300 Pieces Merchant Tailor's Suiting for Women's Skirts and Suits Best $2.00 and $2.50 Materials—all pure wool—at, yard 79c ON SALE WEDNESDAY

The best, most serviceable and smartest fabrics a woman can buy for suits or skirts. We bought from an eastern tailoring house all their short ends—4, 4½, 5, 5½ and 6-yard lengths—of their medium weight fabrics, tweeds, cassimeres, worsteds, etc. They are all pure wool, very nice patterns and mixtures right in keeping with fall styles. Not a single piece is worth less than $2.00—most are $2.50 goods; 54 inches wide. We bought them low enough to make a tremendous furor. Wednesday take your choice of 300 pieces at, yard 79c

Brilliant Display of New Tailored Suits at $25.00 We call particular attention to the broad variety of charming new models we are featuring Wednesday at $25.00. From a style view point they are supreme. While expressing the new direction tendency they are Americanized adaptations modified to meet American ideas. The salient features being the close fitting lines of the coats and skirts. The materials are superb gray worsteds and other new colorings, the tailoring is unsurpassed even in suits costing considerably more. Values that few stores would not hesitate to mark at $35.00. Wednesday at $25
