

We Don't Sell Our Loans

Our state laws render our notes and mortgages absolutely non-negotiable. They are, therefore, always in this-of-fer, so that a borrower of this Association has only to do with us after his loan is closed. He will find this much more satisfactory than remitting money east, with exchange charges and with the difficulty of securing abstract and insurance papers, etc. in case of sale, and when he desires to repay the loan there is no delay in securing of us his release of mortgage.

agricultural, dairy and live stock production for 1907 aggregated over $300,000,000. The packing houses turned out food products last year valued at $12,000,000. The promise for this year is equally good. The corn crop is estimated to be 75 per cent of the full crop while wheat is 70 per cent. But the high prices reigning insure as much, if not more money than in previous years. The prosperity they have enjoyed has enabled the farmers to pay off mortgages, to erect new houses and outbuildings, to put money aside. Since 1904, according to official figures, the value of farm land has increased by $61,000,000.

LEADERS CONFER IN BOSTON

Third of Big Conferences of Republicans Held.

EARLY NEW ENGLAND ELECTIONS

Vermont and Maine to Vote Before Rest of Nation—Reports on Effectiveness of Campaign Speakers.

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—The third of the big district conferences, which are a feature of the management of the republican campaign by Chairman Hitchcock, is being held here today at the Hotel Touraine.
At this meeting all of the national committeemen of the New England states are present. Greater importance is attached to the gathering than to those held in Colorado Springs and Chicago because of the early elections in Vermont and Maine and the effect that strong campaigning in these states will have on the rest of the country. The conference is chiefly for the purpose of arranging details of the campaign, such as assignment of speakers, the gathering of funds to carry on work, the distribution of literature and other routine matters. The state leaders will make known their wishes in relation to speakers upon literature and the national committee will meet the demands as far as possible.
Many strong speakers have been assigned to Vermont and Maine already and others popular in these states will be sent there as rapidly as they become available. A strong effort will be made to hold the republican vote recorded in 1904 in order to influence voters in other parts of the country.

At the opening of the conference Mr. Hitchcock made a brief statement. He explained that it had been decided to have sent to national headquarters reports upon the effectiveness of speakers, and he said there should be no hesitancy on the part of the directors of this branch of the work to withdraw any speaker who failed to make a good impression.

KERN YET TO BE NOTIFIED

He and Mr. Bryan Will Divide Attention at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 24.—Transportation companies, both railroad and traction, have planned to accommodate a great crowd tomorrow, which it is expected will be attracted to the formal dedication of John W. Kern, democratic candidate for vice president, of his nomination. There traction lines and fourteen railroads radiate from this city, and special trains will be run tomorrow on all of them.

William Jennings Bryan, Chairman Norman E. Mack of the national committee, Chairman James H. Lloyd of the national executive committee, Theodore E. Bell, chairman of the notification committee, members of the two committees and other party leaders will reach the city this evening and will be given a reception at the Denison hotel, owned by Thomas Taggart, former national chairman.
Mr. Bryan and National Chairman Mack will be entertained at the home of Mr. Kern, 128 North Pennsylvania street. Tomorrow morning a land concert and informal reception will be given at the hotel and after a luncheon the visitors in twenty-four automobiles will be driven to the state fair grounds, four miles north of the hotel, where stands the Coliseum, in which the exercises will be held.

Banks Object to Law.
Omaha and South Omaha bankers appeared before the State Board of Equalization this afternoon to protest against an increase in the assessment of the banks of Douglas county. The board contemplated an increase of 10 per cent, because the banks deducted 3 per cent of the loans upon making their returns to the assessor. C. F. McGrew, in speaking for the bankers, said the Douglas county banks were assessed at their value and there should be no increase. He showed that the assessed value was greater even than was the actual value at which the stock sells. The following bankers were here: C. F. McGrew, Omaha National; F. H. Davis, First National; Frank Moriarty, Packers National; J. F. Coak, Merchants National; J. C. French, South Omaha National.

BRYAN LEAVES FOR INDIANA

His Itinerary for September is Nearly Arranged.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—William J. Bryan, accompanied by National Chairman Mack, Senator Charles A. Culberson and members of the democratic national committee, departed from Chicago at noon today on the Monon railroad for Indianapolis to attend the notification of John W. Kern for vice president.
Chairman Mack said today that he expected to announce shortly Mr. Bryan's itinerary as it has been arranged for the next month. The itinerary will carry the democratic candidate through the middle west, West Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey and New York. Senator Culberson, who is head of the advisory committee, is being pressed to accept the chairmanship of the eastern subcommittee, which will be announced within a few days. Senator Culberson does not feel that he should accept, as his duties will prevent him from giving his full time to the work of managing the eastern campaign. Assistant Secretary John R. Burton of New York is making a fight to obtain the appointment of chairman of the New York headquarters.

After several years of indigestion and its attendant evil influence on the mind, it is not very surprising that one finally loses faith in things generally.
A N. Y. woman writes an interesting letter. She says:
"Three years ago I suffered from an attack of peritonitis which left me in a most miserable condition. For over two years I suffered from nervousness, weak heart, shortness of breath, could not sleep, stopped medicine and did not care much whether I lived or died."
"One day a friend asked me why I didn't try Postum. I had lost faith in coffee, and use Postum. I had lost faith in everything, but to please my friends I began to use both and soon became very fond of them."
"It wasn't very long before I got some strength, felt a decided change in my system, hope sprang up in my heart and sleep, very well, the constant craving for food ceased and I have better health now than before the attack of peritonitis."
"My husband and I are still using Grape-Nuts and Postum." "There's a Reason."
Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.
Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Assistant Treasurer Boldenweck from inability, although it was promised that congress would again consider the matter at its next session.

EMBARKS IN SPECULATION

Meanwhile, Herbert P. Young, a former Chicago newspaper reporter and now head of the Young Secret Service agency, became interested in the case, at first without official connection, but later as the agent of Mr. Boldenweck. Mr. Young's attention was directed to Fitzgerald. The latter, upon discharge from the military, stated that his whole fortune consisted of $50 in cash and a stock certificate for $1,000. His wife had a $100 interest in the estate of her mother, which was valued at about $1,000 and was in litigation. Fitzgerald, however, according to Mr. Young, embarked in speculation on a scale not consistent with the size of his reputed means. There was, however, no ostentation in Fitzgerald's life. The lavish display which detectives invariably look for in tracing stolen funds, was absent. Fitzgerald bought eggs for speculation and stored them. In July, 1907, he inaugurated an egg deal which ultimately, it is stated, involved an expenditure of $7,000, and the following March a similar deal involved him, according to Mr. Young, to the extent of $5,000. Incidentally the former partner in speculation was named in his wife's name of a best brick residence in Rogers' park, a suburb of Chicago, and valued at $8,500. Mr. Young declared today that this purchase was made in a roundabout way, passing through several hands and finally into those of Mrs. Fitzgerald for $25,000.
