AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Slow Progress Being Made in Public Work Up to Date.

GREATEST DELAYS IN SEWERS Contractors Busy Tearing Down the Old Q Street Viaduct—Stranger Succeeds in Passing Worthless Check.

The public improvements in progress in South Omaha have been moving rather slowly during the summer and few of the contracts have been graded contracts. The larger sewer contracts are in a state of rest at present owing to difficulties encountered which the company has not been able to overcome. The paving contracts are moving better. Yesterday the National Road company began laying in the concrete base of the paving on Twenty-fifth street. After the concrete gang has about a week start the layers of the paving block will begin. The work will be completed early in September. The Q street paving contract is progressing at about the same rate and will reach completion at about the same time. The street has needed the improvement for years and at no time so much as during the wet season this spring. This paving will connect the present paving with the concrete base of the viaduct on the county road leading west past Seymour lake. The contractors for the erection of the new viaduct on Q street are working as rapidly as possible on the task of removing the old viaduct. The approach is all down and the men are busy taking out the heavy beams and girders. This will require several weeks. The west approach has been removed and the company is ready to put in the concrete pillars for the support of the new arches.

Passes Worthless Checks.

A man giving his name as John Clark has caused the business men of the city considerable annoyance and succeeded in securing some money on a worthless check last week. He attempted to pass a check for $4 on M. D. Mann & Son in payment for a ton of coal, hoping to get the balance in cash. The company could not cash the check as it was after banking hours. They sent the coal, however, to a fictitious address. The man succeeded in passing the check on N. E. Carter for an order of artificial sin. He received a check for $4 and made away with it. A slight examination of the check when it was presented at the Packers' National bank showed that it was made out by the man who had signed the endorsement on the back. No such man as James Clark, by whom the check was supposedly issued, was a depositor at the Packers' bank.

Golden Wedding Celebration.

Hugh Lawson Welsh and Mrs. Mary Dorcas Welsh celebrated their fiftieth anniversary Monday afternoon and evening. They were married in Clay county, Kentucky. Both were born and raised in Lincoln. Mr. Welsh is now 72 years old and his wife is 68. They have raised six boys and two daughters. They have been residents of South Omaha for eighteen years. Will, Leon and H. B. Welsh, the sons, were present to celebrate the anniversary. A number of the near friends of the family were also present.

REPORTS OF BUMPER CHOP

News Gathered by Railroads Indicates an Enormous Yield of Corn in Nebraska.

Railroad reports continue to indicate that Nebraska is quite liable to have a bumper crop this year, some of the reports saying that nothing but an early frost will now be able to head it off. While the soil was getting somewhat dry last week there was considerable rain over the state and this week the showers and rains have wet almost the entire state, again putting the soil in a most favorable condition for growing crops.

Grand Island had two inches of rain last week and other places where there was a good rainfall for the week were: Burwell, 1 inch; Sutton, 1.5 inches; Clay Center, 1.4 inches; Palmer, 1.5 inches; Kearney, 1 inch; Brownville, 1 inch; Nebraska City, 1.15 inches; Wilber, 1.05 inches; Odell, 1.35 inches; Edgar, 1.05 inches; Norton, 2 inches; Minden, 3 inches; and Oxford, 2 inches.

Following the rains of last week came heavy showers Monday night, Tuesday and Tuesday night in many parts of the corn-producing sections of the state. The Burlington crop reports show a splendid condition of affairs so far as crops are concerned. It is shown that the crop is secure against everything but a frost.

The last Burlington report shows that corn in nearly every section of the state was in a most excellent condition, with a little rain needed. That rain has come and the crop prospects on the Lincoln division were reported at 85 per cent of an average crop on the report of last week and the recent rains should raise that estimate.

Wheat is threshing out better than the previous reports indicated and other small grain is harvested and is about as reported. Potatoes will make an average crop in Nebraska.

Wyoming reports a good crop of oats, which are nearly all cut. Corn is doing fine on the Alliance and Sterling division. Potatoes are doing fine and digging will start in about ten days. A big crop is expected. The recent rains have put the meadows and pastures in fine condition and the farmers are busy putting up hay.
