Rev. R. D. Barthe Ministerial Accident—Rev. R. D. Barthe, assistant pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church, is suffering from a severe injury to one of his eyes. While attending a funeral Sunday afternoon, just as the funeral cortege was passing in front of the city hall, a particle of dirt flew into the carriage window, striking him in the right eye. The eyeball was somewhat lacerated by the foreign particle and he has been under treatment of the hospital physicians since. The injury, while quite painful, is not necessarily serious.

Judge McHugh's Brother Drowns—James McHugh, brother of Judge William D. McHugh of Omaha, was drowned at Lake Minnetonka, Minn., Sunday evening while in bathing. Judge McHugh received the information Monday that his brother was stricken by a sudden heart failure while in bathing. Mr. McHugh was president of the McHugh-Christensen Lumber company of Minneapolis and was quite prominent in the business life of that city. He was 51 years of age and had many friends in Omaha, where he has visited many times. Judge McHugh and three sisters will attend the funeral, which will be held at Minneapolis Wednesday.

Senator Long to Retire. TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 10.—It was announced here today that Senator Chester Long will at the expiration of his term of office retire from politics and devote himself to the practice of law at Medicine Lodge.

WOMAN'S POWER. The healthy woman; strong mentally and physically, whose ambition and magnetic influence vouches to deeds of grandeur and heroism such women are all-powerful. Weak, sick and ailing women have little ambition; their own troubles occupy all their thoughts. They dwell upon their pains, suffer from nervousness and headaches; often are extremely melancholy, and avoid society. For thirty years LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND has been saving women from this awful condition.

Mrs. Louise Jung, of 332 Chestnut St., Detroit, Mich., writes: "I suffered from a very severe female weakness for a long time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, restored my health. I hope it will do other women as much good as it has me." Mrs. Emma Wheaton, of Vienna, W. Va., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was a walking shadow. My husband insisted upon my writing to you and trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did. It relieved all my pains and misery, and made of me a very different woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulcerations, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it? Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Catholic Workmen Conduct Dedication of Banner. MANY PRESENT AT CEREMONIES. Observance Strictly of Religious Character—Addresses Partake of Patriotic Nature—Sermon by Dr. R. L. Wheeler.

St. Joseph's Order of Catholic Workmen conducted a banner dedication yesterday afternoon at the Church of the Assumption, of the Bohemian Catholic church. The formalities consisted of a street parade, in which the lodge, which is newly organized, with a membership of ninety, was assisted by the Bohemian Turners, the St. James Order of Catholic Workmen, and the orders St. Peter and St. Paul. The same orders in Omaha were present with three large delegations. The marching column of men was three or four blocks long, headed by Franks's band. The standard bearers of the new lodge carried the new banner furled. The banners of the other orders and the national ensign were displayed. After they had marched through the principal streets from L to Twentieth and Q streets they were joined by 200 women in line who accompanied them to the Bohemian Catholic church at Twentieth and W streets. The exercises there were conducted by Fathers Vranek and Chundelak. Father Vranek is from Omaha. The ceremonies were mostly ritualistic, being one of the fixed rites of the Bohemian church. The standard religious order, although the addresses by the fathers partook much of the patriotic strain. These orders of the Catholic societies are especially strong in South Omaha.

All the speeches were in the Bohemian tongue. This is the first banner which the new lodge has received. Dr. R. L. Wheeler's sermon on the enjoyment of temporal blessings at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning was one of the most energetic and enlivening themes which the pioneer minister has presented in his pulpit. He was the subject of my thought today. I am not referring to the spiritual blessings of life, but its temporal objects of love and affection. I know some pious people who are disappearing from the earth. I am glad to say, who always seemed to have a mistaken view of life. They considered it all evil and desperately wicked. Not one of them had ever knelt down and thanked God for his own creation. They considered themselves bankrupt here with not a joy worth mentioning, expecting to get it all in heaven. They continually sang that old song: "Oh, Jordan's stream, banks I stand, and cast a wistful eye, To Canaan's fair and happy land, Where many possessors lie."

"I have felt that way, I confess, but it was when I was farthest from God, when I had the blues and on the verge of falling in the abyss of despair. At other times I rejoice in the things God has set around me. Men ought to use every one of the gifts which the temporal life affords, not to abuse his privileges. If we go through this life dissatisfied with all God's creation how can our bickering, fault-finding minds be satisfied with the best that heaven's peace affords. Begin your heaven here or you will never have one. We are not the inhabitants of a wicked world, but the creation of an insufficient God with the devil at the helm, but instead of our sky being a void with a few rainless clouds, crazy stars and terrifying thunder it is, or should be, in our conception, all order, perfection and content with God in that heaven and all right with the world below. Lyric Theater Until Thursday. A great new picture, "The Eleventh Hour," would give five other pictures. Continuous performance. Prof. McMillan, pianist, draws big crowds.

Magie City Gossip. Jetter's Gold Top Beer delivered to any part of the city by the Highlanders and the Fraternal Order of Eagles and many friends of the family. The South Omaha Central Labor union will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The regular semi-annual election of officers will be conducted. Action will be taken on plans for a labor day program. The announcement that Mrs. D. L. Holmes and Mrs. A. H. Murdock would entertain the ladies of the city Thursday is an error. Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Murdock will, however, give the use of their lawns Tuesday evening for an ice cream social, to which all friends of the church are invited.

Don't fail to attend the auction sale of jewelry of the late R. Huberman Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. 13th and Douglas Sts. KEIFER MAY ACT FOR HAYWARD. But Vice Chairman of Republican Committee is Candidate for Office and Another May Serve.

Colonel William C. Hayward, chairman of the republican committee, who has just been appointed secretary of the national committee, left for Lincoln yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The appointment of Mr. Hayward to the national secretaryship does not materially change the plans of the republican state committee and the work will go on uninterrupted. If Mr. Hayward finds that his new duties will at once demand his attention and make it impossible for him to do all the work which he has planned to do as the head of the Nebraska committee, it is likely that Vice Chairman J. Warren Keifer, Jr., of Neuchaolls county will step in and take an active part in the state committee work. But Mr. Keifer is a candidate for re-election to the legislature, and being personally interested in the election, may not feel that he can act in the capacity of state chairman for any considerable time. But whatever arrangement is made will be only temporary, as the entire committee will be renewed in September under the state primary laws. This new or renewed committee will then elect its officers and it is but a short time until this will be done.

LINCOLN, Aug. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Corrick of the state republican committee tonight received for Chairman Hayward the official announcement of his appointment as secretary of the national committee, which was made at once forwarded it to Mr. Hayward at Norfolk, where he had gone from Omaha to attend a conference of party workers of the state. The notification was from National Chairman Hitchcock. It is understood here that Mr. Hayward will be called east at once, probably next week. The selection of Chairman Hayward of the republican state committee as secretary

At the Theaters. Moving Pictures at the Burwood. From the audiences that witnessed the initial showing of the new program at the Burwood Sunday afternoon and evening one would conclude that this week's bill is above the usual high standard set by the management. A wide range of subjects are presented, the pictures including humorous, dramatic and instructive series, and the overture and synchroscope numbers are pleasing. One of the most interesting pictures is entitled "Tales the Searchlight Told," and depicts the various activities to be seen at Coney Island. Henry Farm's arship is shown in another set. "The Resurrection" at the Air Dome. A dramatization of Tolstoy's most famous "Resurrection" is being played at the Air Dome this week, in five acts, by the Hillman stock company, and a capably understood witness the first performance Sunday evening. Mr. Hillman plays the part of Prince Dmitri and Miss Hayes is taking the part of Katusha. An extra large cast appears in the production and vaudeville and illustrated songs provide added amusement between the acts. MORE MONEY FARTHER WEST. Prosperity Increases, Says Colonel Cody, as He Travels Toward Omaha. "The farther west we come the more prosperous the people seem," writes Colonel W. F. Cody to the sporting editor of The Bee. Colonel Cody was writing from Jackson, Mich., and he said the afternoon house at that place was the largest the show had exhibited to since he returned from his five years abroad. He said they had done nothing but big business since he had reached the west enroute to Omaha, where his show was organized in 1888. He says he is looking forward to his visit to Omaha, as he wants his Omaha friends to see what a giant show he is carrying around the country this year, showing the people of the east the wild west scenes as they existed forty years ago. While Captain William McCune has practically recovered from his indisposition which compelled him to leave the show he will remain in Omaha until the Wild West arrives. PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. MARRIED WOMEN. Every woman covets a shapely figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this liniment prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend makes the danger of child-birth less, and carries her safely through this critical period. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this remedy. $1.00 per bottle. Book mailed free to all expectant mothers. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
