Involuntary Bankraptcy - Involuntary bankruptcy proceedings have been begun-in the United States district court against Tem Coleman, a farmer of Melia, Sarpy county. The petitioning creditor is Elmer J. Kiddle of Omaha, who alleges a claim of $2.100 and that the bankrupt has sought to transfer certain of his property to hinder and delay the claim of the petitioner.

Merit of Brevity to Commend it-In a settion filed in the district court Saturday for $2,000 damages from the Swift Packing company by Samuel Apostol, there were only seventy-two words. This is about the shortest legal paper of such a character that has appeared in the clerk's office for a long time. The nature of the damages are not stated nor are the circumstances of the alleged "negligence" which was responsible for them.

Boy Sues for Fifteen Thousand-Because one side of his face is now longer than the other, a condition causing him endless embarrassment, and because of other permanent injuries, James Dimas, a minor, has filed suit against the Unio Pacific railroad for $15,000. Is Pe-ru-na Useful for Catarrh?

Should a list of the ingredients of Peruna be submitted to any medical expert, of whatever school or nationality, he would be obliged to admit without reserve that each one of them was of undoubted value in chronic catarrhal diseases and had stood the test of many years' experience in the treatment of such diseases. THERE CAN BE NO DISPUTE ABOUT THIS WHAT-EVER. Peruna is composed of the most efficacious and universally used herbal remedies for catarrh. Every ingredient of Peruna has a reputation of its own in the cure of some phase of catarrh. Peruna brings to the home the COM-BINED KNOWLEDGE OF SEVERAL SCHOOLS OF MEDICINE in the treatment of catarrhal diseases; brings to the home the scientific skill and knowledge of the modern pharmacist; and last but not least, brings to the home the vast and varied experience of Dr. Hartman, in the use of catarrh remedies, and in the treatment of catarrhal diseases. The fact is, chronic catarrh is a disease which is very prevalent. Many thousand people know they have chronic catarrh. They have visited doctors over and over again, and been told that their case is one of chronic catarrh. It may be of the nose, throat, lungs, stomach or some other internal organ. There is no doubt as to the nature of the disease. The only trouble is the remedy. This doctor has tried to cure them. That doctor has tried to prescribe for them.

BUT THEY ALL FAILED TO BRING ANY RELIEF. Dr. Hartman's idea is that a catarrh remedy can be made on a large scale, as he is making it; that it can be made honestly, of the purest drugs and of the strictest uniformity. His idea is that this remedy can be supplied directly to the people, and no more be charged for it than is necessary for the handling of it.

No other household remedy so universally advertised carries upon the label the principal active constituents, showing that Peruna invites the full inspection of the critics.

CLARK CAN'T BE AT LINCOLN

Not See Bryan Shocked.

Besides That, He is Subject to Heart Disease and Cannot Repeat the Shock as at Esopus.

Champ Clark, sage of Bowling Green. Mo., prospective leader of the democratic majority in the house of representatives and Chautauqua lecturer, had time to slip up on A. B. Parker of Esopus four years ago and startle him with the information that "six million people have nominated you for the presidency"-the number shrunk by November-but he won't have that much time next Wednesday, when Congressman Clayton of Alabama explodes similar bomb on the state house grounds

But Colonel Clark has a splendid excuse "I will lose $150 and get a law suit on my hands if I go to Mr. Bryan's nomination," says Clark, who has always had the reputation of being a humorist. "You see, it's this way. I am lecturing for one of these Chautauqua bureaus and their laws are like the laws of the Medes and Porsians. They exact a rigid fulfillment of their contracts or they sue.'

So, there you are. This Chautauqua bureau does not propose to starve the good people who are hungering for that morsel of intellectual food which Champ Clark has promised to hand them on August 12, not even to allow Mr. Clark to go to Afraid of the Shock.

There is another rumor bearing on this matter, but Mr. Clark would not confirm it. It is said he has a weak heart and was scarcely able to survive the excitement incident to the Parker surprise party, let alone going through another such ordeal. But Mr. Clark plights anew his fealty to the Peerless Leader lest some there be who may attribute sinister motives to his absence from Lincoln next Wednesday. "It will not make any difference whether

I am at Lincoln Wednesday or not. I endorse what Bryan will say anyhow and he knows it. "Judge Taft's speech of acceptance would have been better if it had been condensed to about one-fourth of the space. But he went to the wrong fellow for a condenser. > AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA Odd Pellows of Magic City Surprise Rebekahs with Cantaloupe City.

A social treat was furnished to the Rebekaha Friday evening by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The members of the latter lodge have been planning a surprise for several weeks and last evening after the Rebekahs had held their initiation the Odd Fellows filed into the hall, marched around several times and then lined up to salute the noble grand of the Rebekaha. The march was followed by a quartet selection by the Pioneer quartet, omposed of Messrs. Campbell, Brown, Carley and Kellogg. Then the Odd Fellows retired to the kitchen and brought out banquet tables already spread and set them up for a one-course collation consisting of cantalope a-la-mode. This was followed by toasts by Messrs. Zerbe, Coulter, Etter, Brewer, Gosney and others. Attorney E. T. Farnsworth was toastmaster. The Rebekahs on their part were represented by Mrs. C. L. Talbot and the noble grand of the order. The program was closed by a volunteer trio and the Pioneer quartet.

> Question to, If Jim Docun't Run Will He Boost Tem or George, Both of Whom Are Jimst

The election of Thomas J. Flynn, street ommissioner, as president of the Dahlnan Democracy club in the city half is considered as a stepping stone to the namination for mayor and it is no longer denied that Mr. Flynn will be a candidate. for Mayor Jim's shoes, providing the mayor stays out of the race. The street commissloper smiles sweetly when asked about his mayoralty campaign, but does not deny hat he will contest with George Rogers for the democratic nomination next spring. meeting on Wednesday night.

Jacks, who say that American-born citizens cannot get a position on the streets under Street Commissioner Flynn, have cked out his "cabinet" should he be lected. Among his appointees are classed the following: Antenio Pouto, health commissioner; Napoleon Marano, license inspector; Christopher Macaroni, street commissioner: Prospero Salvidore, custodian of the city hall, and Gimi Mancuso, electrician. * And right here arises an interesting sitnation. It will be recalled that when the mayor, the other day, was asked if he had inspired the Rogers boom he deftly dodged the question by saying that "George is a good man and has been a strong friend of mine, but it is too early for statements on that yet." "Too early for what?" asks some ertinent democrats. And the answer comes, either Jim Dahiman is counting on running for mayor himself or he is for Flyan instead of Rogers.

Meantime Jim is in Texas. Jacksonians are outspoken in their belief that Jim Dahlman will get such-a licking in that governor race that he won't be able to rally a corporal's guard to his support for mayor or poundmaster.
