

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Trade is Light and the Influence is Not Pronounced. RECEIPTS ARE QUITE GOOD. Reserved Stocks Are Being Rapidly Exhausted and the Markets Are Working on a Sound Basis.

OMAHA, Aug. 27, 1908. The grain market was again firm today, but ruled dull, gaining somewhat, with trade fairly light.

Receipts are generous and particularly corn receipts, but each grain is readily taken up and has not been a drag to the market. Reserved stocks are being rapidly exhausted and the markets are working on a sound basis.

Wheat opened steady and was sustained on scalping orders, but later became dull and some light selling was noted. September wheat opened at 94 1/2 and closed at 94 1/2.
