Northern League Disbands.

John Russell Young. DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 11-The Northern DULUTH, Minn., Aug. IL-The Northern base ball league has gone to pieces. The race in the four club circuit has narrowed down to Brandon and Winnipeg, with Pargo trailing badly. The attendance was se poor at Fargo that Disinth and Pargo decided to drop out, leaving Brandon and Winnipeg to play a series for the pennant. Duluth will play independent ball for the remainder of the season.

find some good picking. Too bad Lincoln players cannot find it possible to preserve harmony within their own ranks. The display of friction on the grounds Wednesday was not only fatal to Manager Fox's learn, but unpleasant to the spectators. Manager Fox is a hard working player and manager and so far as could be determined from the grand-stand, did or said nothing that justified Bonno in his peevishness. Bonno lacks the ability to pltch as good uphill as down-hill ball and it is just that lack that may keep him out of faster company. He made two bad breaks, once in failing to cover first on a hit and again in failing to run out a short hit of his own on which be could have made the base.
