goes on the stand. I do not believe that the abolition of the ceremony would be advantageous even if the prosecutions for perjury wer much more frequent, as there are some few witnesses who are morally impressed by the invocation of the Diety upon their testimony."

Assault Leads to Suit.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Aug. 3.—(Special.)
-Something of a sensation has been created at Carlock, one of the new towns in the ceded portion of the Rosebud reservation in Gregory county, by the com-mencement of a damage suit in which two well-known residents of the town are involved. The plaintiff in the suit is Isaac Syfie, while the defendant is Dr. Wormeldorf. Recently the two men lost their tempers during a discussion and became involved in a fist fight, which resulted in a victory for the physician. Syfic alleges that he was roughly handled Chicago Saloon Reeper Murdered. Chicago Saloon Receper Murdered.

CHICAGO, Aug 3.—Blarel Widelsz, owner of a saloon at 4554 Justin street, was found dead today in the yard at the rear of his saloon with two bullet wounds in his body.
C. Bernard, a partner of Widelsz, and George Smedakak are being held by the police on suspicion of being implicated in the murder. The police are of the opinion that the two men killed Widelsz in order to get some money that was in the cash register.
