J. A. Morgan, Charged with Horse Stealing at Papillion, Arrested at South Omaha-Geene Cause Trouble.

James Alexander, who was arrested Monday night charged with breaking into box ear on the Rock Island tracks of South Omaha, broke out of jati Wednesday morning by spreading some of the bars over the west window of the north cellroom of the old quarters. He will probably be the last of many, who have succeeded in getting out of the South Omaha Jall; for the prisoners will be in the new cells hereafter.

The escape was made about 9 a, m Wednesday. He had to pass through an area way and past the open door of the fall office to get out, but he did this without being detected. His escape was discovered soon and word was sent to Omalia. The Omaha officers picked him up on the description of a negro, with a green corduroy shirt, a big hat and a squint of the

He and his partner, Robert Riley, were given a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon on his recapture and return. Each one testified under oath that it was the other who had broken the seal of the car, and each testified that the other had boosted him into the car, in a vain hope of getting the better of the decisions of the court. Judge Callahan bound both over to the district court. It is likely that they will plead guilty before the superior court, as they did in the preliminary hearing on cross examination.

Cases of carbreaking have been of almost daily occurrence during the last few months. This car was loaded with wheat, Morgan Placed Under Arrest.
