"Comiskey is slways willing to overlook mechanical mimplays when he knows the player is trying to do his best, but the Old Roman will not tolerate lack of head work and slow thinking. The whole White Sox team, with the exception of Manager Fielder Jones and a few others, is playing a tackadaisical game as is shown by the manner in which the Senators have nosed out the Sox in two of the three games of the present series. "Jiggs Donohue is not playing his usual sparking game this season. He is playing a good game, but it is not the senational article that gave him the name of the present series. Jiggs bonohue is not different to the senational article that gave him the name of the greatest fielding first baseman in the major loagues during the last seasons. Jiggs seems to have lost his old time snap and it is said Comiskey is under the impression a change would do him a world of good. "George Davfs, one of the greatest players the game has ever known, is practically through with the playing end of the season at the sease of the sease as an actor in the diamond struggles and from now on his part in baseball will be confined to the use of his knowledge of the game.

sites and from now on his part in basedan will be confined to the use of his knowledge of the game. "Davis is a strategist and knows base ball from every angle and from top to bottom. He has long been known as the brains of the White Sox infield and his headwork in pinches has often won games for the South Siders. He is getting old and stiffening up and it is certain he is now in his last season as a ball player. "Davis played in New York when at the zenith of his base ball career. He lives in New York and is immensely popular in that part of the country. With his personal popularity and great knowledge of the game, it is thought he will be without an equal as manager of the Highlanders. "Base ball critics have decided that Kid Eiberfeld is a failure as manager on ac-count of his temperament and lack of con-trol. If was known that he was only a makeshift when Frank J. Farreli appointed him manager to succeed Griffith. As a

In the broiling hot sun and dusty dia-mond of Duniap Sunday afternoon the Ant-lers of Omaha defeated Duniap 1 to 1. The game was strongly contested. Duniap tried hard to the the score in the ninth by Dugan covering first on an error at third, Brace-pushing him to second on a base on bails and Cnupp securing a single over second. Ecore: Track fit whe known that he mapping apointed him manager to succeed Griffith. As a shortstop and player Elberfeld is a tower of strength, but as a manager he is an out and put failure. New York wants a manager so badly that Farrell is willing to give up Chars to get a manager, and as he will get a star first baseman in exchange the trade looks mighty good to him. "From the Comiskey angle it looks like an even trade. Davis will be of no value to the Sox on the bench, as Fielder Jones will manage the Sox team as long as he wants the job. It is not Fielder's fault the Sox lose games they should win. This will ellminate Davis from the equation and will make the trade practically Chase for Dono-hue and that is about as even as any trade Score:

eliminate Davis from the equation and will make the trade practically Chase for Dono-bue and that is about as even as any trade "When New York got its place in the American league in 1998, Comlakey volun-tarily gave up Clark Griffith to put the giants. New York is again in dire stratts for a manager to lead them out of the widerness of defeat into which the team has strayed. There is plenty of good base bail material in the Hishlanders and many well informed base bail men picked them to win the pennant this season. For some out of the team when it started its first eastern trip and Clark Griffith worled by the casm when it started its first eastern trip and Clark Griffith worled by the same and the team went all to be the same and the team went all to be the material was Griffith retired from the grame and the team went all to be the starte or bably will not be consum-mated until the end of the season, but it is a safe bet the men will change places when the season of 1990 covers and that data the man to put that ball team on its feet once more."

CHANCE STILL REAL LEADER

Cub Manager Has Not Slowed Up, a Some Have Believed.

Some Have Belleved. Frank Chance, though suffering all year from a sore toce, has not slowed, as some of the more timorous have feared. His batting, base running and general work show that. With but three men in the National league hitting 300, he is eleventh man in the league. In base running he ranks third, Wagner and Murray only having 'stolen more bases than he. Of course, for three years Chance led the league in base running, but that is no sign he can always do it, nor is it an indica-tion of slowing up that he ranks third. No, not while there are such men as Evers, Slagle, Huggins, Titus, Magee, Lo-hert, Knabe, Wagner and Murray in the league. Here is a elipping from the Chicago.

hert, Knabe, Wagner and Murray in the league. Here is a elipping from the Chicago Tribunes which bears on the case of Chance and will strike a fine chord of response, particularly because of its comparison of Chance and Chase, these two native Call-fornians who are too often brought into comparison, when as all-round players there is no comparison between them: "In my opinion, Hai Chase is of little value to Elberfeld this summer,' reinarks a St. Louis rooter. 'Hai is so good that the other Yankees cannot keep up with him. "A big, iumbersome chap like Anderson or Hickman would be of far more use to him. Chase is too fast, both mentally and
