RUSH NOW ON AUDITORIUM

President Nash Hopes for Completion in Sixty Days.

TO RESUME CAMPAIGN FOR CASH

Says if Ten Persons Will Give Hundred Dollars Each the Thing is Done—Real Estate Exchange Will Pay.

"If ten persons will give $100 each we can, I believe, begin work on the Auditorium and complete it in less than sixty days. I want to begin this work not later than September 1," said E. A. Nash, president of the Auditorium company.

"The Real Estate exchange will make good. Wherever the money is needed for the Auditorium or corn show I will take my committee and go out and get the amounts which the exchange thought we could raise," said Byron Hastings, chairman of the committee appointed to secure the money.

With these plans materializing it now appears the Auditorium will be completed in first-class shape for the National Corn exposition. J. Wilkes Jones, manager, said: "We would like to have blue prints made at once and know just how things will be arranged, as there are applications for space and the concessions are to be sold. I would like to make these blue prints at once."

Mr. Nash said he had been very busy during the last week assisting in financing a $40,000 manufacturing concern for Omaha and hoped to get out and do active work clearing up the Auditorium proposition.

"Can it be said that you will let contracts within two weeks for the roof?" he was asked.

Hopes So, at Least.

"Well, I hope we can. But I am opposed to starting a thing until we have all the money in the bank we will need. I do not believe it will be long before this is done and we will begin just as soon as we can."

With the Auditorium completed, it will make a beautiful "corn palace" for the big national show and it is favored by the board of directors above any scheme to erect an exposition building.

It is estimated that more than 200,000 persons will attend the National Corn exposition—perhaps 300,000. This will be on the average of 25,000 to 30,000 per day. The receipts will be large and the concessions will bring another large sum. The Auditorium company can well afford to complete the building, in the minds of those interested.

The National Corn exposition is being well advertised. It has attracted the attention of the country from Boston harbor to the Bay of San Francisco. It promises in every way to be much larger than was at first planned.
