BOSS MURPHY IS FOR BRYAN

Says Dissatisfaction with Roosevelt's Policies Will Help Nebraskan.

DEMOCRATS PLAN CONFERENCE

Heads of Bureau and National Committees Will Meet Bryan in Chicago on August 22 and 23.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, gave out an interview today in which he declared that his view of the political situation in New York state is that "the democracy is going to win this year." Of Mr. Bryan the Tammany chieftain said:

"Mr. Bryan is a stronger in the state than he was either in 1896 or 1900. Why, I do not exactly know yet, but the fact remains that there is a variety of evidence on which to base belief in his increased popularity. "One reason, I think, lies in dissatisfaction with Roosevelt and Rooseveltian policies—too much automatic rule and swinging for the big stick. A great many men who sided with the republican party in the past will not do so this year. It means something when men like Judge Morgan, J. O'Brien and Delancey Nicolli, who opposed Bryan in the past, are now going to vote for him."

"Will Mr. Bryan, at the head of the national ticket, be a help to the state democratic ticket instead of a drag, as in the past?" was asked. "Yes, I think his name will be of material assistance this year. We endorse the ticket and platform heartily and shall go right to work for it."

Plan Democratic Conference.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The democratic national committee is planning for a general conference of heads of bureau and national committees, while William J. Bryan is here on August 22 and 23, and all plans for the campaign will be submitted to the candidate for his approval. Chairman Mack said today that Mr. Bryan would probably leave for Indianapolis and attend the Kern notification at noon on August 24. It was stated at headquarters today that campaign funds are coming in glowily both here and at Guthrie, Okla., the home of Governor Haskell, the treasurer of the national committee. Colonel Wetmore, head of the finance bureau, left for Wisconsin today on business connected with the committee. The speakers' bureau announced today that General J. E. Weaver of Iowa, the populist presidential candidate in 1896, will speak at Galena, Ill., on August 21 for Mr. Bryan.

GATES ON SHOShONE TUNNEL

Important Step in Big Irrigation Work in Wyoming.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—(Special.)—The reclamation service this morning was advised that the high pressure gates to the outlet tunnel of the Shoshone in the Wyoming reservoir have been successfully installed and that water is flowing through the tunnel.

This marks an important step in the construction of what will be the highest dam in the world, which the government is erecting in the canyon of the Shoshone river in northern Wyoming for the storage of water to irrigate 150,000 acres of land in the vicinity of Cody. These gates are placed in the outlet tunnel, passing through the solid granite cliff around the right end of the dam. The elevation of this tunnel is 330 feet below the top of the dam and the reservoir capacity between the mouth of the tunnel and the crest of the dam is 200,000 acre feet. For the purpose of controlling the discharge of water through this outlet tunnel three large cast iron sluice gates have been installed, each seven and a half feet long and four and a half feet wide, weighing 10,000 pounds.

The Shoshone dam block a narrow gorge in the river. It will rise 110 feet above its foundation. It is 168 feet long on the bottom and only 135 feet long on the top. The dam will create a lake with a superficial area of about ten square miles and an average depth of something like seventy feet. Twelve feet below the dam a diversion dam has been built. This dam divides the stream through the tunnel three and one-fourth miles into the large canal. The system has now reached a point where water can be delivered to 15,000 acres and settlers, principally from the middle states, are now taking up their homes on the harder vegetables, and fruit can be produced abundantly when water is applied. There is abundant fuel in coal mines in the vicinity and lumber in the nearby forests.

Probably 10,000 acres for which water is now available is now open to entry.

Democratic Amenities in the Third District

My dear Mr. ...

In the coming Primary election in September you will find my name on the ballot as a candidate for Congress, subject to the will of the Democratic and Populist voters of this Congressional District. I think I owe it to you to tell you something of my history so you may judge as to my fitness for the office, and to this end I am enclosing you a circular prepared by a friend setting forth the main facts. I hope you will be interested enough to read it, as the choosing of a Congressman is really an important matter, and you will have as much voice in the choosing as any other man.

I am also sending you The Commoner, edited by Nebraska's famous citizen, W. J. Bryan, in order that you may know the principles he advocates, and which I heartily endorse, and the laws we propose to favor should we win in this contest. You will do me a kindness by receiving this paper, free of cost to you, and reading it each week. It is a most ably edited publication and absolutely reliable in all its statements and arguments.

I will consider it a great favor if, after you have carefully, and I hope favorably, considered my candidacy, you will write me assuring me that I may depend upon your voting at the primaries, in order that my nomination may be assured. It is as important for you to vote at the primaries if you favor my candidacy as at the election. May I hear from you soon?

Yours very truly,
James P. Latta
Democratic and Populist Candidate for Congress.

MOB IS STILL BUSY

of a street railway conductor. While the woman slept alone in her home on a populous residence street, awaiting the return of her husband, the man broke into the house, dragged her into the rear yard and assaulted her.

Before noon George Richardson, a young negro, was arrested by the sheriff's force, charged with the crime. The victim partially identified the prisoner. Crowds quickly gathered about the jail, but Sheriff Warner's force and the police were able to preserve order until daylight without difficulty.

Arrested Negro Spirited Away.

Shortly after 10 o'clock a successful ruse was worked by the authorities and Richardson was spirited away to safety. With the assembled crowds held at bay by the officers, a false run by the fire department temporarily drew the attention of the crowd, during which time the prisoner was hurried down an adjoining alley and at the first corner was pushed into an automobile owned by Harry T. Loper, a restaurant keeper, who had been sworn in as a deputy sheriff.

Before the crowd realized what had happened Richardson was being rushed to a point north of the city, where a Chicago & Alton train was stopped and he was put aboard with a heavy guard and conveyed to Bloomington and later was taken to Peoria.

Along with Richardson was taken Joe James, another negro prisoner in the county jail, who is accused of killing Clergy Ballard, a state mine inspector, after attempting an assault upon Ballard's daughter.

Ballard went to his daughter's rescue and was stabbed to death.

Mob Gathers at Jail.

Immediately after the darkness had gathered crowds assembled in the vicinity of the county jail. The mood of the masses was ugly and appeals by Sheriff Warner were without effect. The sheriff offered to let a committee from the crowd search the jail, assuring them that the negroes were gone.

"We will all go through," shouted one in the crowd and the cry was taken up by hundreds.

Then some one in the crowd mentioned that Harry Loper, the restaurant man, had furnished the automobile in which the escape of the prisoners had been effected.

"On to Loper's!" he shouted, and by this

SELF DELUSION.

Many People Deceived by Coffee.

We like to defend our indulgences and habits even though we may be convinced of their actual harmfulness. A man can convince himself that whiskey is good for him on a cold morning, or beer on a hot summer day—when he wants the whiskey or beer. It's the same with coffee. Thousands of people suffer headache and nervousness year after year but try to persuade themselves the cause is not coffee—because they like coffee.

"While yet a child I commenced using coffee and continued it," writes a Wis. man, "until I was a regular coffee fiend. I drank it every morning and in consequence had a blinding headache nearly every afternoon."

"My folks thought it was coffee that ailed me, but I liked it and would not admit it was the cause of my trouble, so I stuck to coffee and the headaches stuck to me."

"Finally, the folks stopped buying coffee and brought home some Postum. They made it right (direction on pkg.) and told me to see what difference it would make with my head, and during that first week on Postum my old affliction did not bother me once. From that day to this I have used nothing but Postum in place of coffee—headaches are a thing of the past and the whole family is in fine health."

"Postum looks good, smells good, tastes good, is good, and does good to the whole body." "There's a Reason."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkg.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

THE MADDENED MOB WAS READY FOR SIGHTING.

A rush was made upon Loper's restaurant, five blocks away. The proprietor was warned, but, failing to appreciate the seriousness of the situation, did not attempt to escape until the mob was upon the place.

He was pushed by employees of the place, together with his wife, into a basement room, in temporary safety.

Loper's Restaurant Demolished.

Short work was made of the restaurant. The automobile in which the rescue had been effected had been left in front of the place. It was quickly turned upside down and fire was set to the machine.

While the machine blazed frenzied hundreds poured into the cafe, tore fixtures and decorations from their places and piled them upon the blaze. Even the sideboards and kitchen were stripped, and all the tableware and dishes piled upon the blaze.

The fire department, which had been called out half a dozen times in efforts to disperse the crowds, again made a run to the restaurant, but was powerless. Every line of hose that was stretched was cut before a stream of water could be forced into it. The restaurant was stripped clean by the mob which worked without hindrance until its work was nearly completed.

The local companies of militia, consisting of a company of infantry, a troop of cavalry and a galling gun section, which had been ordered out by Governor Deneen early in the afternoon, was busy with the situation in the vicinity of the jail and the local authorities had no men to spare at the scene of the Loper riot. Finally, in a desperate effort to restore order, the cavalry troop was dispatched to the restaurant.

Air Filled with Shots.

Then the rioting broke loose in serious form. Shots were fired and the air was filled with missiles. Many fell in the melee, and it was here that Louis Johnson met his death. After the mob had moved to other scenes Johnson's body was picked up in the rear of Loper's place.

After the rioting had subsided, the entrance was forced to these places and stocks of merchandise turned topsy turvy in the search for refugees.

Attacks were made upon several store buildings in which it was believed the negroes had been secreted. Entrance was forced to these places and stocks of merchandise turned topsy turvy in the search for refugees.

Shortly before midnight, the mob broke into Fishman's pawnshop and secured a quantity of rifles, shotguns, revolvers and ammunition. With these they armed themselves and started to march the streets in absolute control of the situation.

Chafin Protects Negro.

"Stand back, gentlemen, or I'll shoot everyone of you who touches this man," were the words of Eugene W. Chafin, prohibition candidate for president, who faced a mob that had attacked a negro while Mr. Chafin was delivering a public address on the east side of the square last night.

For this act Chafin was struck on the left side of the face with a brickbat hurled at him by a member of the mob.

Chafin was well along in his speech when a negro pursued by a mob, came toward the speaker's stand from Fifth and Washington streets, where he had been pulled from a street car.

The crowd closed in on the negro, and had him on the ground, beating him with their hats and clubs. The negro finally got away and jumped on the platform.

It was at this point that Mr. Chafin stepped to the front of the mob, put his hand to his hip pocket and threatened to shoot anyone who touched the negro. Mr. Chafin's threat had the desired effect, although he had no weapon.

During the fight the negro pulled a knife from his pocket and slashed several white men. Mr. Chafin was not seriously injured. James Scott was struck by a stray bullet and almost instantly killed.

Mob Lynches Negro.

After burning many houses in the negro quarter, the mob, which became more and more desperate, as the night passed, finally gratified its thirst for blood this morning at the corner of Twelfth and Madison streets, right in the heart of the so-called "bad lands."

Troops arrived at the scene too late to prevent the lynching. Some of the mem-

MEMBERS OF THE MOB DECLARED THAT THE NEGRO LYNCHED HAD SHOT TWO WHITE MEN.

They said that in a fight with the whites the negro was forced into a corner at the saloon and grocery, on the corner of Twelfth and Madison. When retreat was cut off the negro is said to have opened fire, wounding two.

Then came the cry, "Get the rope."

All the members of the mob eagerly took up the cry. The negro was caught and dragged to the street. Here he was beaten and shot five times and then a rope was swung around his neck and the other end of the rope thrown over the limb of a tree in front of the store. With a cry of satisfaction the negro was swung high off the ground. He was dead in a few moments.

Dance Around Swinging Body.

After ridding the body with bullets the mob commenced to dance around the tree at this point a company of troops from Decatur arrived and commenced firing, causing the rioters to disperse in a hurry. By daylight the streets had practically been cleared and the troops were in control of the situation.

Governor Deneen was at his office all night personally directing the calling out of the militia.

Harry T. Loper, owner of the restaurant destroyed, said:

"I have been through one riot in Cincinnati in 1883, the greatest in this country, when 100 men were killed. It was to avoid loss of life that I took those men out of town. I did not favor the men; I have no interest in them, but I would not have just as far to punish them as anybody else, after going through the Cincinnati riot and knowing this sheriff as I do, I knew he would be killed first before he would let the jail be taken. I thought I would save lives by removing the colored men."

"I would not shoot a single man to protect my place and I only shot into the crowd when in personal danger myself. I would not kill a single man to save my place."

Troops Rushed to Springfield.

The following are the companies of state troops called to suppress further rioting: Companies G and L, First infantry, and Company L, Fifth infantry, all of Peoria; Company C, Fifth infantry, all of Peoria; and the galling gun section, all of Springfield; Company C, Fifth infantry; Troop D, First cavalry, and the galling gun section of Springfield; Company F, Third infantry, Pontiac; Troop G, First cavalry, Peoria, and the following companies from the Fifth infantry: B, Taylorville; A, Pekin; B, Bloomington; F, Quincy; H, Decatur; I, Danville, and L, Peoria; Bloomington, Peoria, Pekin and Decatur companies are here at 7 o'clock this morning.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The first regiment of infantry, Illinois National Guard, was this morning ordered to proceed immediately to Springfield to assist in preserving the peace of that city.

The call to arms was immediately promulgated by Colonel Sanborn and a telegram was sent to Governor Deneen stating that the regiment would leave Chicago on an afternoon train.

The other important feature of the course will be a laboratory which will probably be equipped for a class of about 150. Here laboratory work in the preparation of foods will be carried on at least twice a day and special attention being given to meats and cereals. These classes will be conducted by a most experienced teacher. Owing to the expense incidental to the equipment and maintenance of this laboratory and the lecture course, a small fee will be charged. For women desiring to attend only the lectures and the other privileges except the laboratory work, season tickets will be issued at a small cost, these tickets also admitting to the other attractions and exhibits of the exposition.

That the advantages of this course may be extended to the women out of town, the management of the exposition has arranged with the Young Women's Christian association to provide dormitories and chaperonage for young women who may come for the ten days. These visiting women will probably be provided for in the association rooms and special rates will be made by the association for their meals. A plan is also being considered for lodging them free of charge, beds to be provided if the women provide their own bed linen.
